

CHAPEL HILL NEWS LEADER

Leading With The News in Chapel Hill, Carrboro, Glen Lennox and Surrounding Areas

"Trap"
The use of the word "trap," in these days when women outnumber men and the supply of husbands is getting scarce has caught the attention of the editor. See Page Two.

TELEPHONE 8-444

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, MONDAY, JANUARY 6, 1958

SIX PAGES THIS ISSUE

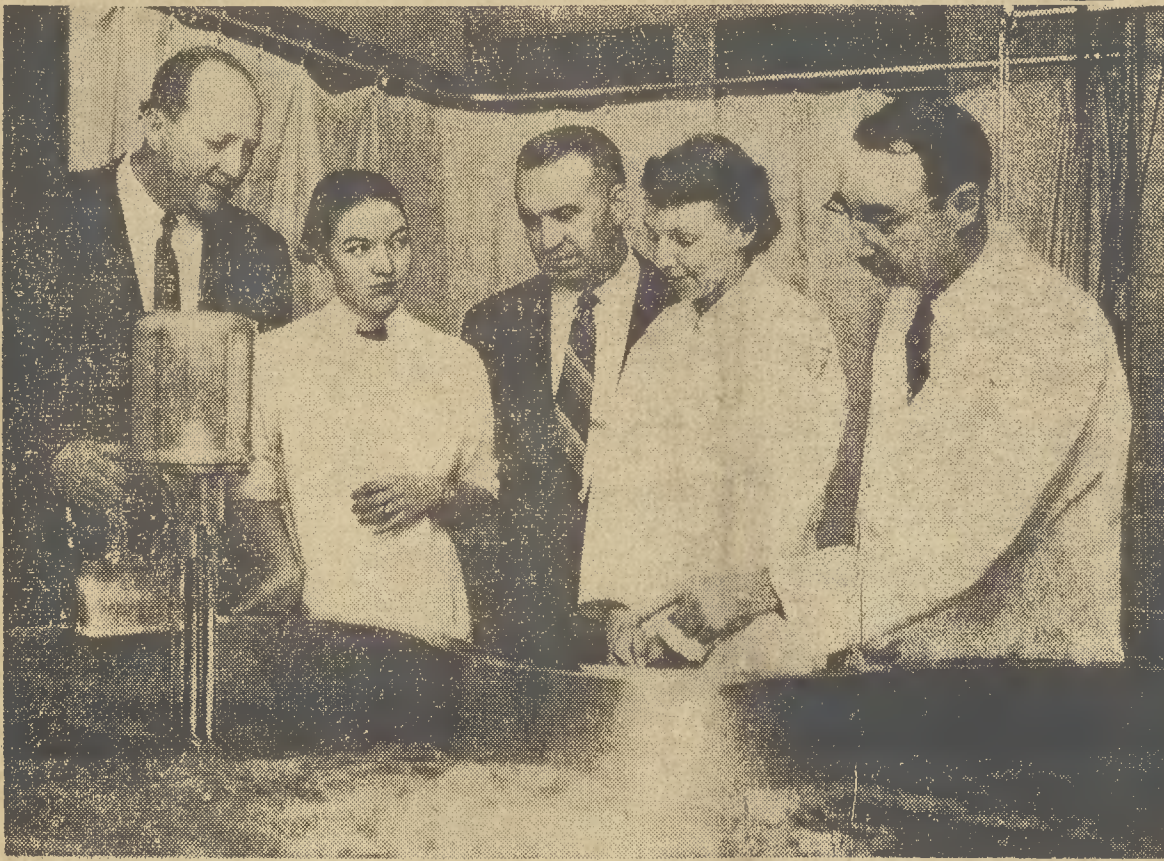

New Drug Store Opening Today In Glen Lennox

George W. Harris, a resident of Glen Lennox, opened the new Glen Lennox Pharmacy in the Glen Lennox Shopping Center today. The new business is located in the quarters formerly occupied by The Lennox Shop in the suburban shopping center.

A native of Durham and a 1953 pharmacy graduate of the University here, Mr. Harris has practiced pharmacy in Kinston and Durham. Mrs. Harris is the former Susan Wallace of Pennsylvania and they have two daughters.

Hours for the new drug store will be 8:30 a.m. until 9 p.m. on week days and 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Sundays. Mr. Harris said that a 24-hour daily prescription service would be provided through a night emergency telephone.

The Glen Lennox Postal Station will continue to be operated in the new business as it was in The Lennox Shop.

GRANT FOR POLIO PATIENTS—The University School of Medicine has received a grant of $237,403 from the March of Dimes. Shown here are March of Dimes officials and personnel of the UNC School of Medicine. The equipment they are examining is a Hubbard underwater walking tank, which is used for the treatment of polio patients. Paul C. Butler of Southern Pines, State Chairman of the March of Dimes, is shown here on the left. The others are, left to right, Shirley Cloninger of Dallas, physical therapy student; Crowell Little, Chapel Hill, Chairman of the Orange County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis; Miss Rachel L. Nunley, instructor in the Section of Physical Therapy of the School of Medicine and Dr. William P. Richardson, professor of preventive medicine and chairman of the school's Rehabilitation Committee. UNC Photo by J. B. Clay

Zoning Law Violation Is Charged In Case Of Non-Conforming Business

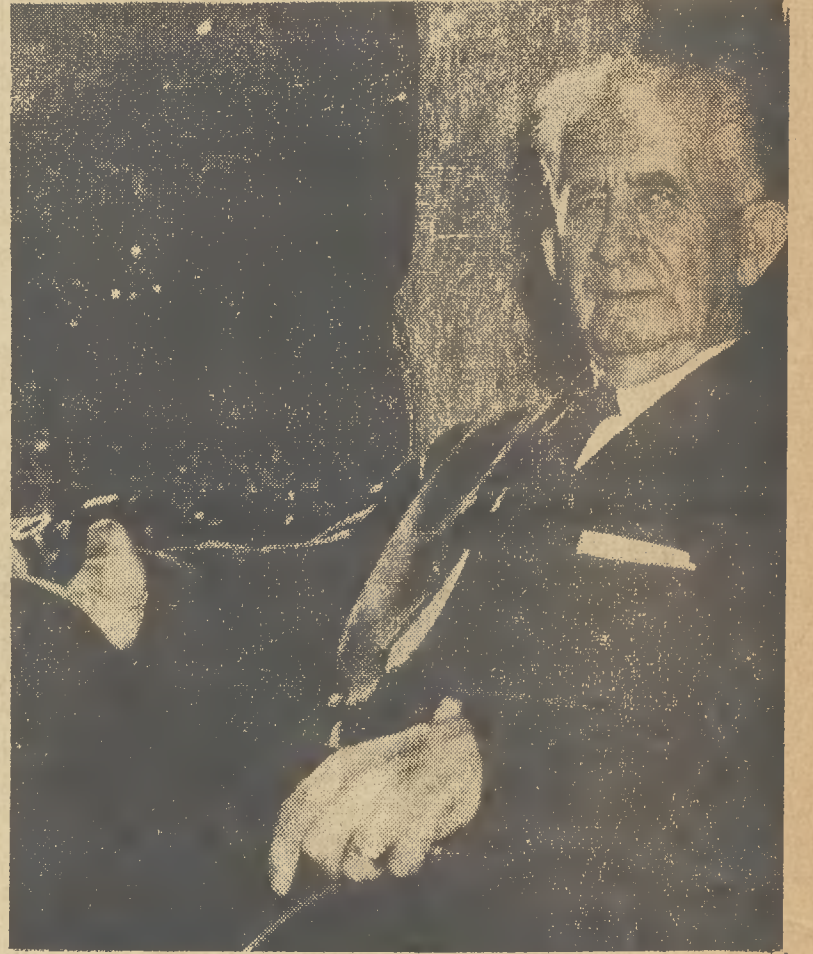

A warrant charging a violation of the local zoning ordinance has been drawn against two men who have opened a garage and auto parts business across from a new residential development just west of Carrboro.

Chapel Hill Building Inspector Howard Stewart said that the charge to be heard in the Chapel Hill Recorder's Court, cites W. H. Ray and a partner named Secaree, both of Alamance County, with violating a part of the zoning code which provides that a non-conforming use cannot be resumed after being abandoned for as much as 180 days.

Residents of the Westview residential subdivision, across the street from the business location on the Greensboro Highway have joined in the protest according to Mr. Stewart. He said that 62 residents of the area had signed a statement that the property had not been used for business purposes for the past two years.

A metal garage building was erected on the land in the early 1950's by W. T. McAdams for the purpose of repairing his equipment. This was before the district zoning ordinance went into effect. Since that time the property has been zoned for residential use only.

Subsequently the tract was sold to Leroy King of Burlington, who has leased it to the two men who have opened the auto business on it.

REP. CARL T. DURHAM
... Now 20 Years In Congress ...

No Primary Opposition In Sight ...

Carl Durham Returns To Capitol Hill Today

Sixth District Congressman Carl Durham flew back to Washington this morning to resume his duties on Capitol Hill.

Now in his 20th year as the Democratic representative from the four-county Durham-Orange-Alamance-Guilford District, Mr. Durham will wield considerable influence in the coming Congress, as one of the veteran members of the House. He is Chairman and one of the few charter members of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy and a Vice-Chairman of the House Armed Forces Committee.

While he hasn't revealed his political intentions for this election year, it's a foregone conclusion that he'll seek his 11th two-year term, and as of this date he has no opposition in sight. In the 1956 Democratic primary he handily defeated Alamance dairyman Ralph Scott.

By tradition the Tar Heel Congressmen generally agree on the dates when they'll announce their candidacies or political intentions some time shortly after the opening of Congress. Mr. Durham said his word on this matter would come from Washington.

He has remained in Chapel Hill for the past two months since his return from the International Atomic Energy Congress in Vienna, which was followed by a tour of atomic installations in Europe. During the past week he has delivered speeches in Durham, Burlington, and Greensboro.

State Game Ticket Priority System Noted

The next Carolina basketball game with reserved seats will be with N. C. State in Woolen Gymnasium on Wednesday, Jan. 15.

A priority in seating will be giving to persons whose names start with the letter N through Z for three days, Jan. 6-7-8. Vernon Crook, business manager of athletics, has announced.

Any tickets remaining Thursday morning will go on a first come first served basis to anyone who applies.

Merchants Association Plans Expansion Of Several Services

Expansion of several services during 1958 is being planned by the Chapel Hill-Carrboro Merchants Association.

Association Secretary Mrs. Jane Whitefield announced today that effective Jan. 20 a third person would be added to the office staff, to give particular emphasis to the Association's collection service in its Credit Bureau.

On Feb. 1 a full six days per week schedule will be adopted for office hours, which will be extended from 9 a.m. until 5:30 p.m., Monday through Saturday. Another expanded service will be in the line of secretarial work, including addressing, mimeographing, and sending promotional letters.

Credit courses are to be sponsored by store owners and credit managers and work on careers in retailing is to be started with high school students. A monthly bulletin sent to members will list deeds of trust, chattel mortgages and other matters of public records, plus changes of address and newcomers names and addresses.

March Of Dimes Opens $77,000 Hike In Construction Noted In 1957

The Orange County March of Dimes for the relief of infantile paralysis opened today again under the direction of E. Carrington Smith.

The campaign chairman said that the drive in northern Orange County would be handled by Sheriff Odell H. Clayton. G. Paul Carr will be in charge of the drive in the County School System.

Last year the campaign netted about $10,000, according to Mr.

Smith. He said that a mail appeal would be sent out this week to all local residents. It will include a return envelope for contributions, he noted. Miss Sarah Umstead is in charge of the mailing.

On Jan. 25 the Chapel Hill Jaycees will stage the traditional road block on a downtown street to solicit contributions to the drive. Mrs. George Barclay will conduct the Mothers' March house-to-house campaign, also at the end of the month. Mr. Smith said.

Biggest month during the year was September, when building totalling $241,500 was started. By contrast, the final month of the year, with only six projects totalling $53,000, was the lightest.

Following are construction permits for December as issued by Building Inspector Howard Stewart:

Mark Burnham; alterations to John Cassell dwelling, Pittsboro St.; $2,500.

Lucy Craig; move and repair dwelling, S. Merritt Mill Rd.; $4,000.

Percy H. Quinlan; erect garage, 43 Rogerson Drive $300.

Mrs. William Henderson; alterations to dwelling, Woodland Ave., $2,500.

L. G. Tripp; erect dwelling, Hillsboro Rd., $19,500. L. G. Tripp; erect dwelling, Hillsboro Rd., for H. H. King; $7,000.

J. L. McLeod; erect two six-room dwelling, Lake Forest subdivision; $18,000.

Fear For Future Of America Cited By Cox In Award Entries

"A fear for America's future" seemed to prevail among the leading entries for the past year's nationwide Freedoms Foundation awards, according to Chapel Hill's Bob Cox, one of the 28 jurors who selected the winners at Valley Forge, Pa., recently.

The local civic leader, considered a likely candidate for the Presidency of the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, said his week of judging the Freedoms Foundations awards "on the basis of who has done the most for America's heritage" was one of the "most revealing and moving experiences of my life."

An incumbent Vice-President of the U. S. Jaycees, Mr. Cox was asked to serve with other national leaders in civic and legal circles in naming the winners in college programs, movies, public addresses, and community programs—four of the many fields in which the awards will be announced shortly.

He spoke on his experiences at the Valley Forge judging at the meeting of his home town Jaycees here Thursday night.

Three of the defendants will be tried in the local Recorder's Court, and the case of a fourth, 15-year-old, will be heard in the County's private Juvenile Court.

Police Capt. William D. Blake said the four all admitted participating to varying extents in acts of destruction at the social hall of Cobb Dormitory following a New Year's Eve dance sponsored there by the Chapel Hill High School Y-Teens organization. The boys themselves were not present at the dance, the police reported.

Charged in the case were Phil Ordway, a first-year student at the University from Chapel Hill, Hunter Tilghman, a Chapel Hill High School senior, Gary Chapman, a sophomore, and the 15-year-old boy, also a sophomore.

The destruction included damage estimated at more than $50 to a juke box, and the breaking of several chairs and candlestick holders. Police said the boys admitted they had been drinking whisky before the incidents occurred, "around 1 a.m. on Jan. 1.

New Year's Eve Acts Charged To Four Boys

New Year's Eve vandalism reportedly admitted by four local teenage boys has resulted in their arrests on charges of malicious mischief.

Police Capt. William D. Blake said the four all admitted participating to varying extents in acts of destruction at the social hall of Cobb Dormitory following a New Year's Eve dance sponsored there by the Chapel Hill High School Y-Teens organization. The boys themselves were not present at the dance, the police reported.

Charged in the case were Phil Ordway, a first-year student at the University from Chapel Hill, Hunter Tilghman, a Chapel Hill High School senior, Gary Chapman, a sophomore, and the 15-year-old boy, also a sophomore.

Sommer Is One Of 12 From U.S. Selected For West German Tour

Clemens Sommer of the University faculty has been invited by the West German Government to be one of a dozen visiting American educators to tour cities and institutions in Germany.

They will go first to Bonn and will visit Berlin, Munich, Stuttgart and other places, and will have opportunities to meet and talk with other professionals in their several fields of work.

Prof. Sommer has been a member of the faculty of the University at Chapel Hill since 1939. He received his Ph.D. degree at the University of Freiburg in Germany in 1919.

Prof. Sommer and the others, as a part of a program of adult education in Germany.

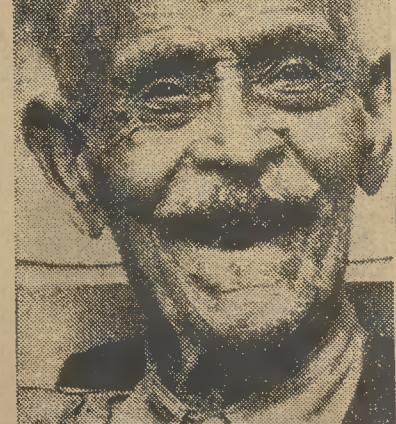

They will go first to Bonn and will visit Berlin, Munich, Stuttgart and other places, and will have opportunities to meet and talk with other professionals in their several fields of work.

Prof. Sommer has been a member of the faculty of the University at Chapel Hill since 1939. He received his Ph.D. degree at the University of Freiburg in Germany in 1919.

Death Claims Willie Meacham; Passes At 90; Rites Yesterday

Funeral services were held yesterday for William Manly "Grants" Meacham, 90, of the Mann's Chapel community, who died at his home Friday afternoon.

One of the oldest citizens in the area, the peg-legged nonagenarian passed his 90th birthday last July 19 in good spirits, though he readily told one and all "I been expectin' to die next week for years."

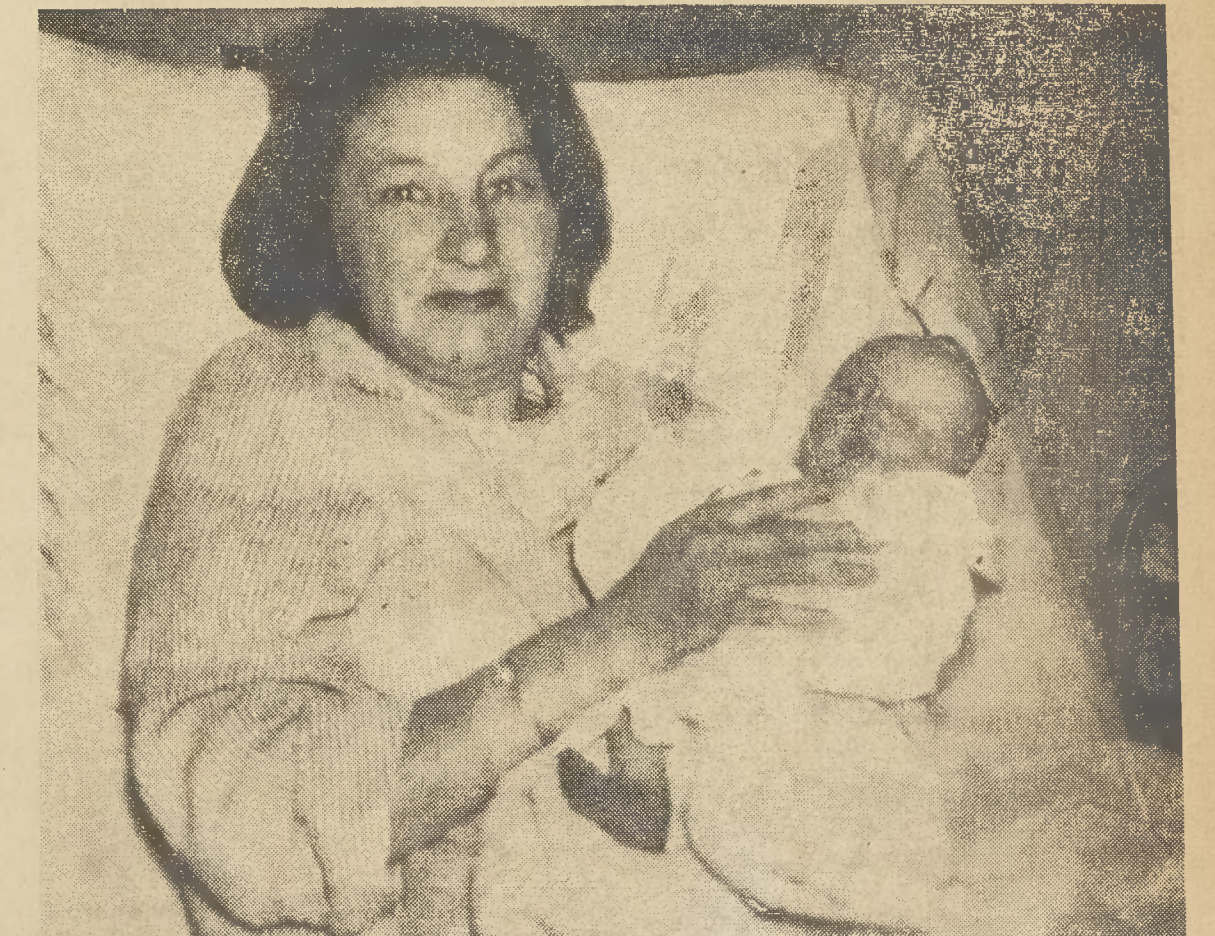

WILLIE 'GRANTS' MEACHAM
... On 90th Birthday ...
News Leader Photo

Born on the site of the Old Cedar Grove Methodist Church in Orange County in 1867, he was never farther than a county away from his final home in northern Chatham with the Hubert Meacham family. He is survived by Hubert Meacham, Auburn Meacham, Mrs. Alvin Cannady, and Mrs. Flonnie Poythress, all his children, who live in the area.

His wife, the former Lula King of Chatham County, died 14 years ago. Four generations of his descendants survive, including 23 grandchildren and 36 great-grandchildren.

Mr. Meacham had been seriously ill for about six weeks.

NEW YEAR'S BABY—Cynthia Lee Gates, seen with her mother, Mrs. Willie Gates of Route One, became the New Year's first baby at Memorial Hospital at 10:52 a.m. last Thursday, Jan. 2. The Gates' have three other children—sons Ronnie, 10, Keni, four, and Billy, three. News Leader Photo

Weather Reports

Partly cloudy and not quite so cold today and tomorrow, with low tonight in mid-20's.

	High	Low	Rainfall
Thursday	50	17	.00
Friday	37	15	.00
Saturday	39	15	.00
Sunday	33	9	.00

PLE rief

LICENSE PUR-particular about on their tags had in hurry. The s.p. "BL" letters on ed by the end ding to the clerk for Club license pell Motor Co. chasers—whether not—will get all there are in stock locally. g the sales for d one-half days gs and 268 Chap-

RE ON THEIR the hope that a ce incident may Christmas Eve mix-up between Negro youngsters Community Center, some recurrences that time, too.

ALREADY AN- in the new year, William Warnock's where the alarm cause of a chim- next day, early in Greene Electric caused by a fault- ed a work bench; morning to 101 a chimney fire. any case. Actual- of the old year Eve at the John m St. This, too, but of little con-

THE CHAPEL will present spe- perweight repli- ll to the players m of 1917 during Thursday morn- President Vie the Tar Heels' the then arch- in 1917 was Car- ver this foe in players on this Gwynn and Gen.

ONE OF THE ties in its retail the 1946-56 de- figures just re- Tax Research am, incidentally, gain with a 393 s compared to cent increase, poultry industry this period ac- art for the busi-

CARL DURHAM, started for Wash- asked his opin- about Gaitner the country's de- id he'd read the that concerned am but that he got excited

COUNTY WEL- o delighted with pel Hill's Alex- nt Chairman of Board, and are Chapel Hill's service on this w giving to all to come into the neft of proper e under their ames of "Alex- dia."

OMMISSIONERS vely routine ses- hearing reports als and delega- ing petitions. A Sini Road east eared before the rances that they in the Chapel Engineer Tom the priorities for t District. This d will meet with vision Engineer ous to priorities ous in the Coun-

IFF BURCH ck in Hillsboro boueymoon, re- an this morning onstant on the "Price Is Right" el 5 this evening. on he and his arilyn Strayhorn ed the TV show on Page Six)