Col. Paul B. Means, of Concord, came in this morning from a two weeks' visit to the North.

Miss Sallie Cherry, of Washington county, left on the east bound train this morning for her home, via Raleigh and Rocky Mount.

Rev. S. C. Ohrum left this morning for his home in Pennsylvania, carrying with him the warmest sympathies of all who formed his acquaintance.

Prof. Rayhill, who is a distinguished elocutionist will give a reading at G. F. College to-morrow, (Friday), night, for the benefit of the King's Daughters of the College. Admission 25 cents.

Miss Mary Paschal, of Reidville, who has frequently been a visitor in this city, was married at 8 o'clock this morning to Mr. Crews, of Walker town, and came in on the southbound train on the way to the home of the bridegroom at Walkertown. They were met with congratulations by Mrs. Paschal's friends here.

Rev. J. J. Renn, P. E. of the Salisbury district, came down this morning from a visit to Farmington, Davie county, where on yesterday he attended exercises on the occasion of the unveiling of a monument to Mrs. L. E. Stacey, deceased, wife of pastor Stacey, and a laborious worker in Sunday Schools. The monument was reared with contributions of the Sunday School of Farmington, and is perhaps the first instance in North Carolina where a monument was reared to the memory of a female worker.

The regular prayer meeting service at the Methodist Protestant church last night was substituted by special exercises having relation to the memory of the late pastor, Rev. W. F. Ohrum, who had prepared a sermon about the beginning of his last attack of sickness to be preached on the following Sabbath, and which was found among the papers of the deceased after his death. An examination of the manuscript of this sermon made it appear to be of peculiar adaption to the circumstances of the occasion last night, and its reading to the congregation was decided on as appropriate and this was done by the surviving brother of the deceased, Rev. S. C. Ohrum.

The New Borne Journal says Mrs. Lease, of Weaverite fame, has a rival in a negro woman who is canvassing in Jones county in advocacy of the Third party. She attires herself gaudily in baubles, tassels and blue sashes with white stars. She made a very long speech at Pollockville Saturday evening advising her hearers not to vote for either Cleveland or Harrison, but to vote for Weaver.

Reasons why you should Vote for Cleveland.

Since 1860 Cleveland is the only President that has ever recognized the South as a part of this nation.

Cleveland gave the South a place on the Supreme bench in the person of L. Q. C. Lamar.

Cleveland gave the South representation in the councils of the nation by placing two Southern men in his cabinet.

Cleveland offered Tariff reform whereby the farmers can reach a condition of ease and prosperity.

Cleveland's election secures three things:

First: It will be the death knell of the Force Bill.

Second: It will make Tariff reduction certain.

Third: It secures economy in the expenditures of the people's money.

Weaver's election is impossible, therefore every vote for Weaver is a vote for Harrison.

Every vote for Harrison is a vote for high protection.

Every vote for Harrison is a vote against every poor man's buying clothes as cheap as he ought.

Every vote for Harrison endorses what McKinley said about poor people, to wit—cheap and nasty go together.

Every vote for Weaver or Harrison is a vote for Force bill.

Every vote for Weaver or Harrison is a vote to allow people to plunder the treasury and rob the masses.—Smithville Herald.

All Honor to Alice Berlew.

The following account of the best race at the State Fair is taken from the State Chronicle:

The race was a mile heat, best 3 in 5 for a purse $300. Alice Berlew, Mr. Bank Holt's bay mare by Charlie G., a roan gelding owned by G. A. Barnes, of Fayetteville, Blondette, Mr. W. P. Bachelor, bay mare by Leland, dam Kentucky prince were the entries. These came to the post in the order named. Alice Berlew was the favorite among the spectators and won the race in three straight heats. Again this game and beautiful little mare has crowned herself with glory, and made her many friends happy by trotting the best three-heat race ever trotted over our fair ground track. Time 2:36, 2:33½ and 2:31.

Alice Berlew is a bright and chicky little bay mare that not only wins the races, but the hearts as well, of all who see her. She is owned by Mr. L. Banks Holt, Alamance Farm, Graham, N. C., and was sired by Charley B. record 2:25, sire 14 in 2:30 list and is out of Lady Cramer (also owned by Mr. Holt), she by Fremont, record 2:28, sire Jumuont, record 2:14½, and other fast trotters. Fremont by Belmont, sire Nutwood, 1:28½, that has nearly or quite 100 trotters in the 2:30 list.

Blondette came in second and Charlie G. third. In the third heat, as Alice Berlew dashed under the wire a length ahead of Blondette, the immense crowd in the grand stand went wild with cherring. Their favorite had won the race by hard work.

"Owl" brand and "Ajax" coffee, 23 cents pound, is considered by many of our customers to be superior to Aruckie's. Well, you pay your money and you take your choice. Fresh lot of all three kinds on hand now. J. W. Scott & Co.

WHAT THE EDITOR GETS

Read this clear through and see if the last sentence is not "gospel truth."

When a child is born into the world the physician is presented with and gets $10. The editor heralds the advent of the stranger and gets a cursing for making a mistake as to the sex and date of birth.

After a while the child becomes a man, the minister is called to perform the marriage ceremony and walks off with a $10 bill in his pocket for his trouble. The editor is again called upon to chronicle this event by drawing on his imagination to make the bride and groom the best and most respectable people in the country. His only pay is to be asked for a few extra copies of his paper to send to some absent friends.

In time the once baby, once happy groom, but now a man well advanced in years, is brought down to death. Again the physician is called in and makes his bill, the undertaker is present and officiates at the funeral, and in time wants $100 dollars for performing the last sad rites, while the editor is expected to complete the drama by holding up the deceased as a model gentleman, and one who at present is flying up the golden stairs. The probabilities are at the same time that the baby, the groom and the dead man have been so infernally stingy that he had stinted his wife and children and had never contributed one cent to the support of his local paper.

What does the editor get? He gets left.—North Wilkesboro News
