LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

—Eggs were recently 5 cents a dozen, at Franklin, Macon county. —The Committee on the Pearson Meeting have assurances of a tent, and have rented it for the 1st of May. —Rev. Dr. Blosser has removed from his former residence on Greene street to the Eldridge place on Washington street. —Speaking of the rain last night and the sleet this morning, we might say that there is a good deal of this sort of thing due us any how. —Mr. E. B. Waggoman and Miss E. E. Weehln were married at Salem at 5 o'clock, p. m., Thursday, and came down on the first train on a visit to relatives in this city. —There were some dishes left in the Benbow Hall, which were used during the Firemen's fair, and which are unmarked. The owners of the same can get them by calling at the office of Beets & Blam. —Mr. E. J. Muller, representing Finks & Lang, dealers in printing inks, &c., New York, made a call on us this morning. Mr. Muller is traveling through the South in the interest of his house. —Brother Manning of the Gold Leaf has lately been made the recipient of a handsome suit of clothes, and his brethren of the press in the State are congratulating him on the event. Let an editor get married, have an heir born to him, or become the recipient of a suit of clothes, and his brethren of the press will at once appreciate the favor, almost as if it had been done to themselves. It is such a good hint, you know.

—Mr. T. T. Brooks has sold his interest in the planing and moving machinery at Red Springs to Mr. Wm. Love of this city. Mr Brooks has not as yet decided on his own base of operations for the future.

—The bill before the Legislature creating a railroad Commission passed its second reading in the State House of Representatives yesterday. A third reading was made the special order for 11 o'clock today.

—As informed by the Twin-City Daily, Rev. Dr. Rondthaler, of Salem, accompanied by his son started yesterday on a trip to Europe. The chief object of the trip is an attendance upon the Moravian Synod at Herrnhut, Saxony.

PLAYED DOCTOR FATALLY.—A little daughter of Mr. Eugene Johnston, of Salisbury, died from the effects of strychnine poison on the 12th instant. She and some other children had been playing "Doctor," and by some means they had access to some pills containing strychnine. Mr. Johnston's little daughter died within an hour; the others were saved by timely treatment. This is a sad affair, and contains a loud lesson of caution.

QUICK WORK.—On Monday last Mr. A. F. Brooks, of this place, closed a contract with a certain party for the erection of a dwelling house with three rooms; the house has been built—the carpenters work—and this Saturday morning Mr. Brooks made a deposit of the amount of the bill for the house. There were only four full working days in which to do the work. Its no use to build by "magic" any longer.

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.

HALL G. S. F. E. Co., No. 1, February 16th, 1889. At a meeting of the Greensboro Steam Fire Engine Company, No. 1, held Friday night last, February 15th, 1889, the following resolutions, submitted by the undersigned committee, were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The members of the Greensboro Steam Fire Co., No. 1, consider themselves under lasting obligations to the ladies of Greensboro who so successfully conducted the late Fair for our benefit, and

WHEREAS, We deem an expression of our appreciation of the unselfish efforts of these ladies not only proper, but necessary, as indicative of the unanimous sentiment of the members of this company, therefore be it

Resolved, That while we feel our inability to make any return for the great zeal and labor exerted in our behalf, or even to express to them our sense of gratitude and heartfelt appreciation for the same, we do hereby most sincerely assure them that they have done us a service which no others could have accomplished; that the cheerfulness, enthusiasm and unanimity with which they undertook the laborious task, has shown that our labors in the past have been appreciated, and have inspired us with renewed energy and determination, not alone to maintain the present high standard of efficiency with which we are credited, but to attain the very pinnacle of usefulness and excellence for our organization; and that their smiles and gentle words of encouragement will cheer and nerve us to do or dare any deed which has for its object the protection of the homes and hearthstones of those noble and self-sacrificing women whom we now have the honor to enroll as our sincere friends.

Resolved, That we also acknowledge ourselves under many obligations to all the generous-hearted and public-spirited citizens who generally patronized our Fair, and contributed so materially towards its financial success,—to all of whom we hereby tender our most grateful thanks.

Resolved, That a printed copy of these resolutions be sent to each lady and gentleman who so zealously labored for our success, and that a copy be furnished each of the city papers with a request to publish the same.

Respectfully submitted, H. J. ELAM, J. P. SCOTT, J. G. FOWLER, JOHN LEWIS, W. E. SCHENCK, Committee
