LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

—Mr. T. C. Worth is here to-day at a bank meeting.

—Messrs. G. S. Bradshaw of Ashboro, and Prof. Holt of Oak Ridge, were here to-day.

—Mr. Eugene M. Armfield, acting cashier of the National Bank of High Point, was here to-day.

—Mr. Jas. F. Yates has gone down on a visit to his family, who are spending some time at Southern Pines.

—Miss Laura Davidson, who has been on a brief visit to New Garden, passed down to her home at Gibsonville this morning.

—Prof. Coble, of Kernersville High School, went down this morning to spend the Christmas holidays with his wife's relatives at Pittsboro.

—Messrs. J. W. Scott & Co. will close their stores Christmas day. Customers will bear this in mind and send in their orders accordingly.

—Ernest Kennett and Charley Patterson, who have for some time been at Ossipee Factory, came up this morning and went down on a visit to Liberty.

—Prof. Long, of Spartanburg, S. C., and his brother, Mr. Vernon W. Long, editor of the Winston Sentinel, were here this morning, on their way to their old home at Chapel Hill.

—The entertainment last night at Bogart's Hall was well attended by people who either were hungry, or else had a happy way of eating for accommodation. The young people enjoyed themselves much, and the proceeds amounted to——A cry of fire at a quarter past 10 this morning, which called out the fire company, engine and hose, had its origin in the burning out of a chimney at Rev. R. R. Moore's boarding house. The excitement was soon over.

—We regret that our venerable friend, Rev. John Tillett, who makes his home at Thomasville, continues in feeble health. Long years of faithful labor in the Master's vineyard, with pulmonary trouble from severe cold, have made him physically feeble, while the inner man continues to grow in ripeness for the state which is immortal.

—If the weather is good on to-morrow night, Prof. Henry L. Smith of Davidson College will deliver a lecture on Missions (that has been highly spoken of by the papers) before the Women's and Men's Home and Foreign Mission Societies of the First Presbyterian church, at 7:15 p. m., to which a welcome is extended to all of the city interested in Mission work.

—A few days ago the members of the Baptist church presented their pastor, Rev. W. R. Gwaltney, with a new overcoat, and last evening about 6 o'clock a wagon heavily loaded with groceries, was driven to his back door and the contents placed in his pantry. The pastor is in trouble, for he is at a loss to know how to express his gratitude for such exhibitions of kindness.

Sad and Distressing Casualty.

We learned yesterday, through a friend who called at this office, of the sad affliction which came to the home of Rev. G. W. Bowman, on the 20th of December. One of his daughters, Miss Emma, was alone in one of the rooms of the house, when by some means her clothing took fire. Her sister Mary went to her assistance and used every possible endeavor to subdue the flames in time, but in vain, for after 8 hours of suffering Emma breathed her last. In addition to this very sad affliction, it is feared that Mary herself has lost the use of one of her hands from contact with the flames. The funeral of the deceased was to occur to-day. This is one of the saddest afflictions of the season, and we sympathize earnestly with the parents and other relatives of the deceased.

MASONIC.—The Grand Master of Masons of North Carolina having granted a dispensation to hold its annual election of officers of Greensboro Lodge No 76, A. F. & A. M. on Thursday, December 27th, 1888, (Saint John's, the Evangelist, day), the brethren will take due notice thereof and govern themselves accordingly.

JAS. D. GLENN, W. M.
