Death of Mrs. Ruffin Williams.

Died at 2 o'clock yesterday evening at the residence of her husband, Mr. J. Ruffin Williams, Mrs. A. E. Williams, aged about 70 years.

Mrs. Williams was the oldest daughter of the late Benjamin B. Smith, Esq., once a prominent merchant of this city.

She had been confined to her room as an invalid for three or four years. She was a most estimable lady and most patient sufferer. She leaves a husband, two sons and a daughter to mourn an irreparable loss.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock at Edenton street M. E. Church.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Old Nursery Favorites.

There was Tom, the son of the piper, Jack Sprat, and Merry King Cole, the Three Wise Men of Gotham, Who went to sea in a bowl; The woman who rode on a broomstick, and swept the cobwebbed sky, and the boy who sat in the corner, eating his Christmas pie.

These were some of the old favorites, but they have been supplanted by the "Pansy" and "Chatterbox" stories, "Little Lord Fauntleroy," and "Five Little Peppers." The old-fashioned pills and physics have been superseded, and wisely, too, by Pierce's Purgative Pellets, a mild, pleasant and effective cathartic. They are pleasant to take—so gentle in their action that the most delicate child can take them, yet so effective that they will cure the most obstinate cases of constipation, stomach, liver and bowel troubles. They should be in every nursery. As a cathartic, only one or a dose.

U. S. Marshal Walker, with a posse of 40 selected detectives, from Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, left Mobile yesterday by special train for Burks, Tenn., on the Mobile & Ohio Railroad. They go for the purpose of raiding stills and breaking up Sim's gang.

The Poisoning Case.

Mr. and Mrs. John Deaton, who ate a poisoned breakfast yesterday morning, are out of danger, but still very sick. The developments made since the report in yesterday's News are such that it appears quite wonderful that Mr. and Mrs. Deaton were not fatally poisoned, for poison was plentifully scattered all about their house. The poison used was the arsenic and powdered glass known as "Rough on Rats." It had not only been thoroughly mixed in the biscuits which were served to Mr. and Mrs. Deaton at breakfast, but during the day, an examination showed that the poison had been put into almost everything eatable in the house. The vinegar cruets had been liberally dosed. The molasses had been so thoroughly doctored, that the poison could be detected with the naked eye. The butter was full of it, and the salt cellars were about two thirds salt and the balance poison.

Jane Davis, the negro woman charged with the deed, will be arraigned for trial Monday morning, as it is expected that Mr. and Mrs. Deaton will be able to appear in court at that time.—Charlotte News.
