CANVASSING OUGHT TO PAY.

From a remark in the News and Observer pronouncing the canvass of Judge Womack and others in Chatham county as admirable, it is suggested that the present conflict seems to afford the finest opportunities for effecting good. Never, perhaps, were the rank and file of the farmers of the country under greater delusion on some political points than they are now. Instance a paragraph in one of the People's party papers that Mr. Cleveland was in favor of the Force bill. Quite likely a number of farmers have seen that and nothing to contradict it. The same is true of other points about which the farmers have been utterly misinformed. One curious fact is the prejudice existing against Mr. Cleveland, which seems to have been industriously encouraged by certain designing men, when in point of fact he is the foremost candidate in the field as to his record in favor of the rank and file of laboring men and farmers.

What is needed in the campaign now is speeches conveying information to the people on the points about which such great ignorance prevails. The canvassing should be as general as possible.

Some people find it hard to resist temptation, and in consequence of the fine, pleasant weather we are having Winston sent down a large delegation of colored excursionists to Hillsboro, while a similar one went down to Liberty this morning, some of them having come up from Fayetteville last night for the purpose. It is understood that the colored friends are to lay a corner stone of some sort at Liberty today, provided the stone is not too hot to handle.

As Wesley Smith from this office is one of the company, there will be no lack of eloquence. We guarantee that he was the finest dressed man on the hill. He will be heard from later on.

It is learned from a gentleman who lives in Randleman that the woman who committed suicide had promised her former husband on his death bed that she would never marry again, so as to bring her first children under the control of a stepfather, and this promise prevailed on her mind and helped to produce the result.

Mr. Frank Thornton writes from Pittsburgh Pa., to his father, Mr. J. J. Thornton in this city, that on Sunday last in Pittsburgh the thermometer registered 102 degrees in the shade. This is tall for a place so far north of us, and in quite a mountainous section of the country at that.

Notice served on Eaves.

"We, the Republican voters of Mecklenburg," today dispatched by mail a formidable paper to John B. Eaves. The paper at the outset charges him with being in debt to them for the campaign expenses of Mecklenburg for 1888, and intimates more clearly that he must see to the paying up of arrears before they'll move a cog. Then the paper goes on to say that Eaves has no business acting as he is doing. "We will call a mass meeting," the signers to the paper say, "and nominate a full ticket on our own account. We know the needs of a Republican State ticket and we are going to have it. The closing paragraph was an intimation that if Eaves didn't like it he could be...

John Wilson carried his paper around and got his crowd to sign it. And it was duly mailed through Mr. Bradley's postoffice.—Char News.

A Town Attacked by Desperadoes.

Morelia, Texas, July 27.—A band of brigands, under the leadership of Cecilio Salino, made a raid on the town of Puerpero yesterday. While engaged in their work they were attacked by a detachment of the Eighth Federal regiment. A battle ensued, the bandits standing their ground. Four of the latter were killed, while one of the soldiers received a death wound. No captures were made. The same band made a raid on Puerpero a few days ago.

Broker Killed in His Office

Philadelphia, Pa., July 27.—Charles H. Page broker of the firm of E. T. Page & Co was shot by a customer named Robert Kenney, 65 years old, while sitting in his private office at 132 South Fourth street. Page died almost instantly and Kenney meanwhile blew out his own brains. The police have taken charge of the place. The men it is reported, had a difference over some stock transaction.

Pronounced Hopeless Yet SAVED.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote the following: "Was taken with a severe cold which settled on my lungs, congested and finally resulted in consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined that if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs, and colds. I gave it a trial and took in all eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am a well and hearty woman. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store regular size 50 cents and $1.

You've tried Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription have you and you're disappointed. The results are not immediate. And did you expect the disease of yours to disappear in a week? Put a pinch of time in every dose. You would not call milk poor because the cream does not rise in an hour? If there's no water in it the cream is sure to rise. If there's a possible cure, Dr. Pierce's Favorite prescription is sure to effect it if given a fair trial. You get the one dollar it costs you back again if it don't benefit or cure you. We wish we could give you the makers' confidence. They show it by giving the money back again, in all cases not benefited, and it'd surprise you to know how few dollars are needed to keep up the refund.

Flavoring Extracts of the finest qualities such as Dr. Price's, Davis and Miller's, Woodworth's etc, always on hand. We don't handle cheap or trashy extracts—our trade don't need 'em. J. W. Scott & Co.

SSS
CURES
POISON

Nature should be assisted to throw off impurities of the blood. Nothing does it so well, so promptly, or so safely as Swift's Specific.

LIFE HAD NO CHARMS.

For three years I was troubled with malarial poison, which caused my appetite to fail, and I was greatly reduced in flesh, and life lost all its charms. I tried mercurial and potash remedies, but to no effect. I could get no relief. I then decided to try SSS. A few bottles of this wonderful medicine made a complete and permanent cure, and I now enjoy better health than ever. J. A. Rice, Ottawa, Kan.

We carry the biggest line of dry goods ever shown and we are matching it by the biggest bid ever made for public favor. Careful purchasers soon find out which side their bread is buttered on and worn out devices are an old story to them. It is to careful purchasers that we are addressing ourselves now—to purchasers who know just what they are buying, who know what their money ought to bring them every time and who wisely wait for the chances which clearing out sales are sure to bring along in January. For such purchasers the opportunity has now arrived and here it is. We are selling our stock of dry goods and shoes at greatly reduced rates in order to reduce our stock for the Spring trade. G. The Greensboro Ice Co's WAGON,

WILL BE ON THE STREETS EVERY DAY,

Ready to supply all families and stores in Greensboro with such quantities of ICE as they may want from day to day. We can serve you with Ice Tickets from 5 pounds to 100 pounds, or we will deliver you so many pounds each day according to your instructions.

It is my rule and purpose to give my customers satisfaction in every way, and if this rule has been broken it was entirely unintentional. If any one has a complaint to make, I would be grateful if you would bring it to my attention so that I may correct the matter. I want to sell you the Ice and want your trade. I will assure you to spare no means to give all customers satisfaction. I am grateful to you for the trade you have already given me, and hope to merit a continuance of the same.

I have fresh made Ice at all times—it is as good as can be had from any source whatever. Give the Greensboro Ice Company your orders for daily supplies of Ice, and we will give them prompt attention.

The clever young man, Mr. John Cator, will have charge of Delivery Wagons, and all orders given him, will be appreciated.

Very respectfully,
