Short Items of Interest Jotted Down for Workman Readers.

Jno. Staples and Clem Manly will address the people Friday night.

Mrs. Anderson, who has been sick for some time, died this morning.

A number of people went to High Point this morning to hear the candidates.

Occasions of Greensboro next Monday. Every mother's son will turn out to hear him.

A telegram has just been received from J. L. King stating that the Democratic county candidates will speak in the court house next Friday. To this meeting the Republicans are invited.

Mr. C. H. Doughty has gone on a business visit to Danville. The WORKMAN reporter asked him particularly about taking down his sign, and awakened a very serious train of thought in his mind.

While the Alderman are rebuking Mr. Whittington for failing to do duty, basing that service on the satisfying of warrants, they ought also to urge the rest of the force to greater diligence. A word or two to those who stay at the depot would not be amiss.

It is generally supposed that every sane adult is able to take care of himself. That, in places of danger, he is to be the protector and guardian of the helpless and weak. Events, within the present week, have shown that this is not always the case. Men are absent-minded, and sometimes as helpless as children. It is for the protection of such persons as these that guards are appointed at depots. The duty of the force then is not simply to nab a man when he gets into trouble, but to keep him out of trouble and danger if possible.

They will Give Him a Rest

The City Fathers have decided that Mr. Whittington needs a rest. They are not disposed to make a man work when it is such a strain upon his physical, nervous and mental system. So he has been given an indefinite leave of absence. They have not yet made provisions for sending him to a winter resort, but will probably do so soon.

It is stated that Mrs. Cleveland keeps her own bonnets.

Barren St. Loken.

A special to the Winston Sentinel from Statesville, dated Nov. 1, says: While Senator Ransom was making an unusually bright speech here yesterday he was taken suddenly ill and physicians summoned. He suffered excruciatingly for an hour and a half. He was suffering from neuralgia of the heart brought on by his arduous campaign work of late. The doctors did any more active work for him and he has gone home to recuperate.

A Waste of Time

A few days ago the Raleigh correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch interviewed Chairman Eaves, of the Republican State Committee, and asked him the direct question, "Will your State ticket be taken down?" "You can say as from me officially that our State ticket will not be taken down, and that we make the voting for Harrison and our State ticket equal tests of fealty to the party. That is straight. As to congressmen the Republicans are off the ticket in the First, Fourth and Sixth districts. I do not think they will go off in any other districts. I know they will not in the Seventh, Eighth and Ninth. Clark, Republican, in the Third, was here a day or so ago and intimated that he would stay in. Exum, Third party nominee for Governor, was here Friday and told me that he intends to stay in the field."

Mrs. Lease is Mad.

The following is taken from an interview with Mrs. Lease, published in the Chicago Inter-Ocean:

"Are you in favor of a pling a Force bill to the South?"

"I am in favor of abolishing the Force bill now used by intolerant Democrats, and applied to whites and blacks who differ from them politically. In other words, I believe the ballot should be for the voter, and not the voter for the ballot. Why, in many places in the South, men have been voting their dogs and mules for years. They give them names, have them registered, and then take them to the polls and cast votes in their names.

"The all important and living issue now before the American people is to wipe out forever the intolerant, vindictive, slave-making Democratic party that has ever been a protest against progress, and has become in its blind hatred a menace to good government and free institutions."

Mr. William Jones.

When Bill Jones was a-runnin'
For the legislatur—he
Was a-jokin' an' a funnin',
Jes' as social as could be!
He'd hitch his old mule at the gate
An' throw his slouch hat down,
An' sit up with you, soon an' late—
The best old chap in town!
He wore a pair o' muddy boots,
An' said his cash was slim;
An' also that these old jean suits
Was good enough for him.
They praised him up from dark to dawn—
Jes' like poor human natur;
An' then they took an' sent him on
To be a legislatur'!

But now! his name ain't Bill no more,
It puzzles a believer;
He's bought a slick suit at the store
An' got a towerin' beaver!
Done throwed the muddy boots away,
So folks has said that sawn him—
He's "Mr. William Jones" today—
The Lord hays mercy on him!

C. A. Thompson, Seymour Ind., writes: "My sister Jennie, when she was a young girl, suffered from a white swelling which greatly impaired her general health and made her blood very impure. In the spring she was not able to do anything and could scarcely get about. More than a year ago she took three bottles of Botanic Blood Balm, and now she is perfectly cured."

Pronounced Hopeless Yet SAVED.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote the following: "Was taken with a severe cold which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally resulted in consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined that if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs, and colds. I gave it a trial and took in a light bottle; it has cured me, and I thank God I am a well and hearty woman. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store regular size 50 cents and $1.

Good Looks

Good looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of all of the vital organs. If the liver be inactive, you have a bilious look. If your stomach be disordered you have a dyspeptic look, and if your kidneys be affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is a great alterative and tonic acts directly on the vital organs. Cures pimples, blotches, boils and gives a good complexion. Sold at C. E. Holton's drug store 50 cent per bottle.

SALESMAN WANTED.—Valuable commission offered $30.00 weekly earned by many of our agents. Samples free. P. O. Box 1371 New York.
