

'Patterns Of Spring' Is Theme Of Oakview Home, Garden Tour

Mrs. William Moffitt and Mrs. Gray Culbreth, show chairman for the Oakview Garden Club's Home and Garden Tour to be held May 1, have announced their committee:

President and Honorary Chairman, Mrs. Fred W. Ellis; Schedule, Mrs. Alex Sessoms; Entry and Classifications: Arrangements, Mrs. E. M. Adams; Horticulture, Mrs. R. L. Hardison; Judges, Mrs. W. W. Baucum; Hospitality, Mrs. D. G. Tarbet, Mrs. Roland McClamroch, Jr., Mrs. Maurice E. Newton; Staging: Horticulture, Mrs. Noel Houston; Publicity, Mrs. Sam Taylor; Tickets, Mrs. M. M. Timmons. Tickets for the tour can be purchased at any of the three homes open to the public. Children under 12 will be admitted free if accompanied by parents. Hours will be from 2 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. May 1. Homes to be shown include the following: B. L. Ward, Greenwood Road; the home and terrace of Mrs. Earl Wynn, Greenwood Road; the home of Mrs. Billy Arthur, Christopher Road; and the garden of Mrs. Noel Houston, Greenwood Road.

Mmes. Shepard, Armstrong, Fete Miss Lyons

Mrs. Roy Armstrong and Mrs. George Shepard entertained yesterday morning at a coffee honoring Miss Mary Elizabeth Lyons, who is engaged to marry Tom Johnston Kearns of High Point April 26.

The coffee was held at the Shepard home on Westwood Drive. The house was decorated with yellow flowers in a spring motif.

The hostesses presented Miss Lyons with a gift of a silver bread tray.

Assisting in greeting and serving the 50 guests who attended the courtesy were Mrs. William Aycock, Mrs. Ed Hedgpeth, Mrs. Miriam McNair, Mrs. Bruce Strowd, Mrs. Hugh Leffer, Mrs. M. A. Hill, Mrs. Sterling Stoudemire and Mrs. C. P. Spruill.

Press Women Coming Here This Weekend

Miss Gay Pauley, Woman's Page Editor of the United Press, will be the main speaker at the fifth annual Institute of North Carolina Press Women meeting this weekend at the Carolina Inn.

Annual press prizes for women of North Carolina newspapers will be awarded at the institute, and a panel of editors and publishers will discuss women in their role on newspaper staffs.

Reed Sarratt, executive editor of the Winston-Salem Journal and Sentinel, will moderate the panel discussion "So You Are a Newspaper Woman."

Miss Pauley, a native of West Virginia, helped set up the women's news department at United Press in New York in 1953, and has been with UP since 1942. She has had a state political beat in Kentucky, headed a state bureau, and has been in the New York office for the past 11 years.

Officers of the N. C. Press Women are Doris Dale Reynolds of the Greensboro Daily News, President; Grace Laffoon of the Elkin Tribune, Vice-President; Jane Rogers of the Charlotte Observer, Secretary; Mrs. Rosamond Braley of the MacDowell News, Marion, Treasurer; and Elizabeth Peele of Charlotte, Contest Chairman.

MRS. KENNETH THOMAS HAWKINS

Miss Glenn, Mr. Hawkins Speak Nuptial Vows In Carrboro Rites

The wedding of Miss Mary Carolyn Glenn of Chapel Hill, daughter of Mrs. J. Wesley Thompson of Chapel Hill and Curtis Glenn Sr. of Clarksville, Va., to Kenneth Thomas Hawkins, son of Walter Hawkins and the late Mrs. Hawkins of Cedar Grove, was solemnized in the Carrboro Baptist Church at 7:30 in the evening last Saturday.

Glenn Jr., brother of the bride, and Paul Tripp, both of Carrboro, were ushers for the wedding. The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a navy blue crepe street-length dress with navy accessories and a white corsage of carnations.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the Sunday School rooms of the church. Refreshments were served from a table covered with a bridal satin cloth, centered with a flower arrangement of white snapdragons and lilies of the valley, flanked with tall white candles in crystal holders. The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. H. D. Maynard, Mrs. Dalton Howard presided at the punch bowl.

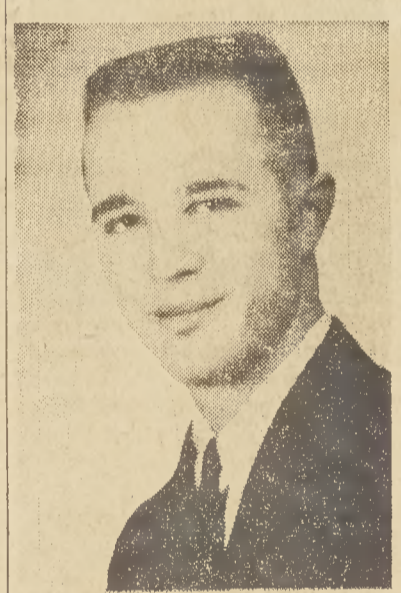

The Rev. Henry B. Stokes, pastor of the church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The vows were spoken before the church altar decorated with palms, seven branched candelabra with cathedral candles and baskets of white gladioli and snapdragons.

A program of organ music prior to the nuptial vows was rendered by Mrs. Ira Mann, organist. The bride entered with her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a white satin floor-length wedding gown made on princess lines, with sweetheart neckline. Her full length veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book topped with white gardenias.

The maid of honor was Miss Patricia Tripp of Carrboro, who wore a pink taffeta ballerina-length gown with an embroidered white net over-skirt and carried a bouquet of spring flowers with lilies predominating.

The ring bearer was Miss Ann Butler, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Butler of Durham. She wore a pink dress similar to that of the maid of honor, with a pinafare of white embroidery. She carried the rings on a hand decorated white satin pillow. Both attendants wore headpieces of spring flowers.

Best man for the bridegroom was his brother, Fred Hawkins, now stationed at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base, Goldsboro. Curtis

GRANT FOR CORNELL STUDY—Allen Williams, University senior in sociology, has won a $1,400 scholarship and will do graduate work at Cornell University next year. A native of Chapel Hill, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Williams. Mr. Williams is director of personnel in the University and the attorney for the University.

THURSDAY THROUGH SUNDAY

Arts Festival Offers Full Schedule

UNC's first Fine Arts Festival will begin this evening and last through Sunday night.

The Festival will include a Beaux Arts Ball fashioned on the Artist's and Model's Ball in Greenwich Village; a sidewalk art exhibit; a performance by the Naval Air Cadet Choir and of "Antigone," the adaptation by Jean Anouilh of Socrates' tragedy; a panel on "Fine Arts and Science in Modern Education;" a concert by William Leland, pianist; and a foreign film.

All of the events of the long weekend are being sponsored by various committees of GMAB except the Sidewalk Art Exhibit and the Beaux Arts Ball which are being co-sponsored by the Recreation Committee of GMAB and the University Art League. Mary Moore Mason is the coordinator of the Festival for GMAB and Chuck Hoskins is the adviser for the Art League.

The Festival will begin with the panel on "Fine Arts and Science in Education" tonight (Thursday) at 8 o'clock in the Main Lounge of Graham Memorial and will feature three authorities as speakers: Noel Houston, visiting professor of ra-

Warner Wells, translator of "Hiro-dio-TV-motion pictures at UNC and well-known TV and magazine writer; Dr. Gregory Ivey, head of the art department at WC; and Dr.

this evening a Russian film, "Ten Days That Shook the World," directed by Sergei Eisenstein, considered by many the greatest film director. The film which is a pic-

FINE ARTS FESTIVAL SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

- Today 7:30 p.m.—Foreign Film (Russian) "Ten Days That Shook the World"—Carroll Hall.
- Today 8 p.m.—Panel on "Fine Arts and Science in Modern Education" in GM Main Lounge.
- Fri. 10 a.m.-5 p.m.—Sidewalk Art Show—Franklin Street.
- Fri. 9-12 p.m.—Beaux Arts Ball—Carolina Inn—Music by "The Embers"—$1.50—Not open to the public.
- Sat. 4 p.m. and 8 p.m.—Performances of the Naval Air Cadet Choir—Hill Hall.
- Sat. 10 a.m.-5 p.m.—Sidewalk Art Show—Franklin Street.
- Sat. 8 p.m.—Petites Dramatique presents "Antigone" in Gerrard Hall.
- Sun. 8 p.m.—Petite Musicales—William Leland, pianist, main lounge of GM.
- Sun. 8 p.m.—2nd performance of "Antigone" in Gerrard Hall. of Graham Memorial.

shima Diary" and member of the UNC medical school faculty. The panel will be moderated by Curtis Gans, editor of The Daily Tar Heel.

There will also be a foreign film which will be on display same hours Saturday 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday. Friday evening the Ball will take place. is not open to the pu all other Festival even Saturday evening t Naval Air Cadet Choir ida, who have appear TV shows, among the Sullivan Show," will twice, at 4 p.m. and Hill. There will also be th formance of "Antigone the Petites Dramatique rard Hall at 8 p.m. on The Festival ends S the performance at 8 main lounge of G.M. Leland, pianist, under ship of the Petite Mus mittee, and the second ance of Antigone at 8 rard Hall.

Petites Dramatiques Schedules 'Antigone' Twice This Weekend

The "Antigone" of Jean Anouilh will be presented Saturday and Sunday night at 8 o'clock in Ger-

Amanda Meiggs as 'Antigone' and Harold Williamson as 'Haemon'

JNC Chorus Concert Set Tuesday Night

The University Chorus under the direction of Wilton Mason will present a concert in Hill Music Hall on Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The program will open with one of the finer works of the Renaissance period in music, Palestrina's "Missa Brevis." This Mass, first published in 1570, will be sung unaccompanied and in its entirety. Another religious work will complete the first half of the program. With Donna Kelly, soprano soloist, the chorus will sing the "Inflam-matus et accensus" from Rossini's Stabat Mater. Pianist Robert Steelman and organist John Shannon will accompany the Rossini number.

The second half of the program will consist of secular compositions of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. The Trois Chansons of Ravel, written in 1915, is the composer's only choral work aside from some unpublished cantatas. The three songs to be heard are "Nicolette," "Trois beaux oiseaux du Paradis" and "Ronde."

The second number will feature as soloists: Quillian White, soprano; Gene Strasser, tenor; Marilyn Zschau, contralto; Harvey Miller, baritone. Two Appalachian folk songs, "Over Yonder" and "When Young Men Go a-Courtin'" will be heard in arrangements by the Chorus director.

Concluding the concert will be three choruses from Moussorgsky's opera, Boris Godounov: Coronation Scene, In the Tower of Kazan, and Death of Boris. David Small will be the bass soloist and Robert Steelman and Dana Dixon, piano accompanists.

Entries are still being accepted, until 11 p.m. tonight, for the Sidewalk Art Show this weekend. Work may be submitted with a one dollar entry fee at the Graham Memorial Information Office. The show will be held on E. Franklin St., from the Uni-

From this act there develops a series of tragic incidents, which affect the lives of all the characters.

Starting as Antigone, the rebellious princess, will be Amanda Meiggs, who played the role of St. Jean earlier this year in "The Lark," another play by Jean Anouilh. Creon, the king, who has been trapped by his duty, will be William Dixon, seen earlier in "These Cornfields."

Taylor Williams will portray the cynical Chorus, and Harold Williamson will be Haemon, Antigone's fiancee.

Others in the cast are Beau Ryan as Ismene, Lucy Ann Dunlap as the nurse, Ken Callendar as Captain Jonas, John Whitty as the messenger, Barbara Dixon as Queen Euridice, and John Steed and William Pfefferkorn as the guards. No admission will be charged.

University Methodist Church

which will be on display same hours Saturday 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday. Friday evening the Ball will take place. is not open to the pu all other Festival even Saturday evening t Naval Air Cadet Choir ida, who have appear TV shows, among the Sullivan Show," will twice, at 4 p.m. and Hill. There will also be th formance of "Antigone the Petites Dramatique rard Hall at 8 p.m. on The Festival ends S the performance at 8 main lounge of G.M. Leland, pianist, under ship of the Petite Mus mittee, and the second ance of Antigone at 8 rard Hall.

There will also be th formance of "Antigone the Petites Dramatique rard Hall at 8 p.m. on The Festival ends S the performance at 8 main lounge of G.M. Leland, pianist, under ship of the Petite Mus mittee, and the second ance of Antigone at 8 rard Hall.

SUNDAY PIANIST final event of the Fine Arts Festival pianist Leland will give on the Petites Mus gram this Sunday ev o'clock in Graham M

Famous For . . .

Rare Roast
Imported
THE RATHSKO
A Landmark in Ch

Don't Miss Sutton's

Spring Swing Sale

All Luggage
25% Off

Including Duffel Bags and Over-Niters

All Desk Lamps 20% Off

Bargains Galore All Thru The Store!

SUTTON'S

Drug Store
East Franklin St.

Spring Swing Sale

50 Watches

Famous Makes For Ladies And Men

33 1/3% Discount

Friday And Saturday Only—Open Until 8:30 P. M. Friday

Wentworth & Sloan

East Franklin St. Chapel Hill

Personal Mention

(Phone 8444 For Contributions To This Column)

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Johns of Asheboro and their two daughters, Bebe and Julie, spent last Sunday here with Mrs. Johns' mother, Mrs. M. A. Strowd.

Arthur Roe, Joseph F. Burnett, E. C. Markham, Charles N. Reilly and S. Young Tyree will leave this weekend for San Francisco, Calif., to take part in the American Chemical Society meeting April 13-18.

Miss Fay Culpepper spent the Easter weekend with her family at Nags Head.

Kennon Strowd is recovering nicely at Memorial Hospital, where he underwent surgery last week. He has been a patient there for the past two weeks.

Mrs. L. L. Hobbs III and her children left yesterday to visit her mother, Mrs. Bernard Stephenson, in Shelby for 10 days. Mr. Hobbs will join them this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Vic Paderick have returned from a visit with his family in Kinston.

Dr. Newton Fischer will be in Cincinnati, Ohio, next week to participate in an intensive postgraduate course in reconstructive nasal surgery to be presented at the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine and Cincinnati General Hospital.

Miss Martha Meyer of Washington, D. C., spent the Easter weekend here with her brother, Dr. Harry Meyer, Mrs. Meyer and their three children.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Lane of Charleston, West Va., visited friends here this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lomax spent Easter Sunday in Charlotte with his family.

Pvt. Remsen Voorhis will arrive home from Fort Jackson, S. C., for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Voorhis, this weekend.

SPRING SWING SALE

IN APPRECIATION OF STUDENT PATRONAGE AND GOOD WILL WE ARE COOPERATING IN SPRING SWING DAYS WITH THE FOLLOWING SPECIALS.

ONE GROUP ALL SPRING
SPRING DRESSES SUITS AND COATS

1/3 Off Regular Price

1/4 Off Regular Price

10% Discount On Sportswear Including Swim Suits And Play Clothes

These Specials For Spring Swing Days Only
Friday and Saturday—April 11th and 12th

of Chapel Hill