LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

For additional Local News, see 2d page. Also, see the fourth page.

Dr. W. G. Hamilton, of Waughtown, is here to day.

There are wonderful attractions in toys, fruits and confections in and about the stores of our advertisers, so much that one of the girls in a school here has written a composition on "Toys and Dolls."

Christmas comes this year on Sunday, New Year's Day is on Sunday: 1888 is Leap Year, February has 29 days, and the year contains 53 Sabbaths, thus increasing the regular plate collections of the churches.

The man Gid Hairston, alias Welsh, who assaulted Mr. W. F. Trogdon at Germantown July 4th, and whose capture was reported yesterday, was arrested while at work in the Orinoco Warehouse, Winston, by Capt. J. C. Bessant, on Tuesday last.

Mess. J. W. Scott & Co., shoot off their new column ad to-day, in which they show a large stock in an extensive variety. Read down and up and you will see things which with you best agree; and be you saint or be you sinner, they'll furnish you with Christmas dinner.

We had a call this morning from Capt. Robert W. Andrews, of South Carolina, the noted pedestrian, who claims to be 97 years of age, and has the reputation at home of being a truthful man. He hails from Sumpter, S. C., and is passing back to his home from walking tour to the north. He was here last year, and since then he walked to Boston and back. Cap Andrews is accompanied by a little dog, who seems to be fond of seeing the country and extending his acquaintance. We have never seen a person so well preserved as Capt. Andrews at the age of 97, and this makes us think that walking is a wholesome exercise. The Capt. is hurrying home for Christmas, and hopes to reach Jamestown to-night.

Dr. Milburn, the blind preacher, was re-elected to the chaplaincy of the House of Representatives.

On Sabbath last the relic of the late Ahi Robbins was buried at Hope-well church, Randolph county, at an advanced age.

COMMITTED TO JAIL.—Mess. West and Trogdon went to Germantown yesterday to attend the preliminary trial of the man Hairston who assaulted Mr. Trogdon on the Fourth of July. The accused was fully identified, and in default of bail in the sum of $1,000 was committed to prison. It is hoped that justice will not be as slow in overtaking Hairston as it is in catching up with the average evil doer.

ELLIS' CHINA HALL.

At last, we are getting things in order and are ready to receive the ladies. We have been working hard, for the past two weeks, getting our Large Stock in order, and have at last succeeded. It is with great pleasure we receive many handsome compliments on the appearance of our establishment, and we feel our earliest endeavors have been amply rewarded.

And, further, we will take much pleasure in receiving the ladies and showing them our handsome purchases.

Among our more recent arrivals are some very rich French-plate mirrors, and we call special attention to our triplicate mirrors.

Nor have we been forgetful of the wants of every house-keeper in fine crystal and delicate Porcelain. It is useless to try to enumerate our latest selections. It will take many visits to fully appreciate the contents of our show room.

Although we have already received quite a stock of fine Goods, they have not all arrived yet; no, not by any means. This is the time when most of the Fine Goods are sold, but yet, our Staple Wares are not put away out of sight. And we will take pleasure in attending to the wants of the purchaser of the smallest article. nov 22
