ELLIS' CHINA HALL.

Every one is complaining of dull times. Well, we confess that the times are dull, but what would we do if Trade were brisk? Why, to be candid, we think the first thing would be to increase our force, for we are just as busy as can be. Every day loads of Goods come pouring in on us, and we have to work hard to keep things looking well. As we have promised our friends, Fall Goods are beginning to arrive. We have already received our first instalment of Silver-ware and Table Cutlery, and are now handling Rogers Bro.'s Goods almost exclusively.

Other lots, and by far the largest, are on the way, and will be opened in about a fortnight. In the last ten days we have opened a line of Porcelain Goods and Brass Hanging Lamps. The Porcelain is displayed in Dinner, Tea and Toilet Sets. The colors are delicately toned and in the prevailing style—neither gaudy nor harsh. These goods we can recommend, as they were decorated expressly for us. In Hanging Lamps, the latest thing is one with colored fount and polished brass band set with fine-cut Glass Jewels. Along with it came out a very fine Lamp of cast brass, with carved arms and twisted rods, instead of chains, for supports. sep 28 1/2
