LAND SALE.

PURSUANT TO AN ORDER OF the Superior Court, made in the case of Judith J. Mendenhall, Executrix of Bechel Parker, deceased, and others ex parte, the undersigned will sell to the highest bidder, at the Court House door in Greensboro, N. C., on the 18th day of May, 1889, a tract of land on Horse Pen Creek, adjoining the lands of Rufus Harris, J. R. Jessup and others and containing 83 acres more or less.

BY PUBLIC AUCTION

TERMS:—One-half cash, balance in 6 months with interest from date of sale. Title reserved.

JUDITH J. MENDENHALL,
a18-4w Ex'r'x and Commissioner.

Sale of Land.

By virtue of an order of the Superior Court of Guilford, in a special proceeding for the sale of the land of the late Ellis Mitchell, for the payment of his debts, I shall sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, on Monday the 6th day of May, 1889, the tract of land on which said Ellis Mitchell lived for many years, on the waters of Brush Creek, adjoining the lands of Joseph Wilson, Eli Lindsey, John Jessup and others, containing fifty acres more or less.

Persons desiring to purchase are requested to examine said land.

TERM OF SALE. One half cash on the day of sale, the other half on a credit of three months, with interest from date, to be secured by bond and approved security. Title reserved until the whole purchase money is paid.

O. C. WHEELER, Admr.
m27-4w of Ellis Mitchell.

WE WILL QUIT BRAGGING

about our "Bridgewater" flour for a few days as it is recommending itself now wherever used. Having supplanted in some instances the Bragg flour of the Country, we ought to feel satisfied of its merits. Will only say that we are daily expecting a new lot which will be sold a little lower than heretofore.

THERE IS NOT MUCH IN THE

eatable line now to offer, as this is the "Scarce Season," but we are well supplied with everything in the way of Canned Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, &c.

We received yesterday Fresh Roast Beef

Corned Beef, Potteu Tongue and Ham,

"Leibigs" Extract of Beef, &c. Also have fine French Sardines, Canned Salmon, Lobster, Oyster and Anchovies,

all of which you will find nice for supper

Then we have California Apricots, Pine

Apples, Standard Peaches, Blackberries,

Pie Peaches (unpeeled), Egyptian Corn

IN ACCORDANCE WITH POWERS granted to the "Greensboro Female College Association," by the Legislature at its session of 1889, giving said association municipal powers, the Board of Directors met April 16th, 1889, and passed the following ordinances:

1st. That any and all persons who shall enter on the grounds of said association, and while there do any act which is calculated to excite or put in fear, annoy or disturb the quiet or peace of any student in attendance on the school of the association, while in or out of school or any teacher or superintendent or other officer thereof, or do any act to interfere with or induce any student in school as aforesaid to violate or to do anything contrary to the rules or discipline of the school, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction each and every person shall pay a fine of not less than five nor more than fifty dollars or imprisonment at the discretion of the court.

2nd. That every person found guilty of loud and boisterous cursing or swearing in the buildings or on the grounds of the association or be found drunk or disorderly, or down, or disturbing, or in any way interfering with the peace and good order, comfort and quiet of the students or any one of them in attendance on the school of the association, or be found violating the rules of decency, shall upon conviction thereof pay a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars or imprisonment at the discretion of the court.

3rd. Any person who shall be guilty of disorderly conduct at any exhibition or public meeting on the grounds of the association or shall in any way disturb or annoy any audience therein or thereon shall upon conviction pay a fine of not less than five nor more than fifty dollars or imprisonment at the discretion of the court, and shall further be liable and it shall be the duty of any officer to immediately eject such persons from the premises of the association.

4th. That if any two or more persons shall assemble or come together in the buildings or on the grounds of the association and indulge in drinking spirituous, fermented or malt liquors, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall each pay a fine of not less than five nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisonment at the discretion of the court.

5th. That any and all persons who shall indecently expose themselves or do any obscene act, use or write any obscene language or make or exhibit obscene marks, drawings or pictures on the grounds or within the buildings of the association, shall upon conviction pay a fine of not less than five nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisonment, at the discretion of the court.

6th. That Prof. Dred Peacock be and is hereby appointed police, as provided in and with the powers prescribed in an act of the General Assembly of North Carolina passed at its session held in 1889 entitled an act to amend chapter 57th private laws of the acts of 1883 &c.
