

GREENSBORO DAILY WORKMAN.

Vol. VIII.—No. 213.

GREENSBORO, N. C., FRIDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 27, 1891.

Price $3.00 Per Year

Stranger. Can you tell me where I'll find the Shoe Store?
 Citizen. There is no exclusive Shoe Store here.
 Stranger. What, no Shoe Store in a town of this size?
 Citizen. Well, we don't need a shoe store so badly as you might suppose. Brown keeps—
 Stranger. Who's Brown?
 Citizen. I mean S. S. Brown & Co., the One Price Cash People. They keep a larger stock of shoes than you will find in most of the exclusive shoe stores, and sell them cheaper than an exclusive shoe store could afford to. If you are hunting for shoes, Brown's, 232 and 234 South Elm street, is the place you want to find.

We've got the best $2.00 and $2.50 Men's Shoes you can find anywhere and we want to call your attention to our THREE DOLLAR LINE, five different styles, in Congress and Lace, Plain and Cap Toe, Broad and Narrow Lasts. If you like finer goods, see our $3.00, $5.00 and $6.00 Shoes, elegant, comfortable, fit like a glove and wearing qualities guaranteed.
 Our stock of Infants and Childrens Shoes, Boys and Girls School Shoes, and Ladies' and Misses' Fine Shoes is full and complete.
 Our Ladies' Dongola Kid Button Shoes at $1.60, $2.50 and $3.50 are very desirable and excellent values.
 Have you ever tried our famous Salem Seamless Half Hose? They are the best in the world for the price, ten cents, wearing fully equal to goods that cost you twenty-five.

Yours truly,
SAMPLE S. BROWN & Co.

A DAY'S EVENTS.

WHAT OUR REPORTERS SEE AND HEAR

And What Other People Tell Them—News Briefly Noted, Personal Notes &c.

This is Good Friday.
 Weather indications: For North Carolina, generally fair, cooler.
 The directors of the North Carolina Steele and Iron Company will meet tomorrow night.
 Mr. T. F. Causey reports his family, who are in Raleigh still, as getting better of the measles.
 Messrs. J. W. Scott & Co. have a change in their column advertisement today. Don't fail to read it.

Milton Cunningham is now engaged in Mrs. Howard's Book store, in which we wish him abundant success.

The train which came in from the North this morning bore signs of having passed through a snow storm.

A WORKMAN reporter called on Mr. W. R. Burgess today, and found him engaged in the delightful pastime of eating his dinner. He is evidently gaining ground. It is his purpose to visit Florida soon, the transfers on the way alone being a hindrance.

The Old Game.
 A WORKMAN reporter, in passing along Davie street this morning, saw a couple of boys playing marbles, cold and chilly though it was. The fact is, it is the only game at which a boy can get "fat."

The Wounded Man.
 Car-inspector Wheeler who was so seriously hurt yesterday morning as a consequence of jumping from the C. F. & Y. V. train while it was in motion, was reported to be better this morning, and it is hoped that his condition is not serious.

Jumping The Track.
 There is an unusual amount of jumping the track just now. Box cars, coaches, sleepers, engines and tenders show an increased tendency to jump, and now and then a man (not to say a woman) takes a notion to deviate. It's a jumping time, fellow citizens.

Denominational Courtesy.
 In noting yesterday the fact that the Methodist Protestants would hold service next Sabbath morning in Newell's hall, we omitted to state that the room is rented from the Episcopalians, and that the members of that church have shown their characteristic courtesy in the matter, which is highly appreciated.

Returned Home.
 The three gentlemen who went to Egypt yesterday on a visit of examination, are said to have been much pleased with what they saw. As a matter of course they would not come to any conclusion suddenly, as the matter which they have in hand involves the outlay of large cash capital. They returned home last night.

Heard Judge Dick's Address.
 Rev. Dr. Law, General Agent of the American Bible Society, came up from Fayetteville last evening, at which he attended the Sunday School Convention, and heard, among other things the splendid address of Judge Dick, who was elected President of the Convention.
 Dr. Law went to his home at Spartanburg, S. C. last night.

ABOUT FOLKS YOU KNOW.

Personal Notes of Interest Caught on the Fly.

Mr. Charlie Randleman was here this morning.
 Col. James E. Boyd returned from Asheboro this morning.
 Mr. J. R. Mendenhall returned from Fayetteville last evening.
 Mr. John M. Brower came in from Washington this morning.
 Mr. Allan Tomlinson went to Guilford College this morning.
 Mr. George Pell, of the State Chronicle, passed through this morning.

Mr. Hardy of the State Chronicle, was here today in the interest of the paper.

Mr. W. C. Bain was among the passengers on the east bound train this morning.

Miss Zell Allen, of Reidsville, is on a visit to the family of Capt. Marcellus Jordan, corner of Edgeworth and Gaston streets.

W. S. Barnes, of Wilson county, was yesterday elected the successor of Eugene C. Beddingfield as Secretary of the State Alliance.

Mr. Edgar Reed, of the United States army, who was wounded last November, passed through going to Washington City this morning.

Dr. Richardson of this city is quite sick of measles, and is having a full "set" of "it" and "them." We hope to hear that he is getting through.

The State S. S. Convention.
 From Mr. J. R. Mendenhall, who has just returned from the State Sunday School Convention at Fayetteville, we learn some facts about the Convention.

It was held in the Presbyterian church, and was largely attended. Much interest was shown, those who were present seeming to be enthusiastic over the prospects of the Sunday School work in North Carolina.

Funds to the amount of $2,000 were appropriated to push forward the work, and an organizer is to be put in the field.
 The speeches were pronounced better than usual on such occasions. Judge R. P. Dick, of this city, was elected President of the Convention.

Untimely.
 Our 4 fathers—and there were at least that many of them—built plank roads over the sand in Moore and Cumberland counties over forty years ago. They thought it was a grand idea, and it was, but if they had kept their plank until now they would have done a vast deal more good, especially in Cabarrus and Stanley, where the mud has been so deep, according to the papers, that a man's horse mired down over his back, and another horse was with difficulty kept from drowning in the middle of the road. What a waste it was to use the plank on the sand.

Quite True.
 Wooden—Oh what a beautiful sunset! I never saw such a magnificent sunset in all my life!
 Wagley—What nonsense! You never saw any other sun set.

If your boy is seven years old or anywhere from four to fourteen, you should call at Brown's One Price House and see the new lot of Boy's Knee Suits just opened. The styles offered at $2.50, $3.50 and $4.50 are specially desirable.

AN INTERESTING PROGRAM

Easter at West Market Street Church.

West Market street church with its accustomed enterprise, has made elaborate and extensive preparations for an Easter service. The organization consists of the following persons:

 C. H. Ireland, Miss Clara Albright, Miss Sallie Bresh, J. A. Odell, Miss Myra Alderman, Dr. H. M. Alford, Miss Sue Gregory, Miss Lucy Robertson.

ORCHESTRA.
 Organist—Miss Myra Alderman.
 Cornetists—A. H. Alderman and M. S. Sherwood.
 Violin—Chas. Brockman, 1st; W. S. Hill, and.
 Flute—S. L. Alderman.
 Director Infant Department—Mrs. Lucy H. Robertson.

The first part will consist of chorus, responsive reading, prayer, hymn, recitation, duet, responsive reading, Easter cross, chorus and Easter offering.
 Part second: Recitation, chorus, solo and chorus, responsive reading, solo, recitation, chorus, Doxology and Benediction.

We would be glad to give the programme in full, but it was not only received too late, but beside will be circulated in time in the complete shape given it at the job office.

The affair will be handsomely executed, no doubt.

A SENSATIONAL CASE.

Col. W. H. S. Burgwyn Has Two Men Arrested.

HENDERSON, N. C., March 26.—H. T. Jenkins, a former resident, and Dan Hill, private detective, both of Atlanta, Ga., were arrested here yesterday at the instance of Col. Wm. H. S. Burgwyn, president of the Bank of Henderson, charging them with false arrest of him upon a recent visit to Atlanta, and for circulating untrue and damaging reports reflecting upon his character, and calculated to injure his business. A hearing was held today before Clerk of the Court Peiry. The trouble grew out of a sum of money which Col. Burgwyn claims the Henderson Tobacco Company, of which Jenkins was a member, owed him. This Jenkins denies, and brings a counter charge against Burgwyn, alleging fraud and conspiracy, etc. Hill was in the employment of Jenkins working up the case. Able counsel were employed on both sides, the plaintiff being represented by W. R. Henry, A. C. Zollicoffer, W. H. Cheek and J. H. Bridgers, the defendants by T. T. Hicks of this place, and M. V. Lanier of Oxford. The case was continued, the defendants being held in a bond of $5,000 each, which they have failed to give at this time. Col. Burgwyn gave bond in the sum of $10,000 to answer damages.

Lively Times.
 From the Danville Register it would seem that there has been a lively debate between editor Bouldin of the Times and Rev. J. C. Rosser of the Floyd street Methodist church, on the subject of licensing saloons. The two men failed to agree.

Never broken.
 —Kabo. The "bones" in the Kabo corset are made of it—warranted for a year, too.
 It's a corset you can wear a few weeks, and then get your money back if it doesn't suit.

But it's pretty sure to suit—else it wouldn't be sold so.
