EVENTS OF A DAY.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS OF INTEREST.

The Record of a Day's Happenings in and Around Greensboro—What Our Reporters See and Hear—Personal Notes, Local Brevities, &c., &c.

We are almost glad that Danville, Winston and other places have as much mud as we have.

Young men, remember the Gospel services at the Y. M. C. A., to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Go.

Prof. Charles McIver has gone to Guilford College today and will lecture to the students of that Institution tonight.

A select party of young people enjoyed a sociable at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Beacham last evening.

Weather indications: For North Carolina and South Carolina, winds becoming southerly, warmer, fair weather.

Death of Mr Shaw.

Mr. Thomas Shaw died at Hillsdale yesterday of pneumonia, leaving three helpless orphan children, whose mother perished last June from a burn.

Died This Afternoon.

Mrs. Elvira C. Pointer died at the residence of C. H. Ireland, corner of Spring and Gaston streets in this city at 2:10 this afternoon. The funeral services will be held Monday morning, March 2nd at the residence.

A Stenographer.

From the Concord Standard it is learned that the Odell Manufacturing Company of that town have employed a stenographer and assistant book keeper in the person of Mr. Tyson of Randolph county.

They've Come.

F. Fishplate has just received a full line of the World Renowned Knox Hats (for which they are agents) in the new spring shapes. Also a full line of Soft Hats in all styles. The Hoffman House Soft and Stiff Hat, which is the latest in browns, blacks or blues, in all shapes.

The Tribulations of a Newspaper Man.

Many are the acknowledged tribulations of a newspaper man. A subscriber came in some days ago and paid up his subscription to February 30th, a day that could never come. THE WORKMAN warns all newspaper men against any such contracts. Beware of the 30th day of February.

Rev. Sam Jones Breaks Down.

A letter has been received by a prominent Methodist of Sherman, Texas, from Rev. Sam P. Jones, the Georgia evangelist.

The letter was in reply to an expression of approval of Mr. Jones's part in the recent clinching match in Palestine. The writer is very despondent, and assures his Texas friend that he is now a physical wreck, and never hopes to regain perfect health. The arduous labors of the past few years have brought him suddenly face to face with a physical collapse, which he dreads.

The above was taken from the Atlanta Constitution of yesterday, and his many friends here deeply sympathize with Mr. Jones.

FOR RENT.—The boarding house now occupied by Mrs. Verron on Ashe St. Apply to C. C. GORELL.

Birds Eye View of Greensboro.

THE WORKMAN mentioned the fact a short time since that an artist was on a visit here for the purpose of making a birds-eye picture of the city, which, when completed, would show as if the beholder were on some elevated point the entire city and its environs, its buildings, its streets, its railroads and its factories, with the topography far and near, and yesterday we were shown by Mr. Stoner, the canvassing agent, the picture in India ink as it will appear when lithographed—and it will be lithographed provided 150 subscribers can be obtained for the picture.

The examination which we have been able to make of the picture leaves a favorable impression. The work seems to have been well done, and the birds-eye view is the only one by which the whole of any town or city can be brought into sight at one time; enabling any citizen in a few moments to recognize his own dwelling and the streets leading to it.

A picture in this style must afford entertainment to those who are so fortunate as to possess it, while at the same time it will serve as an advertising medium, conveying to the people at a distance such a knowledge of the city's appearance as could be conveyed in no other way.

Such a picture framed would be a handsome ornament, and one much to be desired, and we doubt if any medium for a permanent advertisement of the city could equal it.

Goes to Morganton.

A special legislative committee, consisting of Senators Rose of Johnston and Reid of McDowell, and Representatives Foust of Chatham and Hildeman of Cabarrus, accompanied by Prof. E. McK. Goodwin of the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind Asylum of Raleigh, passed through this city this morning on their way to Morganton to inspect the advantages offered the State Legislature in the site and funds proposed to be donated for an asylum for the Deaf and Dumb of the State. Morganton proposes to donate $5,000 in money, and a site valued at $7,000. The committee aim to investigate and return to Raleigh in time to report on Monday to the Legislature.

It might be said here that Greensboro would have been a capital place for the asylum which is to be built, but we do not learn that any serious efforts have been made to bring the asylum here. Like the pretty young man who fails to improve his mind because he has so much beauty to recommend him, we rely on our location and leave others to make earnest efforts to secure advantages.

Died Yesterday.

Mrs. Sarah C. Bennett, widow of the late Henry Bennett, died at the home of her son Isaac E. Bennett, a mile north of the city at 4:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon, aged 68 years.

The deceased had long been subject to pulmonary trouble, but by dint of great industry and perseverance had been able to keep up the struggle. Recently she was attacked with pneumonia, which proved too much for her and she succumbed to the power of disease.

Mrs. Bennett was the mother of four sons and a daughter, and left twenty-one living grand children. Her living children are, Monroe, Isaac, Thomas, Roxie Ann—Mrs. Rich. Preston, a son, is dead.

We were pleased to see here this morning Mr. J. M. Foust, proprietor of Mount Vernon Springs, Chatham county, who is a member of the present Legislature.

PERSONAL POINTERS.

Greensboro's People and Others Coming and Going and Passing Through.

Mr. Dolph Blair of Archdale, is in the city today.

Miss Susie Stone, of Winston, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. B. Beacham, on Lindsay street.

The Durham Globe notes the presence in that place yesterday of Mr. W. M. Houston, of this city.

Representative Hopkins of Rockingham county, returned to Raleigh this morning from a visit to his family.

Messrs. Eugene Gillaspie and Walter Mendenhall, students at Guilford College, have been in the city to-day.

Mrs. Nutt, of Mount Airy, arrived this morning on a visit of several days to her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Wingate.

Rev. J. B. Richardson, pastor of the Burlington Baptist church, went down today to meet his appointment at that place.

Mrs. Cates, the mother of Mr. B. N. Cates of this city, went down to Burlington this morning on a visit of some days.

Mrs. J. H. Prince who has been on a visit to relatives at Goldsboro for several days, returned to her home in this city last night.

Associate Justice Avery was here this morning on his way to his home at Morganton. Judge Bynum was also here at the same time.

We were glad to see here this afternoon Mr. C. A. Reynolds, of the Asheville Lumber Company, who was up on a short visit to his family.

Dr. T. T. Ferree, of Browns Summit, came in this morning on his way to Worthville, where he will assist in holding a protracted meeting.

Mr. Abner Hicks, of Granville county, who has been a student for some time at Oak Ridge Institute, went down home this morning on account of the poor health of his father, Mr. Benjamin W. Hicks.

Rev. Dr. J. William Jones, formerly of Richmond, Va., but now of Atlanta, Ga., passed down to Chapel Hill this morning, where he will lecture before the students. He will then visit Henderson, from which place he will return to Raleigh to attend the Baptist Sunday School Convention on Thursday.

The City Tax Case.

The case of the City of Greensboro vs. W. D. McAdoo and others was argued before Judge Boykin this morning. Messrs. Dillard & King and Jas. E. Boyd representing the city, and Messrs. J. T. Morabead and L. M. Scott the defendants. This case involved the question of the right of the Board of City Aldermen to levy local assessments on the property owners on South Elm street for the sidewalk improvements in front of the property.

Judge Boykin after hearing the argument sustained the action of the Board and declared the assessments legal. The defendants took an appeal to the Supreme Court.

A Slight Accident.

As the freight train for Mount Airy was going out this morning one of the box cars jumped the track when near Matthews store, caused by the breaking of a rail. A brakeman who was on top the car jumped off and was not hurt. A coach in the rear of the derailed car held its position, and remained while the main part of the train went forward to Mt. Airy. The accident occurred at about 10 o'clock.
