-Some of the young people of South Greensboro enjoyed a fishing excursion yesterday afternoon, but they "didn't fish much."

-Charlotte wants the R. & D. Railroad shops located there, and thinks it would add $50,000 a week to the trade of the city.

-We regret to learn that Col. Geo. B. Clark and family will remove from Greensboro shortly and return to their former home in Missouri. Col. Clark has become attached to the people of Greensboro and they to him and his family, and their removal will be much regretted.

-Judge Dick is holding here at this term the spring session of the United States Court, which was duly opened this morning. Quite a number of people are in attendance, coming, as is usual in such cases, from nearly all sections for thirty miles around. This court brings a number of strange faces to view.

-Messrs. Pipkin & Pegram began operations in their new roller mill near the depot, yesterday, by grinding a quantity of meal and hominy. The hum of their machinery sugges-ted the idea of something substantial and needful, and we welcome them and their business as an industry highly beneficial to the community.

GREENSBORO, N. C., TUESDAY, APRIL 3, 1888. Vol. 5.

No. 299.

NEW ARRIVAL -- Born April 2d, 1888, at Greensboro, to Lorenzo A. and Louisa B. Bailey, a son.

-Mr. Moreau Barringer of Philadelphia, son of the late D. M. Barringer, of Raleigh, N. C., is stopping in Greensboro, on his way from Fla., on a visit to Mr. John A. Barringer, of this city.

-We are authorized to say that the former children of Mr. and Mrs. Bailey weighed at birth 10 to 12 lbs, but the last "chap" arriving outside the city limits, had to be balanced in primitive style by 3 cans of peaches and some other material, the weight of which was found to be 9 lbs. 9 20 pm Then add to the above this 10 GO a m | postscript :

"Judging from his eloquent appeals for attention, his limbs and features, this boy promises to eclipse anything ever heard of."

No Dog.-No dog of modern times is more worthy to be mention ed with honor than the little black dog "Check," who, in a remarkable sense, may be called the "watch dog of the treasury," since it was due to him that the fire was discovered in the basement of the First National Bank of Greensboro two years ago in time to save the building from the flames. We now chronicle the death to 6 30 p m., except during the distri-bution of mails. The Money Order and Registered Letter office open from 9 00 of foul play, some days ago. the highly honored dog, whose de-

-Mr. Barnet M. Idol, a venerable citizen of the Friendship settlement, this county, died yesterday at about 2 o'clock. His burial was to take place at Deep River church at 2 o'clock today. He was both a Mason and an Odd Fellow. Mr. Idol had been suffering from an attack of pneumonia, but the symptoms of that disease had passed away, when there was a failure of heart action which terminated -Mrs. Hundley being too much his life. He was not far from 80 commencing April 9th. the Mayor of Mt. Airv.
