The Daily Workman

A NON-PARTISAN NEWSPAPER.

Devoted to News, Business, General Intelligence, Virtue and Morals. Published every day except Sunday.

GREENSBORO, is intended to promote the best of the country as well as the town. Much of its matter is prepared especially for its columns. Having been established

1883, 1883,

is now old enough to be known as a fixture. The Daily Workman began its life when the business of Greensboro was small, and in an unsettled condition, but has lived through all the seasons of trial and depression, and is ready to live through the season of improvement which seems now to be upon us.

BUSINESS MEN

have appreciated the efforts of the Daily Workman, and to their encouragement is due the fact that it not only has lived through the difficulties of the past five years, but is in a condition to live and prosper and be useful in the years to come.
