Mrs. Corriher Hostess To Anna Jackson Club

The Anna Jackson book club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Corriher as hostess. The home was unusually attractive with arrangements of fall flowers.

The president, Mrs. John Mullen, presided, and opened the meeting with the poems entitled, "A Song on a Bough".

Mrs. Yancey D. Moore, of Gastonia, was guest speaker and gave an interesting and delightful talk on "Our Feathered Friends, the Birds".

Mrs. Herbert Kuhn gave current events on the Far East and ended her talk with an amusing little treatise on being tired.

Mrs. C. H. Rhodes, mother of the hostess, and Mrs. Moore, were the only special guests.

For refreshments the members were seated about the large dining room table, which was centered with an arrangement of fruit and holly. On either side were silver candelabra holding burning tapers.

The hostess was assisted by her mother in serving two delicious courses of refreshments.

Sorosis Meets With Mrs. M. M. Rudisill

Sorosis met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. M. M. Rudisill at her home on West Main street.

The president, Mrs. R. S. Mullen, presided and opened the meeting with a Veterans' Day poem entitled, "They Went a Little Farther".

Mrs. Guy Cline read a poem, "November" which had been written by a Lincolnton poet, "Miss Frances Ann Fair".

Mrs. James Owen, III in her usual charming manner reviewed the book, "Song of Youth".

The home was lovely with its decorations of pink, white and yellow chrysanthemums mixed with autumn leaves.

Special guests were Mrs. J. W. Daniel, Mrs. J. W. Braxton and Mrs. Owen.

Mrs. L. E. McQuinn assisted the hostess in serving two tempting courses of refreshments.

Mentor Club Meets With Mrs. Carter

The Mentor Club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Ralph Carter. Beautiful white chrysanthemums and other colorful fall flowers were used in decorating the home.

The president, Mrs. Jack Ramsaur, presided and Mrs. J. E. Kale, Jr. gave as an item of interest, "Turkey, the Light of the World."

Mrs. J. L. Thompson who was in charge of the program, gave an interesting account of the founding and development of the Ladies Home Journal. She also gave short sketches of Curtis and Bok who first published the Journal in 1889.

At the close of the meeting the hostess served two delicious courses of refreshments.

Mrs. William M. Lentz was a special guest.

Buffet Supper At Lincoln Country Club

There will be a buffet supper at the Lincoln Country Club Thursday night, November 18.

Supper will be served promptly at 7:00. All members are urged to come and bring their family and any in town or out of town guests.

Bingo will be played after dinner. Reservations must be in not later than Wednesday.

Jimmy Willis Has Birthday Party

Jimmy Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Willis, celebrated his second birthday Sunday with a family dinner party.

The table was centered with a birthday cake topped with two toy soldiers. The place cards were cookie soldiers.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lander, grandparents of the young host, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lander, Jr., and son, Billy III. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Baucum and son, Buddy, all of Charlotte.

Jimmy received many attractive gifts.

Mesdames Hoyle Are Book Club Hostesses

The Maids and Matrons and the Priscilla Clubs had a joint meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hal Hoyle, member of the Maids and Matrons club.

Mrs. William Hoyle was hostess to the Priscilla club.

Chrysanthemums in various shades of pink made lovely decorations in the home.

Mrs. Charles Childs, president of the Maids and Matrons, presided and welcomed members and guests. She also explained the change from Armistice Day to Veterans Day and read a poem, "Today".

Mrs. Hal Hoyle had charge of the program and presented Rev. Lewis Everline, who talked on the Second Assembly of the World Council of Churches held in Evanston, Ill. The most dramatic event of the meeting, he said, was the Festival of Faith in Soldiers Field, which was attended by 147,000 people.

Mrs. William Hoyle extended greetings to the club members and also thanked Mr. Everline for his splendid talk.

The hostesses, assisted by Mrs. W. H. Childs, Jr., Mrs. Herbert Childs, Mrs. Elizabeth Abernethy, Mrs. Joseph Fields and Mrs. Hal Hoyle, Jr., served two delicious courses of refreshments.

Mrs. Hoover Hostess To Review Book Club

The Review book club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Charles Hoover. Guests, in addition to club members, were Mrs. W. E. Quinton, Mrs. J. Wesley Ford, Mrs. W. L. Heavner, Mrs. J. H. Heafner and Mrs. Bessie Sheppard.

Mrs. Harry Davis, the president, had charge of the meeting and after she had welcomed members and guests she read the poem, "The American Way of Life." Mrs. Ernest Baxter gave the short topic on rose culture.

Mrs. Lewis Everline, program leader gave an excellent review of Ernest Hemingway's book, "Old Man of the Sea".

Bowls of yellow and white chrysanthemums were used in decorating the home.

Two delicious courses of refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. W. L. Heavner.

Some men would never arrive if they lost their ability to butt in.

DRUMS' FUNERAL HOME CHAPEL . . . Pictured is the handsome, new church-like chapel of Drums' Funeral Home, Lincolnton, which was visited and inspected by approximately 3,000 persons at Open House observed by the firm on last Friday and Saturday. Gene Carpenter, of Hickory, Mrs. A. E. Weaver of Lincolnton, Route 1, and Miss Carolyn Asbury, of Boger City, provided the music at the new Hammond organ during the Open House hours.

Assisting as hosts to the visitors were Mrs. Beulah Thornburg, Mrs. Pat Lawing, E. F. Drum, manager of the business, and other members of the firm's staff. Also, viewed by the visitors at the Open House were the newly redecorated reception rooms and preparation room. Drums' Funeral Home, which first opened in Lincolnton in 1937, is operated as a partnership by E. F. Drum and Mrs. Zelotes Drum.

Music Club To Have Pipe Organ Program

An Appreciation!

Friday and Saturday were Red Letter Days at our plant when hundreds of people from this community visited our show rooms to see the new 1955 Fords which were on display here for the first time.

We deeply appreciate your coming to see us and we thank you for the many nice things said about the new car.

If you did not get to see us last week we invite you to come in any time it is convenient for you.
