LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Matter coming under the following heads is inserted free of charge: all other advertising matter is subject to regular advertising rates.

The regular trains will begin running through to Mount Airy on Monday next.

Prof. Johnson, of Mount Vernon Springs Academy was here today on his way to Mount Airy.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of J. A. W. Thompson, of Siler City, who, however, is now rapidly improving in health.

Like many another affair, the platform of the Prohibition party has "a woman at the bottom of it."

Greensboro was represented among the students who made addresses at the University yesterday by Geo. S. Wills, who was No. 1 on the programme as "Grido di Dolore"

The Farmer and Mechanic has removed its editorial headquarters to Walnut Cove at which place address the publishers: the mechanical headquarters will continue at Greensboro.

Get yourselves ready for the grand excursion to Mt. Airy our western mountain town, on next Wednesday the 13th inst, under the auspices of the Presbyterian Sunday schools of Greensboro.

Next Sunday (June 10th) will be "Children's Day," at the Baptist Sunday School. In the afternoon, at half past three o'clock, there will be interesting exercises, consisting of songs and recitations by the children and an address by Prof. Alderman of West Market Street Methodist Sunday School. All are cordially invited.

The Daily Workman.

Vol. 6. Greensboro, N. C., Thursday, June 7, 1888. No. 9.

CIRCUITOUS.—Mr. Walter Green says: Mr William Ellington tells me, that Mr. H. L. Graves tells him, that a gentleman near Mount Airy told him that he split a piece of granite 122 feet long.

MASONIC.—There will be a regular communication of Greensboro Lodge No. 76, A. F. and A. M., on Friday evening June 8th, at 8 o'clock p. m. Work in the third degree. Visiting brethren cordially invited to attend.

—Miss M. E. Ball, of Greensboro, is giving the finishing touches to a crayon portrait of that faithful Christian soldier, Rev. Dr. John Paris, deceased. It is a life-like representation of his countenance in repose, when the genial smile which played in conversation is absent and the sterner expression holds sway. We doubt if it could be made more like him.

BIBLES FOR ALL.—The American Bible Society, in the variety and excellence of its publications, is enabled to meet the necessities and gratify the tastes of all classes of readers. Indeed, if the variety were not near so great as it is, there would still be little or no room for complaint on the part of any. We see no reason however why those who have the means to spare should not procure for themselves the bible which comes nearest their taste, and which they may read with the greatest degree of pleasure.

At the depository of the Guilford County Bible Society in this place, kept by Mr. W. R. Murray, may be found quite a variety of the Bible Societies publications, such as Testaments from 5 cents to $1 50, and Bibles from 20 cents to $5. Every book is a cheap bargain at the price asked for it. Pulpit Bibles from $2 to $5. The book at $2 is, if possible, the cheapest of the Societies publications, in that it combines the features essential to completeness—good size, substantial binding, clear large type and full references. An elegant Bible, without references, 75 to 90 cents; with references, and in fine binding, with, or without, flaps—$1.25 to $2.25. The Bible at $2 50 is plain and neat, large type, sprinkled edges. Another about the same except in its gilt finish, $3 25. A fine Bible for $5. We are thus particular that the reader may know where to find a supply of the Book of Books. Those who have the money to spare would do well to spend a liberal portion of it in the purchase of some of these very handsome, attractive and readable Bibles, either for their own use or as presents to those whom they may wish to benefit and please in that way. Call on W. R. Murray, South Elm Street.

NO PUNNING ON THE NAME.—The Charlotte Chronicle wants to shoot the first man who indulges in a punning allusion to Judge Fowle. What's the matter with the Chronicle?—Wilmington Messenger.

Our concurrence with the Chronicle might depend upon what kind of shooting iron he wants to use—a fly-gun, a toy pistol or a regular fowling piece that would kill outright. On general principles it would be a foul deed to shoot a man for a pun. But the Chronicle doesn't know everything: it doesn't know how Judge Fowle himself invites puns on his name, as, for instance, when he spoke here last Monday night. Alluding to the fact that he had gone up to Lexington to procure a little quiet rest, and was there pressed to make a speech, and then, on reaching Greensboro, had been pressed into service again, he characterized it as "jumping out of the frying pan into the fire." Now, it would be carrying the joke a little too far to shoot a man for thinking then of a fowl, during the process of frying, jumping out of the pan into the fire. We believe that newspaper men, as a general thing, are prudent, and if so, they will not parade any game fowls at the top of their columns when the election returns come in next November. The Chronicle must not even crow. It has put a limit on its own privileges.

Notice. The undersigned having qualified as executor of the last will and testament of Daniel Donnell, deceased, before the clerk of Superior Court of Guilford county, hereby gives notice to all persons holding claims against said deceased, to present them on or before June 10th 1888, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery.
