AN IMPORTANT CONFERENCE OVER THE GREAT RAILROAD STRIKE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Grand Master Workman Powderly and Secretary Hays, of the Knights of Labor, arrived here this morning and, with Grand Chief Sargent of the Firemen's Union, and Wilkinsop, of the Trainmen's Association; Chairman George Howard, of the Railroad Conductors, and Grand Master Sweeney, of the Switchmen's Mutual Aid Association, are at the Grand Union Hotel.

WEBB DETERMINED.

Vice President Webb said this morning: "For the past few days, I have been making arrangements to get a new force of firemen in case those on the road should go out, and have succeeded so far that any delay from that cause will be temporary. I have enough assurance from firemen on my road to convince me that in case they are ordered out, a number of them will not go. Then, if necessary, I will stop every particle of freight traffic, close up every yard, and keep them closed, until I have obtained a sufficient number of new firemen to resume freight traffic. This, I think, I can accomplish within forty-eight hours, as I have long lists of men who will come at the wages we will pay. My road will expend $2,000,000 to win, and in my action I am backed up by the stock-holders.

SARGENT AND WEBB TO CONFER.

Mr. Sargent, of the Firemen's Brotherhood, will have a conference with Vice-President Webb over the situation, from which the strike leaders expect a great deal. It is said a general strike, conductors, firemen, and switchmen may result. The engineers will not be represented at the conference, but as one of the Brotherhood of Engineers' rules provides that union engineers cannot work with non-union firemen, a strike of the firemen would leave nothing for the engineers to do but to quit work, also.

REFUSING EASTERN FREIGHT.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Aug. 19.—The Lake Shore Railroad here has refused all eastern freight handed them, on account of the New York Central strike. The mills are also experiencing much difficulty in having iron delayed and tied up for an indefinite time.

A FIVE HOURS CONFERENCE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The labor leaders, Powderly, Sargent, Sweeney and others have been in conference for the past five hours, and the conference is still in session. No word has reached the outside as to what action, if any, has been taken.

People Dying by Scores in Kentucky.

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio, Aug. 19.—Letters received here from parties who are visiting the northwest counties of Kentucky say the mountain regions along the Big Sandy River are being swept by flux and kindred diseases, and people are dying by the score. Drought, low water impregnated with alkali, and excessive heat, are the supposed causes.

A Desperate Female Murderer

BROWNVILLE, Tex., Aug. 19.—County Judge Max Stein, of Hidalgo county, and a wealthy and leading merchant of Edinburg, Texas, was shot and killed Sunday night, in Reynosa, Mexico, by Mrs. Delia McCabe, of Carns county, Texas.

The murderess is the wife of ex-County Judge McCabe. Judge Stein, with his wife and daughter, were in attendance at a fair at Reynosa, and the shooting was done in their presence. Mrs. Stein, as her husband fell dead, sprang towards the murderess, but was felled with a savage blow on the temple with the barrel of the pistol. The Chief of Police who rushed up to arrest her was also knocked down, and then, like a lioness at bay, she brought her ready pistol down on the policemen who came up, and defied them to arrest her. Some cavalymen finally crept behind the woman, and after a desperate struggle succeeded in disarming her.

The affair grew out of election troubles, McCabe being unseated as county judge and Stein elected to succeed him. McCabe, aided by a party of seceders tried to forcibly capture the court house, and failing, fled to Reynosa.

It is said that letters were written to Carns county, where the McCabes formerly lived, to get their records. Mrs. McCabe heard of this, and swore vengeance on her husband's successor.

Money Found.

An amount of money has been found at the door of this office, the finder of which has picked up money on the streets a number of times within the past few years. This shows that the people are careless with their money, more so here than elsewhere, within our knowledge. Why is it that the people should complain of the scarcity of cash, and then drop it about in such careless manner, no one can tell. It would not be proper for us in this notice to describe the money found, for then some unprincipled fellow might come and put in a bogus claim for it. The custom in such cases, which is a very safe and proper one, is to merely say that money has been found, so that one who has lost money may come and describe it and get it.

France's Gift.

The French have sent over to this country a gift in a bronze and marble statue of Lafayette.

The statue was designed by Falguise, and was presented to the United States by Societe des Beaux-Arts.

The monument is a block of white marble, eleven feet square, resting on a marble base thirteen feet square on the surface and about three feet in height, which in turn rests on a granite sub base. Its total height is 15 feet, and on the sides of the monument stone are figures, of bronze, ten feet high, in relief, of first, America; second, a group of children; third, General Rochambeau surrounded by friends, and fourth, General the Marquis de Lafayette. It has taken several years to design and cast, cost 150,000 francs, and complete, weighs sixty four tons. It will be taken to Washington by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

Mrs. Green McLean went this morning on a visit of some days to friends in the McLeansville neighborhood.

An Old Citizen in Texas.

Among the number of native North Carolinians living in other States is Mr. Jas Patrick Woodson, of Rockingham county, who lives at Honey Grove, Fannin county, Texas.

Mr. Woodson emigrated from Rockingham county to Texas at the right time, as he says, for an enterprising mechanic to make his way readily, there being plenty of work at good prices, workmen being scarce, and in due time he accumulated a competence at his trade of a blacksmith, by which he was enabled to rear and educate quite a family of children. He gave this account of his sisters who remained in Rockingham:—Anne did not marry, Betsey married Jas. H. Scales, then Pleas. Webster and died thereafter; Martha married Duke Scales, with whom she went to Missouri, where both died many years ago; Mary married Noah Cook, a Presbyterian clergyman of New York; Catharine married Peter Scales; Maria married Nat Dodd.

Although over 70 years of age Mr. Woodson has recently been to the far west, and was in Oklahoma region not long since. For a short while past he has been on a visit to Reidsville and Winston, N. C., and Irishburg, Va., and this morning departed for his home in Texas, after a brief visit to his niece Mrs. Miller near Greensboro.

Electrocution.

The New York papers, and some others on the outside are saying a good deal about the electrocution of the murderer Kemmler which took place at Auburn about two weeks ago. The consensus of opinion is to the effect that the execution of Kemmler was a bungling affair, of necessity, and that the law would be repealed. So far the other side has not been heard from, except in what was said by some who participated in the execution, and it is not known how strong an answer can be framed to the objections filed. The fact is, this is so much the age of humbugs that the people never know whether the actors that pass before them are real human beings, or monkeys dressed up in men's clothes and supplied with patent self acting speaking tubes. Accordingly it would be easy to convince a number of people that Kemmler is still alive and marching, along, and that it was only a counterfeit presentation of himself that endeavored the ordeal of electrocution at Auburn. How refreshing it would be, too, to those who are opposed to capital punishment if they could be satisfied that Kemmler is still alive and out of harm's way.

Look Out.

THE WORKMAN was in error yesterday in saying that S. S. Brown, & Co. would sell ladies kid shoes for a $1.00. But we are right when we say they will sell them for $1.60, and those who know say they are "dandies" too for that money.

There are now thirteen persons in New York likely to soon meet the fate of Kemmler. Five of them have already been condemned to death by electricity. Among these five are one Chinaman and one negro.
