In the 15th Century French anthem "O Sons and Daughters", Anna Kay Marley and Russell Edmister will sing the descant. Mrs. Hugh Hartshorne is Cherub Choir Mother, and Mrs. John Alexander is Junior Choir Mother.

White Cross News Letter

Mrs. W. C. Coker, containing many rare foreign and native plants

The White Cross Boy Scout Troop went to the Scout Circus in Raleigh Saturday night. Carson Lloyd, scoutmaster, carried one load of the boys, and Rayvon Sturdivant and Nancy Sue Crawford carried another load. This troop gave a demonstration on making rope.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sturdivant gave a birthday party for their daughter, Linda, honoring her 16th birthday Friday night at the White Cross Community Building. A large crowd of her friends attended. Nancy Sue Crawford and Frances Strowd had charge of the games. A pink birthday color scheme was carried out in the decorations and refreshments, which were cake squares, nuts, mints and punch. The table was centered with a beautifully decorated birthday cake. Linda received many nice and useful gifts from her friends, and a record player from her parents.

Honor Miss Andrews

Miss Foye Andrews, bride elect of April 20, was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower Saturday night at the Community Building. Hostesses at the shower were Mrs. Grady Durham, Mrs. Clem Crawford, Mrs. Wayne Strowd, Mrs. Milton Cheek and Mrs. Truitt Blackwood. Mrs. Cheek, assisted by Mrs. Blackwood, had charge of the games. A color scheme of white, green and pink was carried out. Foye opened the many lovely and useful gifts, after which refreshments of cake squares, sandwiches, nuts, mints and lime punch were served from a table which was centered with a lovely arrangement of spring flowers. There were approximately 90 guests attending.

The Rev. Mr. Riggs, retired minister, and past pastor at Antioch Church, supplied at Antioch Sunday for Rev. Mr. Williams, who was away helping in a revival at a church near Jacksonville, N. C. Mrs. Williams joined him there over the weekend, and visited her parents who live there.

Join Orange Chapel

Orange Chapel Church received six new members Sunday. Steve O'Daniel, Mary Carol O'Daniel, Linda Lashley, Val Clegg Crawford and Phyllis Strowd joined on profession of faith, and Mrs. Carson Lloyd moved her membership there from another Methodist Church.

There were several visitors at Orange Chapel Sunday. Walter Lamb was there and taught the Men's class. Mr. and Mrs. Tysinger and Mr. and Mrs. Gettling, all of Lexington, and visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sturdivant, Miss Mabel Moses, weekend visitor of Miss Jo Amick, was there.

The community wishes to express sincere sympathy to the family of A. D. Andrews, who was buried at Orange Chapel Church last Tuesday.

The family of A. D. Andrews wishes to express grateful appreciation to all the people in the community, and surrounding communities, who joined in the search for A. D., and gave other expressions of sympathy and concern during the time he was missing, and his funeral.

Mrs. Alton Durham was not able to come home from Watts Hospital last week as was expected, due to complications, but she is better now and hopes to come home soon.

Rochelle Atwater, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Atwater, underwent an operation at Duke Hospital last Wednesday.

Aubrey McLennan has been confined to his home since the middle of last week. We hope he is soon out again.

Marvin Atwater was confined to his bed a day or two last week, but he is out again, and improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Atwater went to Norfolk, Virginia, last week to visit Mrs. Atwater's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hargroves, whose small son is seriously sick with a heart condition. They returned home Friday. The baby was still unconscious Sunday. Mrs. James Andrews was elected treasurer of the School P.T.S.A. year.
