Even Measles Don't Dampen Seniors' Spirits On Trip To D.C.

Not even three cases of measles dampened the spirits of the 56 Chapel Hill High School seniors who made a trip to Washington, D. C., this weekend. The group, who made the trip in two busses, got home this morning at 1:15. All declared they "had a marvelous time."

Chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth White and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Grantham, the group covered over 12 famous sight-seeing spots in the nation's capital on their tour. Highlights of the trip were the moonlight cruise on the Potomac River Friday night and a nightclub visit Saturday, which included a floor show by the Four Lads.

The seniors had earned $780 to finance their weekend from a variety of projects, including bake sales and a barbecue supper. Each contributed another nine dollars plus meals and spending money for the trip.

"We weren't able to see any of the North Carolina Congressmen while we were there," one senior said, "but we got to see all the sights we'd scheduled with one exception—we got to the FBI building too late to be included on a tour."

Naval Choir To Sing Here Next Saturday

The Naval Aviation Cadet Choir from Pensacola, Fla., will give two performances at the University on Saturday. Both programs are open to the public at no charge and will be held in Hill Hall. The group will perform at 4 p.m. Saturday and again at 8 o'clock that night.

The visit of the choir is being sponsored by the University's Naval ROTC unit and the Graham Memorial Activities Board, a branch of the UNC student union group.

The Cadet Choir is composed of 60 student Naval Aviators currently taking flight training in the Naval Air Basic Training Command at Pensacola. Since the organization of the group 10 years ago, it has gained a reputation as one of the finest acappella choruses in the country.

13 Orange Scout Units Going To Weekend Raleigh Exposition

Thirteen Cub and Boy Scout units from the Orange District are expected to participate in Saturday's Occaneechee Council Scout Exposition at Reynolds Coliseum in Raleigh.

The Rotary-sponsored affair is expected to be seen by about 25,000 persons between the hours of 1 and 8:30 p.m. Climax of the event will be the presentation at 8:30 of the 60 Boy Scouts in the 12-county Council who have attained the Eagle Scout rank in the last year. They will be honored by Gov. Luther Hodges.

A total of 160 demonstrations and booths will be erected on the coliseum floor, featuring Scout displays on crafts, nature-lore, sports, hobbies, cooking, pioneering, and other subjects taken up in the Boy Scout handbook.

Valuable Masonic Candelabra Here

A gold-plated seven-branch candelstick found its way from Denmark to Alexandria, Va., via Chapel Hill last week.

Wallace Caldwell, Past Grand Master of the North Carolina Masons and chairman of the National Committee on the Royal Arch Room, arranged for the execution of the candelabra, which will be placed in the George Washington Masonic Memorial at Alexandria.

Mr. Caldwell commissioned E. Dragsted, celebrated silversmith of Copenhagen, Denmark, to make the candelstick when he visited his son, Robert, there last summer. Robert, who is a member of the American Embassy staff in Denmark, had introduced his father to Mr. Dragsted and he supervised the work.

Valued at $8,000 on the European exchange, the candelabra is modeled on the first candelstick placed in the Tabernacle at Jerusalem, which is described in the 37th chapter of Exodus. The design was drawn from a representation of the original of the Arch

THE MASONIC CANDELABRA

"The candelstick is of bronze heavily overlaid with gold," Mr. Caldwell remarked, "and is so heavy it took two men to lift it when it was shipped to Alexandria."

It will be placed in the presentation of the Holy of Holies in the Royal Arch Room.

Golden Fleece Tapping, Valkyrie Singing Set

The Order of the Golden Fleece, highest men's honorary organization at the University, will celebrate its 55th anniversary with its annual public tapping in Memorial Hall at 7:30 p.m. next Monday.

The order's traditional tapping ritual, with robed figures searching by spotlight through the darkened auditorium for the new initiates, will begin soon after the doors are closed at 7:15 p.m.

Immediately following the tapping, the Valkyrie Sing will get underway, with vocal groups from sororities, fraternities, dormitories and campus groups competing for prizes.

FINAL RED CROSS APPEAL

Red Cross Fund Drive Chairman Ralph Howard today issued a final appeal to local citizens who have not contributed to the 1958 Red Cross appeal to do so at once. He noted that the Bank of Chapel Hill would accept contributions at any of its three branches.

Two PTA's To Meet Thursday To Consider New Report Cards

The PTA's of the Glenwood Elementary and the Chapel Hill Elementary Schools will meet jointly Thursday at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the Chapel Hill Elementary School. At this time the Report Card Committee will present for approval a revised report card for grades 4-6.

A year ago all parents of these two schools were sent a questionnaire stating, "In order that we may learn how the parents feel about our present system of grading and reporting to parents, will you please answer the following questions and return this blank with your child's report card."

1. What do you like about this kind of report card?

2. What do you dislike about this kind of report card?

3. What suggestions have you for improving our reporting system?

Three report forms have been in use in these schools; a Primary Card, grades one to three; an Elementary Card, grades four to six; and a Jr. High card, grades seven and eight.

At the following PTA meeting last year a report of this survey was made. In brief it was: 1. A majority of all parents returned the questionnaire and had put much thought into their comments. 2. A large majority of the primary grade parents liked the present card. 3. All the parents liked the junior high report card. 4. The majority of parents of the elementary grades would like to see this card revised. 5. Many parents from all grade levels suggested scheduled parent-teacher conferences.

Members of this committee are: Carl Brown, consultant; Mrs. Gus Miller, Mrs. Robert Cadmus, Mrs. Stuart F. Chapin, Mrs. J. Carlyle Sitterson, parents; Superintendent of Titus sketched in 1710. "The description in Exodus and this sketch were incorporated," Mr. Caldwell said, "and the finished picture was the nearest we could come to the original."

C. W. Davis, Mildred Mooneyhan, Ben Battle, Bernice Wade, administrators; Mrs. Lydia Kellogg, Mrs. Dorothy Koch, Miss Nancy Tuttle, Mrs. Sara Rankin, Miss Elizabeth Seawell, and Miss Elizabeth King, teachers.

Wilson Files For County Board; Ray 'Sustains Mild Attack'

Bingham Township dairy farmer Hugh M. Wilson has become the first office-seeker other than incumbents in the May 31 Democratic primary election.

In officially filing for the County Board of Commissioners this past weekend Mr. Wilson became the fourth candidate for the three seats at stake. Already announced are incumbents Donald McDade, Henry Walker, and Dwight Ray. However, none of these have yet officially filed.

The political scene took a new twist over the weekend as Mr. Ray, a Carrboro hardwareman, went to Memorial Hospital with what was described by friends as a "mild stroke." He suffered a heart attack a number of months ago, but has been in apparent good health for a good while since then.

Entered Wednesday
Mr. Ray, who was elected County Commissioner in 1954, entered the Hospital last Wednesday, but was reported in excellent condition there yesterday and was expected to return home today.

In filing for Commissioner, Mr. Wilson is seeking this post for the third time, having run in both the 1956 and 1954 primaries. He is a 1933 A. B. graduate of the University of North Carolina, member of the Grange, Farm Bureau and of New Hope Presbyterian Church. In addition he is Secretary-Treasurer of the North Carolina Ayrshire Breeders Association and on the Advisory Committee of the Carolina Milk Producers Association.
