LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

—Mr. Daniel Worth, of New Garden, returned this morning from a visit to Burlington, his old home.

—The papers are teeming with crime and violence and shocking accidents from one end of the world to the other.

—Judge Robt. P. Dick, Capt. L. A. Bailey, and Marshall Settle, are at the Federal Court in Charlotte which is in session this week.

—There will be a called meeting of the Y. W. C. T. U., to-morrow, (Wednesday) afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. L. W. Andrews.

—Register Causey has an assistant in his office in the person of Miss Regins Bowman, daughter of the late Geo. W. Bowman, of the western part of Guilford. She came down yesterday, via the Salem Branch.

READING CIRCLE.—All the members of the Reading Circle are urgently requested to be present at their meeting to-night at Mrs. Cunningham's. Come promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

—People who felt dull and heavy last night from the effects of the dreary weather awoke this morning to be cheered by the pleasant face of the sun, free of clouds and mist. Beautiful world, after all.

—The committee of all the churches, on the Pearson meetings, are all urged to be present at their first and important meeting, on Wednesday next at 3:30 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, over Brown's store. Don't fail to be present.

—The corpse of Mr. Alec Campbell, who was killed on the railroad, near Concord yesterday morning, was received here last night by messengers from Tabernacle, and carried down in view of interment at 1 p. m. to-day. A very sad return home of an absent husband to his family. But such things often happen.

—Young Men's Prayer Meeting at Westminster Church to night at 7 o'clock. All the young men are cordially invited and urged to attend.

—We regret to hear of the death of Hon. R. R. Bridgers, who for a number of years was president of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad. His death occurred at Columbia, S. C., yesterday, and was quite sudden, as is getting to be common in these days.

—The machinery of the Hughes grist mill property, which had been in litigation for some time, was sold Monday in parcels by auctioneer Pearce, and purchased by Mr. S. W. Scarboro. The farm heretofore advertised for sale by Mrs. M. A. Dixon, containing 80 acres, was sold at the same time by Mr. Pearce, to Mr. S. J. McCauley, for $1,000.

—Young Men's Prayer Meeting at the Baptist church to-night at 7 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all young men of the city, and strangers are especially invited. At the close of the meeting the Young Men's Missionary Society will hold its monthly meeting, at which all the members of the same are urged to be present.

—See the letter of Mrs. Scott to Mr. J. S. Jones, agent for North and South Carolina for the Provident Savings Life Insurance Co., of New York. The letter explains itself and shows up Mr. Jones' Company to advantage. This company has had wonderful success in North Carolina, and much is due to its intrinsic merit and to the energy of Mr. Jones, its General Agent.

—The misses of the "Punita Circle," assisted by Miss Louise Tate, will give an entertainment in W. C. T. U. Hall Tuesday, December 11th, for the benefit of the Industrial school for High Caste Hindu widows in India. Come all, and spend a pleasant evening, besides hearing music and recitations, you can purchase pretty and fancy articles for Christmas presents, and the evening's entertainment will close with the bright and amusing burlesque play, "Leap Year." Doors open at 7 o'clock. Admission for adults 25 cents; children under 12 years of age 15 cents.

MEHANE, N. C., }
 Dec. 8, 1888. }

MR. J. S. JONES,
 General Agent, Provident Savings Life Insurance Company of New York, Greensboro, N. C.
 DEAR SIR: I hereby acknowledge receipt of $5,000.00 paid me in satisfaction of claim under policy number 22,499 taken in your Company by my husband, J. E. Scott, in May 23, 1887. The claim will not mature until January next by the terms of its contract; notwithstanding, it has been discounted without interest, and paid before due, thus making it net me its full face value. Please accept my thanks for your kindness and courtesy, in the adjustment of the claim; I would be pleased, also, to have you convey to the Company my grateful appreciation of its promptness and liberality in the settlement of this matter, with my best wishes for its continued prosperity.
 Yours truly,
 MARY BELLE SCOTT.
 P. S.—It may be of interest to you, Mr. Jones, to know that I have always been violently opposed to life insurance. I begged my husband, Mr. Scott, who submitted the policy to me before paying for it, not to take it. My father held the same views on the subject, but I think were he living that, like me, he would be a convert to this beneficial provision against the future.

M. B. SCOTT.
 Please note that the amount paid on said policy was only $100.60 which was not a bad investment. Note also that the same amount of insurance, for the same time, would have cost from two to three times as much in any other Company of equal rating and security.

Good agents can make satisfactory terms for working in N. C., by applying to the undersigned at Greensboro, N. C. J. S. JONES, Gen. Agent.
