$4,995,550 PWA Money Is Allotted N. C. For 52 Jobs

NEWS BRIEFS

Allotments to Finance 52 PWA Projects Are Approved

Warsaw, Sept. 28.—Joseph Hel-lech went to bed penniless a few nights ago in his ram-shackled home in the village of Drohobycz. Today he was the wealthiest inhabitant of that Galician town. For while he slept an oil gusher suddenly erupted beneath the flooring of his bedroom and flooded his home with "liquid gold."

Washington, Sept. 28.—The President has approved allotments of $4,995,550 to finance 52 PWA projects in North Carolina, having a total construction cost of $8,659,777.

Public Works Administrator Ickes instructed Stanley H. Wright, acting PWA director for North Carolina, that allotments were made on the showing and pledge of the applicants that the President's stipulations as to cost, employment, and construction schedule would be met, and legal, financial, and engineering requirements fulfilled.

Thinks Cow Bewitched

Paris, Sept. 28.—Because her cow had lost its appetite, a superstitious woman at Reil de la Verrie, Vendee, dangerously injured one of her neighbors, who she thought had "bewitched" it.

Collects Pitchers as Hobby

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 28.—Mrs. Marie A. Mayhew has perhaps one of the nation's most unusual table crockery collections—495 pitchers. They range from thimble size to a quart, in the forms of animals and famous men.

Man Fails in Suicide Attempt

New York, Sept. 28.—Police recorded a new extreme in suicide attempts here. Frank Spiee, 39, was brought in by Sergeant John J. Lynch who found him lying in a vacant lot in the Bronx banging his head against a broken milk bottle while choking himself with his necktie. "I wish I had your gun. I'd finish myself," Spiee told Lynch.

Two Convicts Escape

Kinston, Sept. 28.—Johnny Hicks, of Norfolk and Kinston and John Edwards, of Carteret county, both serving short terms for assault with a deadly weapon, escaped today from work gangs of the State prison camp here. Hicks fled into a crowd around a circus and eluded guards while Edwards, a Grade "A" man, walked away from a gang near Fort Barnwell.

Approve Cotton Tag

Washington, Sept. 28.—The farm administration announced today approval of the cotton sale certificate form to be used in the cotton price adjustment program. The certificate is to be filled out by producers at the time of sale of cotton. Producers who already have sold cotton from the 1935 crop are to transfer their sales data to this certificate, to be made out in triplicate; the original to be delivered by the producer to the county agent's office, one copy to be retained by the producer and the other by the purchaser.

In each instance, the project approved was selected by the community benefited, which agreed to contribute 55 per cent of the cost to secure a federal grant of 45 per cent of the cost.

Grants totalling $2,999,862 were made from the new work relief appropriation to cover 45 per cent of the cost of all projects. Loans totalling $1,995,688 for 34 projects were requested by the applicants. On compliance with requirements these loans will be available from the PWA revolving funds.

Nothing to Mecklenburg. Mecklenburg got nothing. Communities in other nearby counties received sums as follows: Hixson, loan and grant of $14,300 to Alexander county for the construction of a school. Sugar Loaf, Alexander county, loan and grant of $33,375 to Alexander county for the construction of a school. Morganton, grant for $99,000 to the state hospital for insane for three buildings. Project is estimated to cost $222,000 and to require ten months for construction. No loan was requested.

Concord, grant for $16,362 to Stonevall Jackson Manual Training and Industrial school for a dormitory and improvements to the state industrial school. Grant of $70,030 to Cabarrus county for a hospital building and a nurses home. Catawba, loan and grant of $34,545 to the town of Catawba for a water works.

Shelby Gets $252,727. Shelby, loan and grant of $252,727 to the board of education of Cleveland county for construction of three new school buildings, one and eight additions to existing school buildings. Winston-Salem grant of $102,024 to Forsyth county for a home for the indigent and infirm. Project is estimated to cost $226,720 and to require six months for construction. No loan was requested. Grant of $18,645 to the city of Winston-Salem for an addition to Ardmore elementary school. Grant of $22,955 to the city of Winston-Salem for a (Continued on back page)

MRS. Z. W. FARIES CALLED BY DEATH THURSDAY NIGHT

Had Been in Declining Health For Some Time; Funeral Conducted Friday

Mrs. Z. W. Faries passed away Thursday night at the home of her son, M. Boyce Faries, on South Popular street. She had been in declining health for some time. She was 72 years old.

Surviving are her husband, one son, M. Boyce Faries, and several grandchildren. Another son, Hilary Faries, died several years ago.

Mrs. Faries, although of a quiet and unassuming nature, made friends readily and was beloved by all who knew her. She was a devoted wife and mother and a loyal friend and neighbor.

Funeral services were conducted at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon from the First Baptist church, of which she was a faithful member. The pastor, Rev. Elbert F. Hardin, was in charge of the service and assisting were Dr. Willis S. Wilson and Rev. R. B. Fitzgerald.

Active pall bearers were R. P. Hinson, W. E. Adams, Coy L. Stammers, Gordon Cline, Vaughn McGinnis and J. H. Johnston. Honorary pall bearers were R. F. Beal, L. J. Huss, D. H. Shields, J. O. Allen, N. P. Williams and J. W. Bowles.

Interment was in the Faries plot in Hollybrook cemetery.

Britain Warns Against Invasion of Black Empire

Asks Roosevelt To Quit Fishing On The Sabbath

Kansas City, Sept. 28.—President Roosevelt's appeal to preachers of the nation for counsel drew from one today the suggestion to quit fishing on Sunday.

Dr. I. M. Hargett, of the Linwood Boulevard Methodist Episcopal church said he would urge: "That you cease making the Sabbath a holiday for boating and fishing and that you attend church regularly as an example to the young men of our nation, tens of thousands of whom are turning away from the church, especially in the great universities."

Tells World She Is Ready to Go to Limit; However, Will Not Tie Up With France

London, Sept. 29.—Great Britain told France and the world tonight she means business in her willingness to go the limit to prevent wanton Italian invasion of Ethiopia or positive acts of "unprovoked aggression" elsewhere.

But at the same time she made it equally clear she is not going to tie herself up in advance with France to take similar drastic action if Germany or any other country further violates Europe's treaties.

A comprehensive statement of British policy, written by Sir Samuel Hoare, the British Foreign Secretary, assured France that Great Britain is true to the principles of the League of Nations "and not to any particular manifestation thereof."

Yet it disclosed these three points which will have a profound bearing on future Franco-British relations: 1. Mere failure of Germany or any other nation to fulfill the terms of various treaties regarding armaments or boundaries of Europe does not call for application of sanctions under the league covenant; 2. Sanctions only "apply to positive actions of unprovoked aggression and even then, "the nature of the action appropriate to be taken" may vary; 3. Great Britain's open-minded attitude toward the demands of Germany or other undefeated powers for the revision of treaties was shown in the insistence that "elasticity is a part of security" because nations must recognize the "world is not static."

Governor's Wife Falls, Snaps Bone

Raleigh, Sept. 28.—Mrs. J. C. B. Ehringhaus, wife of Governor Ehringhaus, dislocated and possibly chipped a bone in her elbow when she tripped and fell part of the way down the steps at the Executive Mansion here tonight.

The Governor carried her immediately to Rex hospital, where an X-ray examination revealed no serious fracture, although it was feared a bone may have been chipped.

Ehringhaus Proclaims Parent-Teacher Week

Raleigh, Sept. 29.—Governor Ehringhaus today issued a proclamation calling upon the people of North Carolina to give their "most careful and sympathetic attention" to the State Parent-Teacher association's membership drive, to be launched from October 15 to November 15.

The texts of the statement follows: "To the people of North Carolina: "Having been informed that October 15 to November 15 has been set aside as the period in which an

TROPICAL STORM SKIRTS FLORIDA

Miami, Fla., Sept. 29.—Completely passing up Florida's east coast winter pleasure spots, a tropical hurricane tonight headed toward Bermuda, playground of the wealthy.

Grady Norton, meteorologist of the Jacksonville weather bureau, said the disturbance at 9:30 p. m., eastern standard time tonight was about 650 miles away from Bermuda and added:

"They probably will begin to feel it in that vicinity some time later tomorrow."

The storm, after making Florida's storm-wise residents jittery for 17 hours yesterday as it moved northward after bringing death and destruction to Cuba and Jamaica, veered and left Miami 50 miles to the east.

Last night and early today, the disturbance passed tiny Bimini island, 45 miles east of Miami and a wet oasis during prohibition in the United States.

MRS. JOHN BLANTON CLAIMED BY DEATH

Mrs. John Blanton, of Goodsonville, died at the Reeves hospital Thursday night after a long illness. Her condition had been regarded as serious for some time and her death was not unexpected. She was 57 years old.

Surviving are her husband, two daughters, Mrs. John Stafford, of Charlotte and Mrs. Hunter Rhyme, of this city and two sons, Woodrow Blanton and Bill Blanton, of this city.

Funeral services were conducted from the Goodsonville Methodist church Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. R. L. Forbis, assisted by Rev. H. B. Jones, pastor of the Goodsonville Baptist church. The large number of people at the service and the beautiful floral tributes were testimonials of the love and esteem in which Mrs. Blanton was held.

Essay On Ants

A school teacher asked her pupils to write a short essay and to choose their own subjects. A little girl sent in the following paper: "My subjek is 'Ants.' Ants is of two kinds, insects and lady uncles. Sometimes they live in holes and sometimes they crawl into the sugar-bowl and sometimes they live with their married sisters. "That is all I know about Ants."

Ambiguous

Minnie was about to be taken for a trip in one of the gondolas on the artificial lake. Suddenly she said: "I don't want to go." "Why not, dear," asked her mother. "You're not frightened, are you?" "Yes, I am. Look what it says up there!" Over the paybox was a notice, and her mother read: "Trip around the lake. Adults ten cents each; children thrown in."

JOE GISH JOE GISH SAYS— A relief feller down State passed up a paying job last week... said he knew there was a catch in it... even before they showed him the ditch they wanted dug.

Woman in Red Says U. S. Broke Promise

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Mrs. Anna Sage—who styled herself yesterday the sole betrayer of John Dillinger—met with her lawyers today to plan steps intended to establish in court the veracity of her charges that the government was "chiseling" on its promised price for the "spotting."

Her objective was the cancellation of the immigration officer's order for her deportation to her native Roumania as an undesirable alien.

From Federal Judge John P. Barnes, her sensational story yesterday, won a habeas corpus writ and an order for a court hearing October 3.

$5,000 in reward money, a three months trip to California and permission to continue her residence here.

While she got the $5,000 and the California jaunt, her counsel asserted, the government was attempting to "welch" on the rest of the alleged bargain by "kicking her out" or the country.

They said they would subpoena Melvin H. Purvis, former chief of the Federal agents here, with whom she alleged she made the deal, to prove their story of the "inside" of the Dillinger ambush.

Purvis refused comment. Federal officials, too, were silent. But for the habeas corpus writ, Mrs. Sage would have left Saturday night on an east-bound train of deportees.

Tax exemption certificates have been delivered to 4,200 cotton growers of Lincoln county.
