A DAY'S EVENTS.

WHAT OUR REPORTERS SEE AND HEAR

And What Other People Tell Them—News Briefly Noted, Personal Notes &c.

We call attention to the ad. which appears in another column of a valuable farm for sale.

Mr. Orren Smith died in Raleigh on yesterday of paralysis. He was stricken several weeks ago. He was a good and benevolent citizen.

Richard Wills, Jr., went this morning on a visit to his uncle, Rev. Jesse H. Page, at Statesville, and on his return will enter Oak Ridge Institute as a student.

Mr. Rufus Weaver will speak at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock. Mr. W. H. Jones will preside at the Piano. All men are cordially invited to attend.

Mess. C. P. and C. M. Vanstory who have been to Olin, Iredell county to attend the funeral of their father, who accidentally killed himself on Wednesday evening about 4 o'clock, have returned to their homes in this city. The funeral took place on yesterday and was attended by a vast concourse of people. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Juruey.

We received the following communication today and publish the same verbatim:

KILLED NOT DROWNED.
Aug. 1st 91.

Dear Sir:—While we know you are in favor of temperance we believe you are a friend to poor widows and orphans and that you do not approve of fanny-ticks defame the character of the dead. Such business ought to be stopped and some Good lawyer ought to have enough sole to take the case and help the widder to prosecute the fannytick Git money out of him if he is worth it if not Jale him. These fannyticks must be checked or they will soon be burnin witches and all that sort of blue law business.

Getting Ready for Durham.

We learn from a travelling man that he has been to a good many of the larger towns in the State and that nearly every one has a reel team which is practicing for the Tournament at Durham. There will be a large crowd at Durham and our boys will have to hustle to beat them all, but we believe they can do it.

Besides the prizes in money to be given the fastest reel team a silver trumpet will be given. The Globe wants the trumpet to stay in Durham, but we hope to see the trumpet placed in the Firemen's Hall in this city.

Secretary Noble Has Not Resigned.

It has been rumored and published abroad that Secretary Noble had resigned. Mr. Halford, the President's Private Secretary, says there is no truth in the report. Few resign these days.

Shirt Factory.

Mrs. N. E. Kirkman has added another to our already large list of diversified manufacturing establishments. This time a shirt factory which will no doubt in a short time rank with our leading manufactories.—High Point Enterprise.

ASTHMA

A Nut To Crack.

The WORKMAN understands that of the several Chinese who have been engaged in business in this city for a number of years, not one has been sick enough at any time to call in a doctor or to purchase any kind of drugs from the stores.

Now what can be the secret of this immunity from disease? It should be considered in the first place that these men are foreigners, and would require to be acclimated on coming into our community.

There are two things which an American would always insist upon as essential to health which perhaps are not found in connection with these foreigners. These are airy rooms and cleanliness. This being the case we must look elsewhere to find the secret of exemption from disease. Without being able to make a close scrutiny we venture to say that their good health is due to their diet. It is almost certain that the secret lies here. And if this be so, does it not prove that the cause of sickness is not climatic or malarial? Now if these foreigners do not contract sickness in our climate, our own people who are native to the soil need not be sick. Is not this conclusion logical? Now if a foreigner can come here and escape disease altogether, it not only shows that disease is not necessarily resultant from climatic causes, but that our own people would escape in the same way by living in the same manner as to diet.

We had occasion to remark some time ago on the contradiction of the prevailing hygienic theories in the city from disease or numbers of persons whose habits of living were in direct contravention of all the accepted principles of health—persons who ate with impunity the various species of fruits and melons, some of them in a green state and others in a state of decay, the subjects at the same time violating all the accepted laws as to ventilation and cleanliness. And the question is still open for debate. Now we have the question relating to the heathen Chinese, who come and beat us at our own game.

LYNCHBURG, Va., July 31.—L. H. Harris, of North Danville, Va., an engineer on the Richmond & Danville R. R., committed suicide here today by swallowing an ounce of laudanum. He was found about 5 o'clock this afternoon in an unconscious condition, lying under a railroad bridge just above the city. He was taken to the police station, where he died at 11 o'clock tonight. He left a memorandum, stating that "bad treatment on the part of his wife" caused the rash deed.

Sam Jones Rotten Eggod.

A special to the Atlanta Journal, dated the 30th, says that Rev. Sam Jones, the noted revivalist and lecturer, was rotten-egged in Houston, Texas, during one of his lectures. The lights were put out and a great number of eggs were thrown, many of which hit ladies. The lights were again lighted and Mr. Jones proceeded with his lecture, but seeing that the ladies were very much excited, he brought his lecture to a close.

It is said the trouble grew out of the fact that several months ago Sam Jones was in Houston and stired up the town, gambling houses were closed and the Sunday laws were enforced. This made the friends of these mad and the egging was the outcome. The people were very indignant and especially so on account of the fact that a great many ladies were struck
