Officials of Local Companies Are Hosts at Meeting of Association

Automobile dealers from three counties, Cleveland, Gaston and Lincoln, gathered at Lincoln Lithia Inn last Friday night to attend the district meeting of the North Carolina Automobile Dealers Association. Hosts at the meeting were the officials of the three local companies, Guy E. Cline, Inc., Hinson's Garage and Hoyle Motor Company. Around thirty five members of the Association were present.

Jas. A. Abernethy, Jr., owner of Lincoln Lithia Inn, welcomed the visitors to Lincoln and turned over to the visitors the full resources of the Inn for their enjoyment and pleasure.

A highlight of the gathering was the banquet served in the spacious dining room. W. H. Wray, of Gastonia, acted as toastmaster and introduced Sam T. Atkinson, of Charlotte, speaker of the evening. Mr. Atkinson explained the plan and aims of the Association and discussed the problems of the automobile dealer with relation to the sales tax. He told of plans being formulated to present some of these problems to the next Legislature.

The association accepted the invitation of the Gastonia dealers to combine the June meeting with a fish fry at Armstrong Lake.

Among those in attendance at the meeting here were, Sam T. Atkinson, Charlotte; W. H. Wray, Gastonia; W. A. Dixon, Belmont; N. W. Turbyfill, Belmont; B. S. Guion, Gastonia; N. F. Dixon, Belmont; H. P. Mott, Gastonia; Guy E. Cline, Lincoln; R. P. Hinson, Lincoln; M. H. Hoyle, Lincoln; Hal Hoyle, Lincoln; Dan McGinnis, Lincoln; E. G. Lehr, Lincoln; R. L. Lockman, Lincoln; J. Lawrence Lackey, Shelby, Buck Rogers, Shelby; A. W. Keever, Shelby, Will Arey, Shelby; F. W. Blanton, Shelby; J. M. Seeley, Kings Mountain; Lowery McLean, Gastonia; Troy Holmsley, Cherryville; Bill Blanton, Shelby.

Special guests were J. T. Perkins, A. B. Clayton and Leonard A. Wright.

Miss Barineau Will Make Class Prophecy

Miss Elizabeth Barineau, daughter of Mrs. J. W. Barineau, of this city, and senior at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, will deliver the class prophecy at the graduating exercises to be held at the college in June.

Miss Barineau was one of eight members of the senior class who were elected by their class mates last fall as the most outstanding members of the class of 1936. Pictures of the eight are carried in the college annual, "Pine Needles," which is just off the press.

Local Women Attend Federal Writers' Meet

Mrs. L. M. Huffman and Mrs. J. W. Barineau were in Charlotte last Wednesday to attend a meeting of the supervisors of the Federal Writers' Project. All data obtained during the life of the project will be compiled and used in the proposed American Guide.

Mrs. Huffman and Mrs. Barineau, who conducted the work in five counties, had the satisfaction of hearing the district supervisor, C. V. Cotter, make the statement that the data collected in these five counties was of outstanding merit and among the best and most complete turned in.

Over 1,000 Johnston county farmers have received cotton adjustment checks for sales made last fall, and nearly 3,000 have signed work sheets for the new program.

New Hanover farmers plan to increase the acreage to Iceberg lettuce next season since the old varieties do not sell to advantage.

To Try Salt Speedway

SALT LAKE CITY... Capt. George Eyston (above), of England, is here with his specially built giant racing automobile in which he hopes to beat the world speed mark set by Malcolm Campbell last year over the salted flats near here.

JOPLIN, Mo. . . The golfing fraternity in these Ozark hills are cheering long and loud as their native son, Horton Smith (above), banks in the honor of his triumph in Bobby Jones' Master tournament at Augusta, Ga., this month.

W. A. Abernethy Named Republican Candidate For Clerk Of Court

Farmers Asked to Sign For Work Sheets

J. G. Morrison, county agent, today issued the following notice to the farmers of Lincoln county:

All farmers wishing to sign a worksheet for the Soil Conservation Program are requested to come to my office and sign this week, as this will probably be the last week for signing. At the end of the week we are expecting the State Office to close the time for signing and after that time no more worksheets can be signed this year. This is the last notification since all the township meetings have been held and each producer has been notified by card, so if there is any one interested in co-operating with the Agricultural program this year, he is requested to give this matter immediate attention.

By planting a succession of cereals, clovers and summer legumes, Hugh McRae, owner of Invershill Farm near Rocky Point, has found it possible to have year around grazing without the aid of permanent pasture.

Served as Register of Deeds One Term and Is Well Liked Over County

The Lincoln county Republican executive committee met Saturday afternoon and named W. A. Abernethy to make the race for clerk of superior court. The appointee will be duly certified to the county board of elections.

Mr. Abernethy will be opposed in the November election by Thos. E. Rhodes, Democratic nominee appointed by the executive committee a week ago.

The naming of candidates for the office was made necessary by the death of J. L. Hunter, who was elected to the office in 1934. The place is being temporarily filled by Jas. A. Abernethy, Jr., who received his commission from Judge Wilson Warwick.

Mr. Abernethy, the Republican nominee, is well known to the people of Lincoln county. He served as register of deeds for one term and his friends are predicting that he will make an exceptionally strong race.

Typhoid, Measles, Chickenpox Grow In North Carolina

Raleigh, May 20.—Prevalence of chickenpox, measles, typhoid fever and whooping cough increased in North Carolina last week, the division of epidemiology reported today.

There were not as many cases of any of the diseases except typhoid fever, however, as there were in the corresponding week of 1935.

Chickenpox cases numbered 79 last week, compared with 70 the week before and 86 in the week of May 18, 1936; measles cases were 47 last week, 43 the week before and 150 last year; typhoid fever cases were 4 last week, 3 the week before and 1 in the week of last year; while whooping cough cases were 24 last week, 22 the week before and 321 a year ago.

Diphtheria cases dropped from 19 week before last to 14 and a year ago there were 23, while scarlet fever cases dropped to 11 last week from 23 the week before and there were 17 a year ago.

There was one case of smallpox reported last week, eight cases of meningitis and one of infantile paralysis. The week and year before there was no smallpox, eight and three cases of meningitis each week, and two cases of infantile paralysis.

Gains of two pounds a day are recorded with hogs in feeding demonstrations throughout eastern Carolina and farmers are finding it profitable to feed out the animals at prices which prevailed this spring.

Sons of Two Contestants Are Now Campaigning For Commissioner of Agriculture

In the race for Commissioner of Agriculture, in which Will Graham, Lincoln county citizen is being opposed by W. Kerr Scott, of Alamance county a most interesting angle has been brought out by W. T. Bost, Greensboro Daily News Correspondent at Raleigh. Writing in Saturday's News Mr. Bost has this to say about this race.

"Twenty-eight years ago in the Charlotte convention which nominated William W. Kitchen as Democratic candidate for Governor, Major William A. Graham defeated R. W. Scott, of Alamance county, for commissioner of agriculture and in the June primary of 1936, W. Kerr Scott is going to try to oust William A. Graham, incumbent commissioner and son of the winner of 1908.

The governorship race of that year obscured the lesser contests as the gubernatorial fight of 1936 is overshadowing the smaller conflicts. But the family war will hold the public's interest in the Scott-Graham contest to the end. Two years ago when Harold D. Cooley, son of "Rap" Cooley who had tried to beat Edward W. Pou for the fourth district seat in Congress, contested with George Ross Pou, son of the elder Cooley's successful rival, there was national interests in this local campaign.

The Graham of today is a better politician than his father was, but so is the Scott who is running now with a trend that is strong to

Farley Announces Detailed Plans For Payment of Bonus

Memphis Cotton Queen

MEMPHIS... Miss Mary Anne Poston (above) is the Tennessee beauty selected to reign as "Queen Mary Anne" over the famous annual Memphis Cotton Carnival for 1936.

Bonus Will Be Sent Out From Washington On or About June 15th

Washington, May 23.—Postmaster General James A. Farley tonight announced detailed plans for payment of the soldiers' bonus and designated 241 postoffices throughout the country as paying offices.

Bonus bonds will be sent out on June 15 from Washington and the postoffices of the 11 Federal reserve district centers. All will be sent by registered mail and Farley said he had instructed carriers to "go out of their way" to assist in their delivery. Identification will be required of all veterans.

If he wants to cash his bonus bonds, the veteran must get them certified at his local post office. If the postmaster or designated employee knows him, no witnesses are necessary; otherwise he has to have two witnesses who are known to the postal workers and who will identify him.

After proper identification and surrender of his bond, the veteran is given an interim receipt. Then all he has to do is wait for his special treasury department check to arrive from one of the 241 designated paying offices.

Veterans in government hospitals need not clear their bonds through the local post offices as the office in charge can execute and certify the veterans' bonds, Farley said.

Bonds will be in $50 denominations with checks covering the odd amounts. The bonds earn simple interest of three per cent but under the law providing payment, no interest is payable on bonds redeemed after June 15, 1937.

The 241 paying post offices listed by Farley included:

- Alabama, Birmingham, Gadsden, Mobile, Montgomery; Arizona, Phoenix; Arkansas, Little Rock, Texarkana.
- Florida, Jacksonville, Miami, St. Petersburg, Tampa; Georgia, Atlanta, Augusta, Columbus, Macon, Savannah.
- Louisiana, New Orleans, Shreveport.
- Mississippi, Jackson, Meridan.
- North Carolina, Asheville, Charlotte, Durham, Greensboro, Raleigh, Winston-Salem.
- South Carolina, Charleston, Columbia, Spartanburg.
- Tennessee, Chattanooga, Knoxville, Memphis, Nashville.
- Virginia, Lynchburg, Norfolk, Richmond, Roanoke.

Lewis L. Dellinger, native of Lincoln county, died at his home in Carson City, Nevada, last Friday, according to a message received here by his brother, R. H. Dellinger. He had been in ill health for some time.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. S. M. Baxter, Mrs. L. Furlong, and Misses Jean and Dorothy Dellinger. He leaves also three brothers, R. H. Dellinger, of this city, A. H. Dellinger, of Dallas, Texas and W. L. Dellinger, of Iron Station.

Mr. Dellinger was born in Lincoln county, the son of the late Capt. Lawson A. and Dulcinea Friday Dellinger. He was 66 years old.

Forty years ago, Mr. Dellinger and two other Lincoln county youths, Frank Reinhardt, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Reinhardt and Ed Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Smith, left this section for the west. Reinhardt later returned to Lincoln county where he died some years ago. Smith is now living in California.

Mr. Dellinger for a number of years was engaged in mining which took him to Alaska and British Columbia. He lived for a while in California and until his health failed several years ago he was superintendent of the Gold Field Consolidated Mining Co., of Gold Field, Nevada.

Mr. Dellinger married in the west and his wife made several visits to relatives in Lincoln county. Funeral services were conducted in Carson City.
