

'Cats Host Cary Here In Playoff; Henderson Winner On Friday, 24-0

Henderson walloped fading Chapel Hill Friday night at Henderson, 24-0, closing the regular season for each team. The local Wildcats never were contenders after a scoreless first quarter.

This week, Chapel Hill plays the District Three playoffs here, host Cary at Carrboro's Lions Park. Cary took third place in the southern division of the district standings with a 5-2 mark, while Chapel Hill wound up in a like position in the northern tier with a 5-3 record.

Other Games Listed

Roxboro tangles with Smithfield for the district title at Roxboro, and Henderson, finishing second in the northern division, hosts Selma. Other games include Wake Forest at Graham, Apex at Hillsboro, Garner at Oxford Orphanage, Fuquay at Southern of Durham and Millbrook at Northern of Durham. Winless Oxford does not play in the playoff series.

Friday's rout completed a fading last half of the season for Chapel Hill, which won its first five games and then won only one other after losing to Roxboro.

The big Henderson club, paced by quarterback Jimmy Adams, wedged in front at halftime, 6-0, and then kept the pressure on the rest of the way.

Henderson scored first when Adams climaxed a 67-yard drive with a one-yard plunge. Adams scored again from the one in the second quarter after the opportunist Bulldogs pounced on a Chapel Hill fumble at the Wildcat 22.

Adams then took to the air, rifling a 14-yard scoring pass to Arthur Cates after a drive of 30 yards. He climaxed the runaway in the final quarter by shooting a 29-yard touchdown pass to an end, Micky Griswolds.

Statistics Indicative

Statistics of the game were indicative of the point difference. Henderson led in first downs, 14-9, and in yards rushing, 120-45. Adams completed eight of 14 passes for 120 yards, while Subir Roy of Chapel Hill connected on seven of 17 for 147 yards.

Chapel Hill opened the season by beating Southern, Oxford, Greensboro Page, Graham and Hillsboro. Just when local folks were predicting greater things, the Wildcats of Coach Bob Culton came apart, losing to Roxboro, Oxford Orphanage and Henderson and barely scraping past a lowly Northern club.

Excepting the last two games, the Wildcat defense was its most outstanding strong point. And even that failed at the end.

Wildcats Basketballers Open Practice Tuesday

The Chapel Hill Wildcat basketball team, with what Coach Bob Culton calls a "good nucleus," for the coming season, opens practice tomorrow.

Coach Culton will welcome six returning lettermen from a 1957-58 club which split 16 games. The "Cat hardwooders will open their new season Dec. 2 at Hillsboro in a special non-conference game to formally inaugurate that school's new gymnasium.

Returning to the team will be lettermen Subir Roy, Dave Henry, Bob Madry, Monty Milner, Phil Bowerman, and Brick Edinger.

Also returning will be Jimmy Clark, Stafford Warren, Dwight Stevenson and Lamar Giles, members of the 1957-58 squad. Thus, out of a 15-man squad from last year, Coach Culton and his aides will have 10 boys back for the new season.

REVIVAL AT O'BRYANT

A revival service will be held at the O'Bryant Chapel Church Nov. 5-7, officials said today.

Services will begin at 8 p.m. each night, with a different chorus and a different speaker on each occasion. The public is invited.

Halloween Passes 'Quietly'; Only Tire Cutting Reported

Halloween celebrators evidently confined their activities to non-destructive pursuits, the Chapel Hill Police Department reported today.

Officers said that only minor incidents of damage were reported during the "quiet" celebration. They said the only incident of note was the slashing of tires on three cars. They said one 16-year-old Negro boy has been arrested in connection with the incidents on Friday night.

At Blackman's Produce Market, one auto tire was slashed and a watermelon stand overturned. Also complaining of cut tires was Allen Crutchfield, 603 West Rosemary St., and the Chapel Hill Tire Co.

In another police matter, officers reported that two Charlotte men who had been given permits to sell magazines in the area were ordered out of town late last week when they allegedly misrepresented themselves as pharmacy students at the University. They were said to be representatives of the Union Circulation Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Only a few days earlier, a group of eight men and women salesmen were similarly ordered out of town by police for allegedly "forcing" themselves on residents.

GETS THE JOB DONE—This dial-system horn has bellowsings of fire in Chapel Hill now for 30 years. The noise it makes from the top of Town Hall has been described variously as "anater buffalo," and the "ooga" on a Model-T Ford. But the noise it gets the job done, alerting firemen to call.

News Leader Photo

Fire Horn Does Its Job

PEOPLE

Brief

A. KIMSEY KING JR., W. Hanft of Chapel Hill, and Kay W. Taylor of Chapel Hill were named to the strict general committee for the North Carolina Methodist campaign for Christian reformation.

W. H. HORTON, owner of the bookshop, was featured in an interesting article in the edition of the Raleigh News-Sun.

PRIZE WINNERS AT STATE FAIR were among the winning more prominently than in any previous year. The exposition became a state's Department of Agriculture. Among the local winners were Mary Ross Henley of Chapel Hill, third prize for a cotton cloth; and Mrs. Annie

O. ANDERSON, first prize for a tablecloth; Maggy Best, third prize for a rug; and Mrs. Annie

ON SALISBURY, NEW writer and Pulitzer Prize winner, will speak at Duke University Thursday. His topic: "Meet The Soviet Challenge and Education?"

CALENDAR EVENTS Monday, Nov. 3 — Dean Katherine Carter entertains women new to the university at a main campus, main campus Memorial.

School Board meeting at the president's office, Tuesday, Nov. 4 — 8:30 p.m. — Pools open for Election Day.

Faculty Club luncheon, Wednesday, Nov. 4 — Philological Club Faculty Lounge, Morehead

Girl Scout Leadership Course, United Congregational Church, Tuesday Evening Series, at Hill Music Hall.

Student Wives Club, Chancellor Robert House, Victory Village Nursery.

Faculty Wives of the Administration School of Business graduate enrollment Hall.

Wesley Foundation lecture, Planning Board meeting, Wednesday, Nov. 5

Wesley Foundation lecture on "Evolution and Christianity," Thursday, Nov. 6

Girl Scout Leadership Course, United Congregational Church.

Pharmacy Wives meeting of Pharmacy.

KICKING OFF THE CHEST DRIVE—Officials directing the 1958 Community Chest drive are pictured at a "kickoff" breakfast this morning at the Carolina Inn. Left to right are Bill Sloan, Charles Milner, William Friday, W. D. Carmichael, Jr., William Aycock, Mrs. Earl Wynn, Mrs. Harold Walters, George Coxhead, and Dr. Warner Wells. Standing is Orville Campbell, drive director. Seated in front is Ty Boyd.

Soliciting Underway For Community Chest

A capacity crowd filled the Carolina Inn this morning to formally "kick off" the 1958 Community Chest drive in Chapel Hill. Solicitations by volunteer workers began immediately.

The drive, headed by Orville Campbell, seeks to garner $30,220 to support 19 agencies. It is to continue until Nov. 12.

UNC Men Speakers

Speakers at this morning's kickoff breakfast include William C. Friday, president of the Consolidated University; William B. Aycock, chancellor of the University here; and W. D. Carmichael, University vice-president and controller.

All three stressed the importance of the drive here, with Mr. Friday stressing the importance of the Chest to the University as well as to Chapel Hill.

"We profit a great deal from the University community relationship which exists," he said.

Mr. Aycock similarly expressed the importance of the drive to the University and predicted the drive would reach and exceed its goal.

Jimmy Barron, of Chapel Hill Boy Scout Troop No. Nine, made the first official presentation of money to the Chest, turning over a small amount collected among children of the area.

It was announced that three firms have enrolled 100 per cent in the drive under the employees' deduction plan. They are Belk

Leggett-Horton, J. B. Robbins, Lennox; and R. N. Smith, Negro and Town and Campus.

Captains for the teams working on solicitation include George Coxhead and Bill Sloan, business; Mrs. Harold Walters and Mrs. Earl Wynn, residential; Dr. Warner Wells and Charles Millner, University; William T. Hobbs, Glen

Another Demo Sweep Seen In Tuesday's Vote

The traditional Democratic sweep is predicted again for Orange County tomorrow. A light turnout of voters, possibly around 3,500, is expected in perfect voting weather.

Little opposition to Democratic candidates will be found on the ballot. State Senator Edwin S. Lanier is opposed by Republican H. G. Dorsett, Chapel Hill, and Henry S. Walker, Donald R. McDade, and Clarence D. Jones, Democrats, face opposition from M. L. Cates, Sr., Republican from Hillsboro.

U. S. Sen. B. Everett Jordan is opposed by Richard C. Clarke, Jr. Total county registration is in the excess of 12,000, but lack of opposition — plus the traditional Democratic Party majority — have held interest to a minimum.

In 1956, when a Presidential race was on the ballot, 9,100 persons cast their votes in the general election. Adlai Stevenson carried the county by 400 votes.

Chapel Hill voting places are as follows: Precinct One, town hall; Precinct Two, Estes Hills School; Precinct Three, Woolen Gym; Precinct Four, Cone House; Precinct Five, Glenwood School. Carrboro voters will cast their ballots at the town hall. Polls will open at 6:30 a.m. and close at 6:30 p.m.

Other county voting precincts include the boxes of Carr, Cedar Grove, Tolars, St. Marv's, Eiland, Rock Springs, Caldwell, Cheeks, White Cross, Calls Store, Patterson and University.

The News Leader will report election returns tomorrow night on the ballot. Registrars are asked to call 8-444 as soon as the count is completed. The News Leader will give out information as soon as it is available.

Police Probing Theft Incidents

Several incidents of petty thievery were being investigated by Chapel Hill police today.

At the Phi Delta Theta Fraternity house, 303 S. Columbia St., officers reported the theft of eight small and two large trophies. They valued the trophies at $150.

Frederic Coenen, 407 East Franklin St., reported the theft of personal papers from his car; David Jones, 433 West Cameron St., reported the theft of his bicycle; M. B. Merritt told of the stealing of four hubcaps valued at $50; and Ronald Dorsey, Grimes dormitory, said two car hubcaps were stolen from his car parked near the Bell Tower.

Church Women Sponsor 'World' Day On Friday

The United Church Women of Chapel Hill will sponsor the local observance of World Community Day here Friday. The observance will start at the Congregational Christian Church at 8 p.m.

The women will collect yarn for women in refugee camps as a feature of the meeting, which is conducted internationally each year.

Featured speaker will be Dr. Givan Jones, who will speak on the topic, "The Meaning of World Community Day."

Weather REPORTS

Mostly cloudy, becoming partly cloudy today. High, 60-65. Generally fair and mild tomorrow.

	High	Low	Rainfall
Thursday	65	33	.00
Friday	70	29	.00
Saturday	72	35	.00
Sunday	60	45	.80

Carrboro PTA Members Hear District Report, Discussion By Panel

Mrs. Ann Cate, a delegate to the recent district PTA meeting in Roxboro, reported on the conclave at a meeting last week of the Carrboro PTA.

Also on the program was a panel discussion of "School Health in Our Schools," presented by Mrs. J. C. D. Blaine. On the panel were Miss Mary Louise Norwood, public health nurse, Mrs. Norman Brandon, Mrs. Ophelia Andrew and K. K. K. Box, principal of the Carrboro Elementary School.

Spooks And Goblins Had A Big Time

IT WAS A SCARY NIGHT in the Fowler's Food Store parking lot Friday night at the Chapel Hill Junior Chamber of Commerce's annual Halloween party. At right is little Bruce Johnston, who won first place in the one to three age bracket for his costume copying the Morton Salt advertisement. The fellow in the rear helping Bruce hold the umbrella is his father. Below are the costume winners. Front row, left to right, are winners of the one through three competition: Bruce Johnston, Kathy Jane Welch, second place, and Kathy Taylor, third place. Second row, left to right, are age 4-7 winners Mary and Ann Young, third place, Betty Durham, first place; and Mitch Campbell, second place. Back row, left to right, are winners in the eight and over division: Cheryl Jernigan, first place; Ann Hearn, third place; and Betsy Phillips, second place.

News Leader Photo

