WHAT OUR REPORTERS SEE AND HEAR

And What Other People Tell Them—News Briefly Noted, Personal Notes &c.

The Salisbury fire company passed through here last night on their way to Durham.

It looks as if the tournament at Durham will be a failure so far as the races are concerned if the rain continues.

Lieut. George McIver, who has been stationed in Denver, Colorado, has been assigned to duty as an instructor at the West Point Military Academy.

The Republicans of Ohio in the gubernatorial canvass will make the free coinage of silver the issue, while the Democrats propose to stick to tariff reform.

We learn with pleasure that there will be several nice dwellings erected on the property of the Steel and Iron Co. north of this city, in a short while. We are glad to hear of this prospective improvement.

A Splendid Offer.

The Charlotte Chronicle Publishing Co., at Charlotte, N. C., is offering to the person who will send them the largest number of cash subscribers to the Semi-Weekly Charlotte Chronicle before December 1st 1891, a splendid double barrel breach loading shot gun worth $25.00, and the person sending the next largest number a celebrated Cortland cart worth $25.00.

This is a liberal offer and made by the company to extend the circulation of its Semi-Weekly, an excellent family paper, full of the latest news from all over the country.

Sample copies with full particulars sent free on application to any address.

Off For Durham.

The Greensboro Steam Fire Engine Company, No. 1, the Hook and Ladder Company, the Reel Team, and the Juvenile Steam Fire Engine Company, went down to Durham last night, to be present at the tournament, which begins today. The boys left here in good spirits and hope they will be in as good humor when they return. That is, we hope they will win some of the prizes.

The Only and Original "Blind Tom."

Remember the opportunity for our people to hear him will be next Monday night, and no one can afford to miss it. His ability to imitate several musical instruments on the pianos is wonderful. His recent visit to other parts of this State and the crowded houses that greet him proves that he has not lost any of his old time ability for music.

Academy.

He was here last night returning from a visit to his father's family in Moore county. He went from here to West Point. Lieutenant McIver went from Greensboro to the Military Academy and his many friends here will be glad to know of the compliment paid him by making him one of the instructors at the Military Academy.

G. F. College.

About 35 young ladies have arrived to attend school at G. F. College and scholars are coming in by every train. The outlook now is that there will be the largest number in attendance in many years.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. ZELIA KENNETT, wife of Mr. William R. Kennett, and daughter of Mr. Leonard Fox and his wife Mary, was borne near Belmont Factory, Alamance county, in 1869, and died August 23rd, 1891, being in her 22nd year.

She embraced religion in 1885, and soon thereafter became a member of the Methodist Protestant Church at Fairview, which relation she sustained up to the time of her death.

Looking from the merely human standpoint, the circumstances of the death of this christian young woman are sad, and it is only when it is remembered that

"God moves in a mysterious way," do we learn the lesson of submission so important to be understood.

Deceased was married to Mr. W. R. Kennett on the 3rd day of June, 1891, and on the same day, the two went on a bridal visit to Asheville, and something like two weeks later ZELIA, the attractive and much loved young bride, was attacked with that direful disease, typhoid fever, with which nature and medical skill contended in vain for the space of two months. There was no time during the progress of the disease when it could be said that her symptoms were better, and gradually life wore away, until Sunday morning, 11:30 o'clock, August 23rd, the end came.

The deceased had a large number of relatives and friends, some far, some near, as to distance, all of whom showed in what esteem and love they held her. The funeral services, which were held at 3 o'clock, August 24th, were largely attended. They were held in Fairview church, within 200 yards of which the deceased came to her end, and the burial was in the cemetery connected with the church. Rev. J. L. Michaux, of Greensboro, pronounced the funeral discourse and officiated in the service at the grave.

Those who have the most cause for sorrow at the early and apparently untimely end of Zelia, should stay themselves on the promises of God and endeavor to accept the painful visitation as coming from a Father who pitieth His children and doth not willingly afflict or grieve them. "My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from Him."

State Firemen's Association.

The State Firemen's Association met in Durham on yesterday. Mr. Howard E. Heartt, the President of the Association, called the meeting to order and requested that Mr. Albert Kramer take the chair.

The address of welcome was delivered by Mr. C. B. Green.

Mr. Charles D. Benbow, of this city, responded to the address of welcome.

Mr. A. D. Jones, of Wake, made a speech on the passage of the bill by the last Legislature appropriating $2,000 for disabled firemen.

The following towns and cities were represented by delegates: Goldsboro, Greensboro, New Bern, Tarboro, Winston, Salem, Asheville, Raleigh, Monroe, Reidsville, Salisbury and Elizabeth City.

The following are the delegates from Greensboro: S. G. Hodgins, J. J. Stone, C. D. Benbow and J. G. Fowler.

ABOUT FOLKS YOU KNOW.

Rev. H. L. Hines, of Elon College, was here today.

Mr. John J. Blair, Superintendent of the Winston Graded Schools, was here last night.

Miss Mabel Hill returned last night, after a pleasant visit to several friends in Danville, Va.

The condition of Gov. A. M. Scales remains the same and we regret that there is no improvement.

Mr. Phenix, of Winston, who represents the Manufacturer's Record in that city, was here last night.

Mr. H. J. Elam went down to Durham last night to look after the Juvenile Fire Co. of this place.

Attempted Arson.

Last night about 11:30 o'clock, a most diabolical attempt was made to burn the house in which Mr. Harry Poezolt resides, on Greene Street.

As Mr. James Donnell was leaving the house of Mr. W. A. Farris last night, where he had been calling, he discovered a light under Mr. Poezolt's house. He immediately went to the house and found that the house had been set on fire. He crawled under the house and brought out the burning substance, which proved to be a tin lard bucket filled with kerosene oil and soft coal.

Whoever arranged the fuel intended that the work should be done well.

The bucket containing the oil and coal had been placed on another bucket in order that it might be nearer to the floor of the house and were certain to accomplish the object of burning the house and its contents. All of the Poezolt's are away from home, having gone to Baltimore several nights ago. No damage was done owing to the very fortunate discovery of Mr. Donnell and his courageous act in going under the house after the burning substance. It is hard to realize the fact that a person would be so devoid of character and with such diabolical instincts as to burn up a house, but such people exist. The house belonged to Mr. David P. Foust, of this county.

Willie Carter, a colored boy about 8 years old, was drowned yesterday morning in Welch's creek, a few hundred yards from where it flows into the Cape Fear river, at Navassa Guano Factory. The unfortunate boy, together with several other colored boys, was bathing about 10 o'clock and got beyond his depth, and being unable to swim, cried out for help. The other boys became frightened and ran up the hill to the factory giving the alarm, but before help arrived the boy had sunk out of sight.—Wilmington Messenger.

J. H. Ford, a former citizen of Danville, died suddenly last night at Franklin Junction, his home. For the past three years he has been in Reidsville, N. C., where his family now reside. The remains were brought to Danville last night, and will be buried to morrow afternoon with Masonic orders by Dove Commandery, Knights Templar, of which the deceased had long been a member.

MONTPELIER, Vt., Aug. 25.—Gov. Page has written Secretary of War Proctor notifying him that it becomes the Governor's duty on November 14 to appoint a successor to Senator Edmunds he will appoint Proctor.
