Life and Character of Rev. W. F. Ohrum.

Rev. W. F. Ohrum, son of Mr. Columbus Ohrum and his wife Annie, was born at Finksburg, Md., September 5th, 1863, and at his death was aged 29 years, 2 months and 14 days. He was one of six children, four sons and two daughters.

After the ordinary primary training in the public schools of Finksburg our young brother spent two years between Western Maryland college and the Theological Seminary at Westminster, Md., after which he spent a year in study under his brother, Rev. S. C. Ohrum, at Delta, Penna., quitting a lucrative secular business to engage in the work of the ministry to which the Master had called him.

From May 13th 1891, until November 8th of the same year he filled the pastorate of Albemarle circuit, N. C. conference, which was his first charge, and when he first developed that wonderful magnetism which drew all hearts to him, his labors being crowned with the accessions of twenty five members to his charge and remarkable general prosperity on that field of work. On returning from Albemarle at the close of his engagement, he returned to his studies at Delta, from which place he was called to the pastorate of the young flock in this city, arriving here April 7th, 1892.

His affectionate earnestness of manner; his cheerful, childlike, unquestioning, realizing faith; his thorough and unreserved consecration of all his time and all his powers to his chosen work; his steady and unabating zeal for the glory of God and the salvation of souls; his unaffected catholicity of spirit, and his constant and tireless application to the cause of the Master—these traits of character won for him the respect, the esteem and the love on every hand which constituted his death a wide-spread calamity.

Possessing these traits, as the writer is assured that he did, one may readily account for the success which attended this lamented young brother from the time of his arrival at Greensboro until he had finished his career. The number of members in this little flock when he came, was 33, and at the time of his death the number was 75—all this in a short period of time. His pastoral visitations were on a scale of almost marvellous extent, in all directions, among all classes and to widely separated points. The language of all his cheerful, loving, self-consuming ministrations was:

"I delight to do thy will, O, God, yea, thy law is within my heart."

But though one might say in truth that the measure of public respect and honor shown to the memory of the deceased in the services of his funeral obsequies was full and complete in every particular, there will still be found many hearts who will testify of a sorrow yet unspoken and of a sense of loss yet unexpressed; and many more there be, who, peering into the "clouds and darkness which overspread the Throne," would fain find a solution of the inscrutable Providence which has taken the workman from his unfinished work. But turning from all these fruitless questionings, there is abundant comfort in the thought, God reigns, controls all events, never willingly afflicts, and makes no mistakes. And so let the survivors but emulate the example of the departed, and follow Christ as he did, that their portion may be like his in the bright world to which he has ascended.

Mule Thief.

David Scott, has just received the following telegram:

The right man has been found and is now in the lock up.

A Political Theft.

The Prohibition party is by all rights of priority the Third party.

The People's party while not officially calling themselves the Third party use every other means of asserting their right to the third place in the political arena.

Theirs is the third place.

You are No. 4 and nothing else. You are not the People's party, for the people are not with you. The worn out politician, No. 4.

Put Him In The Sausage Factory

We suggest that all the dogs killed in the city be turned over to the sausage makers.

At any rate don't leave them on the street and in back lots to breed pestilence and disease.

Dead Dog

A dead dog killed by the police is decaying on the back lot in 20 feet of South Elm st., close to Houston's & Bro's store. Whose duty is it to remove the carcass?

A Good Suggestion.

Would it not be well for the City Council to appoint two tax payers from each ward to inspect the condition of the ward they live and report to the city council.

Hon. Pendleton King has been in the city some days on a visit to his brothers, Messrs. J. L. & R. R. King. Mr. King is one of the best cultured and thoroughly informed gentlemen we know of, and it is a privilege to hear him talk. Mr. King, however, as is the case with all truly cultured gentlemen, does not parade his learning or dictate opinions to others, but is modest and deferential. Numbers of gentlemen of his acquaintance are always pleased to engage him in conversation, and would go miles to hear him talk for half an hour. THE WORKMAN congratulates the old State and old County on having given birth to a man so truly wise and able.
