LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Col. A. B. Andrews left here this morning. Mr. R. E. Causey, of High Point was here to day. MEETING-The Board of Commissioners will meet to-night. All should come. It is important. See what Scott & Co. have to say about "Bridgewater" flour in another column. Col. Rayford, Supervisor of the N. C. Railroad between this place and Goldsboro, has been here to-day. Attention is called to an advertisement in this issue of Valuable Lands for sale by E. P. Wharton & Co. Bro. J. H. Mills, of the Thomasville Orphanage, and Rev. H. L. Brown, of Winston, were here this morning. An unusually disagreeable day was yesterday, and up to a late hour last night wind and rain came along in a combination that made pedestrians shy. We learn that, although the weather last night was very unfavorable, there was a good and appreciative audience at the Calisthenic Drill at the College.

PROHIBITION IN MASSACHUSETTS.-It is claimed that the Constitutional prohibitory amendment which was submitted to the people of Massachusetts a few days ago was defeated by about 35,000 votes. The result seems to have been a surprise to both parties.

Mr. Robinson, while drilling in to the gas main opposite J. W. Scott & Co's yesterday, for the purpose of running a pipe into the new bank building, was prostrated from the effects of escaping gas, and had to be lifted out of the ditch and sent home in a wagon.

EARLY CLOSING OF STORES.-An understanding has been entered into by a number of our leading merchants by which their stores will be closed every evening, except Saturday, from May 13th to Oct. 1st, at 7 o'clock. This arrangement will conduce largely to the benefit of all, especially of those who toil behind the counter, and we congratulate the parties on their having come to such a conclusion.

The preparations for the Battle Ground Celebration are reported as complete. Trains will go from the regular depot of the C. F. & Y. V. Railroad. The programme is ready, and would have been printed by us to day had it not been for the pressure on our columns. One part of the programme is a luxury which but few of our citizens will enjoy-hearing the "Sun Rise Gun" musket carried by Cal...

To our Friends and Customers. After an experience of several years in the Grocery business we have decided, in justice to you as well as ourselves, to abandon the credit system, and after the 1st of May next to rightly adhere to the Cash on Delivery plan for all goods we may sell. In adopting this course we are in a great measure influenced by the fact that we shall be able to sell our goods at a less profit, and at the close of the year's business to realize more than under the credit system. We are, therefore, prepared to meet the requirements of our customers on this plan. We can truthfully say that very many of them have our heartiest thanks for their past custom and for the promptness they have always displayed in settling their monthly accounts. We extend an invitation to all to test the relative merits of the two systems, by their continued patronage. Respectfully, a17-3w T. S. SHELTON & CO.
