News Items Wanted.
We will be obliged to parties in any part of the city, and in other sections represented by the Daily Workman, to communicate to us either verbally or by other means, any interesting matters of fact or business coming under their notice. Thus doing they will oblige us and help entertain and instruct our readers. Where not convenient for the reporter to do so, the editor will throw the matter into shape for publication.

The misses of the "Pundita Circle" assisted by Miss Louise Tate, will give an entertainment in the W. C. T. U. Hall Friday, December 7th, for the benefit of the Industrial school for High Caste Hindu widows in India. Come all, and spend a pleasant evening, besides hearing music and recitations, you can purchase pretty and fancy articles for Christmas presents, and the evening's entertainment will close with the bright and amusing burlesque play, "Leap Year." Doors open at 7 o'clock. Admission for adults 25 cents, children under 12 years of age 15 cents.

The Raleigh Christian Advocate says: "There is a Primitive Baptist church near Raleigh which is split all to pieces on the subject of foot washing. One party thinks they ought to have foot washing four times a year, and the other party wants it only once a year. They have actually turned out the pastor and many members on account of this difference. They need heart-washing more than foot-washing." People do not know what is going on around them.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH.—This large and influential body is in session at Newberne, Bishop Granbery presiding, having begun its session on the 28th November. D. W. Bain, of Raleigh, was made Secretary. The Conference was welcomed in a speech by Rev. L. W. Crawford. The report in the case of Dr. J. B. Bobbitt was that he is suspended from ministerial functions, and formulated charges were made out in view of trial.

Bishop Taylor's False Teeth.

Many a good story has been told about the consternation and dismay produced by the sound of the Scotch bagpipes on the uninitiated ears. They are said to have put to flight foes for whom a bayonet charge would have had no terrors. But the story told by Bishop Taylor in Asbury Church about the effect which his movable teeth produced among the blacks in Africa seems to cast all the other stories of this kind into the shade. Somehow his black brethren came to know that the good bishop had false teeth, and one of them gently and tremendously broke the subject to him in conversation one day. Not wishing to be suspected of witchcraft, the bishop told the children of the Sunny South that in big America, where he came from, when a man lost a leg, he could go and get a new one made. When the hair fell off he could buy a fresh supply, and so with teeth, when they dropped out or were pulled they could be replaced. "Then," said the bishop, "I drew out my beautiful, white, clean porcelain set, and when they saw that you ought to have seen those darkies run and scream and gesticulate. One woman declared she had seen the wonder of the world, and was now content to die in peace."—Buffalo Courier.

The Wrong Excuse.

Two workmen were talking about a comrade who had lately "got into trouble," as the saying is. "He oughtn't to say he was led into it," said one; "he lent himself to it."

The remark struck me as a thoughtful one.

When a man, opened-eyed, goes into dangerous places, associates, and questionable characters, surely he lends himself to evil—he is not led into it.

Yet some people often say regretfully, "Ah, poor fellow, he was led into it," when a man has committed a sin under the influence of drink. "He wouldn't have done it," they add, "if he'd been in his right senses."—The Presbyterian.

Preaching on Hell.

It is many years now since Dr. Horatio Bonar examined Dr. Stuart, of Danedin, previous to his being licensed, but the latter recalls one pregnant incident. "Do you preach on hell?" "I have never preached a sermon on that subject." "How do you treat the matter in your ordinary ministry?" "Always in the words of Holy Scripture, giving them in a grave and solemn tone." "That's right," said the senior; "it needs a very devout man to preach on hell."

Sweet Scented Pine Straw.

The pine straw bagging, manufactured by the Acme Manufacturing Company, of Crony, has other uses to which it can be advantageously applied, than cotton wrapping. As a floor matting, pine straw is par excellent. It is clean, sweet-smelling and durable. Besides the pleasant aroma that exhales from it, there are health giving properties in it that must make it, at an early day, the article for bedroom and office floor covering. Its color is also a prime feature in its favor, dark brown; and being practically non-combustible, it is especially desirable for hall and stair matting, and apartments of public resort, where carpets would be too expensive.—Wilmington Messenger.

Nature's efforts are always directed aright, but sometimes occasional assistance of the proper kind proves eminently serviceable to her efforts. Laxador combines every quality to render it of peculiar service in very many diseases.

The diseases of babyhood are so rapidly weakening that the quickest means should be used to check them. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup is the unfailing remedy for these complaints. Price only 25 cents.

An Elegant Brist

For Oils, Salts, Pills, and all kinds of bitter, nauseous Liver Medicines and Cathartics is the very agreeable liquid fruit remedy—Syrup of Figs. Its advantages are evident, it is more easily taken more acceptable to the stomach, more pleasantly, effective, and more truly beneficial to the system than any other remedy. Recommended by leading physicians.

The appellation of gentleman is never to be affixed to a man's circumstances, but to his behavior in them.

PERSONAL.

Mr. N. H. Frolichstein, of Mobile Ala., writes: I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, having used it for a severe attack of Bronchitis and Catarrh. It gave me instant relief and entirely cured me and I have not been afflicted since. I also beg to state that I had tried other remedies with no good result. Have also used Electric Bitters and Dr. King's New Life Pills, both of which I can recommend.

Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, is sold on a positive guarantee. Trial bottles free at Dodd & Holton's Drug Store.

Perhaps the secret regrets of life are the weightiest, and chiefly on this account, they are incommunicable.

WONDERFUL CURES.

W. D. Heyt & Co., Wholesale and retail Druggists of Rome, Ga., say: We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Bucklen's Arnica Salve for four years. Have never handled remedies that sell as well, or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced Consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Sold by Dodd & Holton.
