NOT WITH THEM.

W. R. LINDSAY TAKES NO PART IN THE OXFORD DISCUSSION.

The Oxford Day, reporting the joint debate at that place between the Congressional candidates has this to say:

"Mr. Williams and Settle were present, but Mr. Lindsay was conspicuous by his absence. Mr. Lindsay came to Oxford Saturday night, no doubt with the intention of keeping his appointment, but he had a conference with Dr. A. J. Dalby, county chairman of that party, that same night, and early the next morning he jumped the town. Evidently Dr. Dalby and Mr. Settle had come to an understanding, and the way the latter spoke it was plain to the culdest person that he was doing all in his power to assist the Third partyites.

Further proof of a deal was furnished when Dr. Lee, of Caswell, Third party district elector, arrived during the speaking and Dr. Dalby positively refused to let him take part in it. Dr. Lee protested and said that he came for that special purpose, but it availed him nothing. Dr. Dalby also told him he could not speak at Buchanan's.

CHOLERA PREVAILS

St. Petersburg, Sept. 29.—Thirty five new cases of cholera were reported yesterday, an increase of 17 compared with Tuesday's figures; seven deaths against two Tuesday.

Haver, Sept. 29.—In this city yesterday there were four new cases; two deaths reported. This is a decrease of one in deaths, compared with Tuesday.

London, Sept. 29.—The Vienna correspondent of the News says that the danger of the cholera epidemic in Galicia is over, providing proper precautions were taken to stave off the epidemic.

Wants to Settle Things New.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 29.—Four companies of the Sixteenth regiment, now at Homestead have been ordered home and will break camp shortly. It is reported this evening that Andrew Carnegie has written to several prominent men in Pittsburg, expressing a desire that the Homestead strike be settled as soon as possible. It is also heard from good authority that Mr. Carnegie is on his way to this country and that even now he may be in New York city.

This news seems to be reliable, his coming having for its sole object the settling of the difficulties with his workmen. Mr. Frick was seen today, but positively refused to be interviewed or to permit the reporter to ask any questions.

The officials of the Amalgamated Association know nothing of any communication from Mr. Carnegie, nor anything of his coming home. They were not surprised to hear that he desired a settlement.

Two Proportions.

The Star will obligate itself to give one column of advertising one year free of charge if Harrison is elected President, provided the person accepting the proposition will guarantee to pay double rates in case Cleveland is elected. Or, the Daily Star will be sent one year free if Harrison is elected, on condition that the person accepting the proposition will pay $12 if Cleveland is elected.—Wilmington Star.

THE MILLS TO SHUT DOWN.

CARNEGIE STEEL PLANT TO CLOSE UP VERY SOON.

Pittsburg, Sept. 29.—A well founded rumor is in circulation at Homestead today that the big plant of the Carnegie Steel Company will shut down in all of its departments this week.

The twenty three inch armor plate mill was indefinitely closed down today and the men paid off.

The officials for the company refuse to talk about the matter, and their evasive answers to questions make it appear that the report is true.

Slave Trade

According to advices received quite recently at Marseilles from Aden the slaves trade continues in Africa on a large scale. Owing to the demand for slaves and the high prices offered for them slave caravans are arriving on the East coast daily.

The caravans find no difficulty in travelling through Vitu. The slaves are embarked from points in the vicinity of Zeylah, Massowah, Djilaontil and Suakin, and occasionally Lzajiji. In exchange for the slaves the traders accept nothing but modern firearms and ammunition.

The mortality among the slaves while en route to the coast from the interior is 75 per cent. Raids on a still larger scale are expected during the winter in the region of the Congo State and the English German portion of Africa.

Cleveland Will Remain

Mr. Cleveland, it is announced, will not return to Buzzard's Bay from New York, except to bring his family back to the city, which he will do as soon as his house can be put in readiness to receive them. Mr. W. C. Whitney told a reporter of the United Press yesterday morning that he had received a letter from Mr. Cleveland to the effect that he would remain permanently when he came to New York. Mr. Cleveland will stay at the Victoria Hotel until his house is put in order.

Gen. Stevenson and Wife at Home.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Sept. 29.—Gen. Adlai Stevenson and wife returned home this morning from their sixteen days' tour throughout the South. Both are in excellent health. Stevenson said he had charming weather and large crowds. He had hearty receptions everywhere. The General brings home a hornets nest, rabbit foot and other souvenirs presented to him by enthusiastic Southerners. Upon arriving home he finds over 800 letters awaiting him. He speaks Saturday at Woodsdale, Ohio, home of Gov. Campbell, and will open his Illinois campaign at Elgin October 3rd.

A Marion county (Ia) physician is the possessor of a remarkable human monstrosity—that of a male child, sixteen inches long long and weighs 94 pounds and whose head is a perfect counterpart of the head of a gigantic serpent.

He who makes up his mind that the world owes him a living will find that he has a very bad debt to collect.

Over two million postal cards are necessary to meet the daily demand in this country.

SPEAKING OF YOU

Rev. J. B. Richardson, of High Point, was here this morning, also Dr. Reid, editor of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, Dr. John R. Brooks, P. E. of this district, and Dr. A. W. Linebery and Rev. Mr. Ashman of the Methodist Protestant church.

Mr. T. C. Williams, who once lived here, but is now of Raleigh, passed through here this morning.

Mr. Alf. Scales has returned to the city as a licensed practitioner of law, and bids fair, we trust, to become a worthy representative of his excellent father, Col. Janius I. Scales.

Mrs. W. S. Moore and Mrs. C. M. Vanstony have gone today on a brief visit to friends at High Point.

Mrs. Annie Hicks, of Raleigh, who with her three little children, has been on a visit of two weeks to her father and other relatives in this city, returned home on the east bound train this morning.

President Winston, of the State University, was here this morning, and looked exceedingly cheerful and happy—no doubt because his work at the University is so prosperous.

Mr. W. E. Benbow, who travels for the Tobacco house of J. L. King & Co., has returned to the city.

Col. John N. Staples has gone to Wilmington as an attorney in an important law case.

Dr. Wakefield returned to Winston this morning.

Mr. A. W. E. Capel, of Ramseur, arrived in the city last night, and remained until the departure of the train for home this p. m.

Mr. John Cooper, the young gentleman from Yokohama, Japan, of whom mention was made last week, arrived here last night, via San Francisco, with a letter of introduction from Rev. A. R. Morgan to the editor of this paper, and has been here today. Mr. Cooper, who has been under the instruction of our American Missionaries at Yokohama, comes over to avail himself of the advantages of Oak Ridge Institute, where he will no doubt be well cared for and carefully instructed.

Mr. Fletcher Cox, of Cedar Falls, who went up to the Catawba Fair at Newton some days ago was here today on his way home. He says the Fair was hardly as good as usual.

Prof. J. M. Weatherly and his two little boys were here today. The Prof. speaks in enthusiastic terms of the opening prospect of his school, which is more promising than ever.

Miss Kate Glenn is visiting the family of Gen. James D. Glenn.

The meetings at the Methodist Protestant Church continue nightly. The attendance last night was larger than usual, and a more than ordinary seriousness pervaded the audience. The pastor preached an earnest discourse, and prayers were offered by Messrs. Tom Hunter, R. H. Brooks and Rev. J. R. Jones. It was announced that several persons had professed a change of heart since the beginning of the services. The meetings will be continued.

Concord Standard: Cards, announcing the marriage of Miss Fannie Fisher and Mr. R. E. Ridenhour, have been issued. The ceremony will take place in St. James Lutheran church, at 6 p. m., on October 12.

SHOE MENDING.

J. S. EDWELL,
SYCAMORE STREET,
NEAR THE MARKET.

Makes and mends shoes in first rate style, and at prices lower than the same work is charged for elsewhere. This is plain talk, but if you try it, you will find it true. Economy is a great thing and a thing that can be practised in shoes as well as in anything else.
