The Daily Workman.

Vol. 6. Greensboro, N. C., Monday, March 25, 1889. No. 253.

IS A FUTURE in Greensboro and being consulted daily by a sort of business men, is a splendid advertising medium. The circulation is increasing.

COLUMNS, shows what advertiser think. Office Junete Benbow Hall, South Elm street.

RAILWAY GUIDE.

Table with columns for Railway Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Richmond & Danville, North Carolina, and North-Western N. C. Railroads.

SCHEDULE OF MAILS: Lists mail departure times for North, South, Salem, and East directions.

ADVERTISING LIMITATION. All church notices, including Sabbath School, meetings for prayer, missionary meetings, weekly and other lectures on church work, inserted free of charge, as heretofore.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

For mineral waters go to Tate Bros. drug store. It is gratifying to know that the fish industry at Newbern is doing finely. Fishbait is the place to buy clothing and hats. Mr. W. S. Moore and Miss Em. Burridge will start north to-night to purchase goods for the store. Rev. J. R. Dwiggin, of Stokesdale, came down on the early Mt. Airy train this morning, and returned home this afternoon. Preaching at Westminster church to night at 7:45 o'clock by Rev. J. Henry Smith, D. D. Preaching every night this week. There will be an important meeting of the Continental Company on to-morrow evening. Mr. C. E. Houston, a merchant of Ore Hill, came up on a visit to our city on Saturday last, and remained until this morning, when he returned home. Mr. O. S. Causey, of High Point, came down this morning and after spending a couple of hours here went forward to Fayetteville, where he has important manufacturing interests. There are serious fears of race trouble at Stony Creek, Stanek Co., Va., in consequence of an anonymous notice being sent by a colored bar keeper of the village to regulate the disorders of his house.

A Mr. Jones, who is employed by Mr. Woodroffe in his shops here, had his fingers painfully lacerated by a flying saw last Saturday, but is believed now to be doing well.

CROWDED OUT.—Mr. Geo. Fitzsimons will be out to-morrow with his new ad. which will inform the public of what he is doing and aims to do to make lively times for 1889—on the corner.

Mr. Jas. Duffy, the polite and accomodating keeper of the city cemetery has managed to grow quite an array of beautiful flowers, and can supply those who are in need of such. His flowers are pretty and his prices are reasonable.

The usual weekly prayer meeting will be held at West Market St. church next Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. Thursday night at 8 o'clock Rev. W. S. Creasy of Wilmington will preach a sermon before the Knights of Pythias. Public cordially invited to attend.

An appeal is made by the Evening Visitor in behalf of a disabled colored man of Raleigh, said to be past one hundred years of age. It would seem that no community could allow so old a citizen to suffer for lack of creature comforts, since they could be supplied without affecting the stores of any.

PEARSON MEETING.—From a letter received to day Mr. Pearson announces it as his intention to commence his meeting at this place on Sunday the 12th day of May. He proposes spending 2 or 3 weeks here. The Pearson Committee will meet in the rooms of the Chambers of Commerce on Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

C. H. IRELAND See. The Evangeline Club of King's Daughters will give a Japanese Tea at the residence of Judge Gilmer on next Thursday evening, March 28th, for the benefit of some charities. Besides music, recitations &c., for the entertainment of those present, ice cream and cake and other delicacies will be served. The object is worthy one, and should receive the hearty approval of all our citizens, and we hope the young ladies composing this club will be greatly encouraged at this their first entertainment on next Thursday evening. All are cordially invited to be present.

Mr. W. P. Iddings, of the firm of Aldrich, Iddings & Clifton, dry goods commission merchants, New York, has been on a visit to this place within the last few days, and some of our men of business have held very pleasant interviews with him on current topics. Mr. Iddings expresses himself as much pleased with what he has seen and learned of North Carolina, and believes it to be in a more hopeful condition of advancement than any of its sister States of the South. This is an opinion given after an opportunity to know something of the subject involved, and by one who is capable of making a comparison, and should therefore be an encouragement to our people to put forth still more earnest efforts to bring prosperity to the State in which their lot is cast.

Graded School Notes.

Robt. Tate is drummer this month, and an excellent one he makes.

The number of pupils at the school now is 335, the largest number in the history of the school.

Marching to the drum-beat, the pupils move out and in at recess, in splendid order, and in less than two minutes' time.

The larger boys put in their recesses just now in tussling with the foot-ball. Notwithstanding the limited time and space at their command for the sport, they manage withal to kick a good deal of fun out of the "leather."

The class in Geometry has been wrestling with the celebrated Pythagorean proposition—the so-called "Pons Asinorum"—and in addition to the two demonstrations given in the text-book, has produced eight other proofs, for which, while most of the figures were suggested, the demonstrations were original.

Having bought the entire livery interest of Mr. L. F. Ross, the undersigned will conduct the business at the same place in the future. Their street carriage and baggage wagon will meet all trains and attend all calls. Orders left at the stables will be promptly attended to.
