Vol. VII.—No. 203.

GREENSBORO N. C., MONDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 16, 1891.

Price $3.00 Per Year

THE LATEST!

Spring styles are slightly exaggerated in our sketch. Trousers are not quite so baggy nor collars altogether so tall, but you may depend upon it that the elegant line of Fine Suits just opened at Brown's are correct in style and first class in material and make up. We have just opened a new lot of Neckwear, Shirts, Collars and Cuffs, and are always glad to have you come in and see what we've got to show in late and desirable novelties.

Yours truly,

SAMPLE S. BROWN & Co.

WHAT OUR REPORTERS SEE AND HEAR

And What Other People Tell Them—News Briefly Noted, Personal Notes &c.

The mud must go.

We are glad to know that our city Graded Schools are in fine condition.

Wait for the Interstate Convention of Milkmaids—Benbow Hall Friday night.

If the present clear weather continues, the music of the hammer and trowel will soon be heard at a lively rate.

Dr. W. W. Moore, of Hampden Sidney College, Va., is to preach the annual sermon at Chapel Hill next Commencement.

Rev. Dr. Brooks, presiding elder of Greensboro District, preached two powerful sermons at West Market street church yesterday.

The statement of the condition of the Piedmont Bank of Greensboro appears in today's WORKMAN. It shows the Piedmont to be in good condition.

The Guilford county Sunday School Convention will be held in the Court house, instead of the Baptist church (as was first announced) on Monday, March 23rd 1891.

Owing to some defect in the engine pulling the south bound train this morning, it was side tracked here, and the switch engine put in its place, which pulled the train to Charlotte.

The Rev. Dr. H. C. DuBose, a returned missionary from China, will deliver a lecture at Westminster church tonight, at 7:30 o'clock. His subject will be the Chinese. No admission will be charged. All are invited.

Mr. Wm. Anderson, of Charlotte, who was in the city Saturday, sold his house and lot on Asheboro street to Mr. S. Kirkpatrick, of the revenue service, who will move in by the first of April, or as soon as he can put down his carpets and make other necessary arrangements for the change.

Kept In.

The cold wind of yesterday, which could be felt seriously by old people and invalids, must have kept a number away from church. The truth is, we have had a cold wave that is entitled to be set down as just from the factory. That it was an imported article nobody will seriously question.

The Milkmaids' Interstate Convention.

This bright and witty burlesque will be given in Benbow Hall next Friday evening, 20th inst. by nearly four young ladies of our city, representing some of the best talents among our young people, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.

This unique entertainment can not fail to please with its marches, songs, and mirth-provoking speeches.

Further notices will appear.

To Resume Operations

The WORKMAN is glad to know that the Greensboro Knitting Mills resume operations this week. The entire plant, we are informed, has been purchased by two individuals, who will run it, and run it right.

The Company is negotiating with the Eagle Foundry for the lot adjoining the Mills, which if secured, will no doubt result in the enlargement of the Knitting Co's business.

Mr. M. Howard, of Carthage, New York, will have charge of the Mills.

At the Benbow To-Day.

News Butchering.

The Charlotte correspondent of the Richmond Times is entitled to the distinction of "News Butcher" par excellence. That correspondent lays hold on THE WORKMAN of Friday last and copies "bonaciously" its account of the burning of the Red Springs planing mill from a to z, only changing the date when it did happen—Wednesday, to a date when it didn't happen—Thursday, to render it current at the Times counter. Richmond as news. That correspondent would make a fortune by doing the same as spring chickens, especially if he could always find so good a market as Richmond. Through the kindly offices of this said correspondent the Times is favored with a news item in its Sunday issue under the head of "Special," which is four days old.

Miss Clothier Yesterday.

The Court House was filled to its utmost capacity yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, to hear Miss Clothier deliver a lecture on the subject of Temperance.

Devotional exercises were held at the beginning, being conducted by Mrs. Lucy Robertson, who read a passage of scripture. Prayer was offered by Mr. C. H. Ireland, after which Mrs. Robertson introduced the speaker of the occasion, Miss Clothier. The lecture lasted about one hour and twenty minutes, and was pronounced by all who heard it as an able effort, and worthy of high commendation.

At the close of the lecture a collection was taken, when the Doxology was sung and Benediction pronounced by Rev. Mr. Cook.

The Extension Question.

At a meeting of the city Commissioners Friday night it was ordered that an election on extension be held at the Mayor's office, on Monday, April 6th, whereupon the following were appointed:

For inside—Register, James R. Pearce; poll holders, J. B. Bailey, George Donnell, John Donnell, J. M. Wolfe.

For Outside—Register, M. G. Newell; poll holders, J. K. Wharton, G. H. Gregory, W. R. Andrews, John Y. Smith.

The registration of votes and holding of election to be at Newell & Tucker's store. The action in regard to the outside voting was simply recommendatory to the Sheriff.

ABOUT FOLKS YOU KNOW.

Personal Notes of Interest Caught on the Fly.

Rev. Jas. R. Jones has been in the city today.

Mr. John N. Wilson went to Asheboro this morning.

Prof. O. W. Carr returned from Trinity College this morning.

Mr. Ad. Leach, passed through to Thomasville this morning.

We are sorry to learn of the illness of our townsman, Mr. M. T. Hughes.

Mr. S. S. Wiley, of Jamestown gave THE WORKMAN a pleasant call today.

We are glad to learn that Capt. Dick Smith, who has been quite sick, is improving.

Capt. N. L. Hall, after spending Sunday with his family here, went down the C. F. & Y. V. to Hasty this morning.

Miss Corrie Thomas, who has been visiting Mr. W. B. Beachum, returned to her home in Salisbury this morning, carrying the heart of at least one young man with her.

Mr. Joe Stone who went to Raleigh Saturday, returned last night, and judging from the smile which plays on his face from ear to ear this morning, she answered him "yes."

Mr. John Drake, who is well known here as the "Liniment man," returned yesterday from Texas, saying North Carolina, (and Greensboro in particular) was good enough for him.

A Bloody Affray.

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 14.—Three men lost their lives in a bloody quarrel near Maxsy Thursday evening. Henry Smith, a young planter, had among his employees a negro named Boyd Hatton, who he had discharged. While Hatton was preparing to leave Thursday night Smith went down to his cabin to settle with him. Hatton met his approach with a discharge from a shot gun. Smith drew a revolver and shot Hatton in the shoulder. The appearance of Bill Hatton to help his brother made it two to one. The next shot from Smith struck Bill in the heart and the next after then struck Boyd in the abdomen. Smith then fell in a swoon from his own wounds. Boyd Hatton crawled over to where Smith lay, took his revolver and killed him. He died soon after from his own wounds.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRE.

PLYMOUTH, March 14.—The Hamburg American steamer, Suevia, disabled sixty miles off Lizard, arrived here safely at 7:40 this morning. She left New York February 25th for Hamburg.

CHICAGO, March 14.—The burning of the wholesale drug house of Hamiston, Keeling & Co., 143 and 145 Lake street, greatly endangered the Sherman House and damaged Hody's Theatre. The hotel guests were greatly alarmed. Loss $100,000.

NEWVILLE, Tenn., March 14.—The Central Insane asylum, seven miles from here, was destroyed by fire last night, and six inmates burned to death. The unfortunates were in the west wing. Their names are: J. S. Johns of Rutherford county, J. Burt Dexter of Wilson, Blue Preston of Cannon, John Kelly of Wayne, W. H. Beatty of Hickman, and B. F. Hollowell of Davidson.
