

Pennsylvania Law And Table Manners.

A majority of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court has decided, in a case argued before it, that a guest at hotel or restaurant table is entitled to all the food that is placed before him, and that he is privileged to carry away for future consumption whatever he may not be able to eat at the time.

This may be good law, but it is not good manners. Perhaps the decision may be a reflex of the teachings of the Pennsylvania school of politics, whose habit has always been to grab all within reach, regardless of decency and the rights of others.

Outside of Pennsylvania we fancy that this decision will be regarded somewhat as a judicial eccentricity.

To be sure, the patrons of the popular restaurants have always regarded themselves as privileged to forage upon the sugar bowl and the match and toothpick receptacles. This practice, however, has never prevailed generally, and has not until now received the approval of judicial edict.

It is sincerely to be hoped that the Pennsylvania decision will not have the result of establishing a new rule of table etiquette. People with whom dining is a fine art will not be inclined to complacently endure the sight of other guests in a public dining room carrying away in handkerchiefs the remains of porterhouse steaks or wrapping up uneaten rolls for transportation in a morning newspaper. If this practice should by any untoward happening become general we might expect a promiscuous raid upon the landlord's larder. Possibly economical feeders would even go to the extent of providing themselves with handbags in which to carry away for subsequent use the residuum of their hotel and restaurant meals.—N. Y. Star.

Our Knit Goods.

The La Grange Spectator of June 6th says:

We have seen some knit underwear goods at Mr. J. D. Walters, made by the Greensboro Knitting Mill. The goods are made substantially and finished up in a neat style. La Grange will and must have a factory to consume the cotton made at our doors.

Miss Etta May Troy, formerly of Fayetteville, and a daughter of Hon. W. C. Troy, ex State Senator of Cumberland and Harnett, died at Asheville, N. C., the 5th, of Mr. Horace Alexander Wyche of Waynesville.

IS CONSUMPTION INCURABLE?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of the Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to converse my work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottle free at C. E. Holton's Drugstore.

Spartanburg's Sensation.

A sensational rumor was current yesterday. Last year Mr. Williams, of New York, came to Glenn Springs. He is reported wealthy. He returned this summer, and last week was married to Miss Florence Smith, an estimable young lady, of Glenn Springs. Yesterday a woman arrived here with an infant in her arms, claiming to be his wife. She followed him to Glenn's and a stormy interview followed. It is said that she failed to establish her marriage and yesterday morning she returned to this city.—Spartanburg Herald.

A Spark From a Pipe.

PHILADELPHIA, June 6.—While the firemen were engaged this afternoon in extinguishing a fire in a small frame house of the Pennsylvania Globe and Gas Light Company, the flames reached the storage basin in which were 12 barrels of gasoline. A terrible explosion followed, and eleven of the firemen were caught in a shower of burning oil and were badly burned. The men were at once removed to the Episcopal Hospital. Some of them will probably die from their injuries. The fire is said to have originated from a spark from a pipe of a careless employe.

IS INVITED TO THE FOLLOWING SENT BY REV. E. E. PALMER, D. D.,
District Secretary for Pa., S'heri N. J., Del., Md., and D. C., of the A. B. H. M. Society.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Jan. 2, '90.
To The Pine Needle Cigar Co., Freehold, N. J.

Dear Sirs—Having been a sufferer from Nasal Catarrh for years, I was induced, about six months ago, to try your Cigars. The result has been very satisfactory. I would call attention to the following points: First. The effect of the smoke on the membranes of the throat and nasal passages is very soothing and has a tendency to restore them to a normal condition. Second. The discharge from the head and accumulation in the throat have been to a great degree relieved. Third. The disposition of the membrane to enlarge is arrested. Fourth. The sense of smell which I had entirely lost, except for the most penetrating odors, seems to be returning. Fifth. There is, I think, special value in the use of the pine needle with the tobacco as the smoke reaches all the parts affected more thoroughly than any powder or spray can be made to do. The healing virtues of the pine are well known, and the tobacco when saturated with the balsam that exudes from the pine leaf, loses the irritating property it might otherwise possess and gives to the smoke a heating power. I had been under very skillful medical treatment for a long time and had reached a point where the only relief seemed to lay in a serious surgical operation. I do not think this will now be necessary, and in consequence I have a great relief. I can cheerfully commend your cigar as a remedy of great worth to persons suffering from catarrh. I may add that the use of veteles has been improved greatly in cleanliness and compass.
