

THE DAILY WORKMAN.

J. S. MICHAUX, Local Editor

A paper for all people, but especially to meet the desire which many are known to entertain for a non-political sheet, the WORKMAN will strive to go into every house, leaving to other papers the science of politics, giving the news in brief and holding itself responsible to the moral sense of the community for its utterances.

Personal.

—Miss Fannie Holt, of Graham, and Miss Hill, of Raleigh, passed through here last night on their way to Salem Female Academy.

—Miss Alice Guess, of Cary, an alumna of G. F. College, who has been visiting in this city for several days, returned to her home this morning.

—Judge John A. Gilmer and Solicitor Thomas Settle, Jr., left this morning for Alleghany court.

—Rev. Dr. A. C. Harris, of Brinkleyville, N. C., who is on a ramble of recreation, and to attend religious meetings in the western part of the State, was here this morning from Rock Creek camp meeting, Alamance county, on his way to Summerfield, and reports a good meeting as under way at Rock Creek.

REVIVAL AT FAIRVIEW.

THE COTTON FACTORY STOPS

From Rev. R. R. Michaux, pastor of Haw River circuit, we have the following news from a protracted meeting now in progress at Fairview church, near Ossipee Cotton Mills:

"Last night, (Tuesday, Aug. 30th,) there were 20 penitents, and had been at least 13 converts. This morning, while I was at the store an alarm came up from the factory, and the managers hastened down there expecting to find some of the operatives killed or wounded by the machinery, but soon it became known that it was caused by some of the converts, and it resulted in a whole squad of girls leaving the looms and spindles and having a high time shouting and rejoicing. The proprietors had decided to run the mills to day, but it was stopped and stood still until the girls got through with their shouting."

—It is not by any means to be understood that we underrate the native and acquired treacherousness of young men in the matter of social evil which we have under discussion, but that we also, just now, emphasize the necessity of guarding the citadel against their approach by the exercise of proper parental training and parental care, and we especially cite the mistaken practice of some in turning out their daughters at a premature period, and allowing them unwonted freedom, by which they, in a sense become tempters. We will state, also, what we believe to be a truth, which admits of but few exceptions, that there is no safeguard of the young woman who goes into society if she be wanting in the prudence and good sense born of correct discipline at home. We recognize fully the fact of the evil inclination on the other side, and it is because of such that the imprudent young woman may be said to be a tempter.

HOW IT IS IN HENDERSONVILLE.—A correspondent at Hendersonville, whom we know well as exceptionally intelligent on matters about which he writes, sends us the following, though not intended for publication:

We still hold the fort: No bar rooms here. The statement of the Hendersonville Times, that we had as much drunkenness as with bar-rooms, and that prohibition here was a farce, is but a wet statement by a wet editor. The citizens here know better. With a population of about 1500, and about 2000 including the floating element, there has been only about 12 deaths in Hendersonville in the last 10 months.

—Hairton for the murder of Chas. Blackburn is on trial to-day.

—Cholera reports still come in from Malta, and seven new cases and four deaths were reported, August 31st.

—Judge Samuel Hall, of Ga., who was stricken with paralysis while at Asheville some time ago, died at Mt. Airy, Ga., on Saturday last.

—The best part of the crop of Central Texas, is reported to be submerged with water by late freshets in the Brazos river. The loss will be very heavy, reaching, it is thought, into the millions.

—The Twin-City Daily says one firm in Winston bought over $2000 worth of dried fruit on Wednesday, and that Mess. P. H. Hanes & Co., shipped, during the month of August, over $40,000 worth of manufactured tobacco.

—The Henderson Gold Leaf thinks that Col. Polk, of the Progressive Farmer, ought to sue the Atlanta Constitution for damages on account of a miserable wood cut which the Constitution inserted in its columns and named it Col. Polk. Such a suit against the Constitution might serve as a test case, but it would be followed by so many others that the courts would be glutted with cases of that class.

THE CHATSWORTH HORROR.—Rev. P. F. Remsburg, a gentleman of our acquaintance, who was an eye witness of the Chatsworth disaster, writes to the Methodist Recorder of Pittsburgh a detailed account of the affair, from which we take the following:

Public interest was never drawn so generally to a railway disaster. Besides the coroner's inquest, the board of railway and warehouse commissioners of this State are probing the matter to the bottom, that, if possible, the responsibility may be fixed where it belongs. The coroner's jury have held to the grand jury Timothy Coughlin, the section boss, as the principal cause of the disaster. He had been ordered, as proven, with all the section bosses, to examine their divisions the last thing that Wednesday evening, before leaving, for the purpose of having everything in a safe condition. The excursion train had the right of way over all the other trains, and no train passed over the fatal bridge after the section hands left for home. It was proven that Timothy Coughlin ordered grass set fire within a few rods of the bridge, as they were on the way home, and fire was seen burning by several persons living near the track, at different hours, from 6 to 9 p. m.

Fortunately, your estimate of the dead was too high, and also the number of passengers. The mortality list reached 82, including three or four that died a few days after, and few have since died, and some are still here, not sufficiently recovered to be taken to their homes.

In reference to the robbing of the victims, I think there is a misapprehension of facts. Many pockets were examined for the purpose of identification, and valuables taken, and have since been delivered to friends. A case in point: It was stated in some of the Chicago papers that the body of the Rev. Mr. Collins, of Galesburg, Ill., had been robbed of a gold watch and $75 in money. Now, the facts in this case are, that Mr. Collins was recognized as a Knight Templar, and his watch and money were taken care of, and have been given to the family; and other similar cases have come to my notice. But to the disgrace of humanity, it has to be admitted that robbing was done.

That is a beautiful saying of St. Francis de Sales, that "to obtain perfection it is not necessary to do singular things, but to do common things singularly well."

"My Only Family Medicine."
"I have been a user of Simmons' Liver Regulator for many years having made it my Family Medicine. My mother before me was very partial to it. I find the Regulator very safe, harmless and reliable as a Family Medicine, and have used it for any disorder of the system and found it to act like a charm. I believe if it was used in time it would prove a great preventive of sickness. I have often recommended it to my friends, and shall continue to do so."—Rev. J. M. ROLLINS, pastor M.
