Short Items of Interest Jotted Down for Workman Readers.

Jno. Staples and Clem Maely will address the people Friday night.

Weatherly furnishes conveyance for those who can not or will not walk. The stockholders of the steel and iron works held a meeting last night.

Quite a lot of geese passed through Greensboro last night—feathered ones.

The number of warrants satisfied is not the only test of diligence in police service.

We submit that Cleveland could not do better than to adopt our cabinet in toto.

If Mr. Whittington gets a drunken man off the street and sends him home to his family, is that good cause for discharging him?

R. B. Glenn will speak to the Democrats of Greensboro next Monday. Every mother's son will turn out to hear him. At 1 o'clock is the time.

The policeman who keeps people out of mischief is better than the one who stands around waiting for trouble to begin and then make an arrest.

A telegram has just been received from J. L. King stating that the Democratic county candidates will speak in the court house next Friday. To this meeting the Republicans are invited.

Will Wynne won the first prize in the bicycle contest at Charleston yesterday, a gold medal, in competition with Hartford, Conn., Savannah and other riders. Hurray for the Tar Heel!

The unfortunate wives and children of those unfortunate men who sometimes get drunk, or get into trouble otherwise, will appreciate the kindness of Mr. Whittington in getting them home without subjecting them to the disgrace of arrest and imprisonment.

The WORKMAN reporter saw Rufus Amis on the north bound train last night and sought to while away the time by putting a few questions to the gentleman whose congressional thirst has been quenched by the allurements of the office of Secretary of State. Mr. Amis was winging his way to "Blue Wing" in Granville county, where he will await the orders of his commander-in-chief, Eaves. His last regular appointment was at Linton last Tuesday.

We'd Mr. Whittington an inj. s. tice yesterday.

He may not have satisfied as many warrants as the others, but he certainly fills our idea of a policeman in some respects.

We said yesterday that it was the duty of a policeman not simply to nab a man when he got into trouble, but to keep him out of trouble and danger if possible.

That's our position. And that is what Mr. Whittington has done. Having found out the facts, we gladly give him credit for doing his duty.

Mr. Whittington has not been treated fairly. He has been made the object of personal prejudice and hatred. There was not sufficient evidence of failure to do duty to warrant a dismissal.

Mr. Whittington does not want the position—would not have it. But he ought not to have been kicked out without cause. He ought to have been allowed to resign.

The Board of Aldermen, owe it as a duty to themselves and to Mr. Whittington to reinstate him and allow him to resign.

Met at the M. E. Church, Summerfield, yesterday evening at 6 o'clock, by Rev. T. J. Ogburn. Miss Fanaie Brittain, of Summerfield, to Mr. Emmett Kirkpatrick.

The waiters were—Charles F. Neely, Pleasant Garden, with Miss Mattie Ogburn, of Monroe; Webster Ogburn, Summerfield, with Miss Alma Hoskins, same place; Charles Kirkman, Greensboro, with Miss Cora Donnell, of Oak Ridge; E. M. Wilcox, University of North Carolina, with Miss Maggie Kirkpatrick, of Greensboro; best man, David Kirkpatrick, brother of groom. Maid of honor, Miss Mary Ballinger, Greensboro.

The wedding march was played by Miss Gannon, of Greensboro.

The bride and groom, with their attendants, came to the city last night and a reception was held at the residence of Mr. D. N. Kirkpatrick, which the young people greatly enjoyed. THE WORKMAN congratulates the happy party.

A dispatch from Indianapolis says Attorney General W. H. E. Warner will retire from the cabinet soon after the election whether Mr. Harrison is elected or not. He has formed a law partnership in that city, his former home and will move back there about the first of January.

THE CABINET.

Grover Cleveland has already been much questioned as to the make up of his Cabinet. We submit the following:

Secretary of State—Robt. Murray.
Secretary of War, Geo. Fitzsimmons.
Secretary of the Treasury, C. D. Benbow.

Secretary of the Interior, Jno. M. Wilson.
Attorney General, A. M. Scales, jr.
Postmaster General, G. W. Pritchett.
Secretary of Agriculture, Dr. Jno. Farris.

Secretary of the Navy, E. W. Tate.
These honors could not be more worthily bestowed. These gentlemen will fill their respective offices with satisfaction to themselves if not to the public.

A CORRECTION.

Under the head of news items yesterday we stated, on the authority of the Charlotte Observer that Judge Dick had appointed 100 supervisors for Mecklenburg county. Judge Dick, supervisor Trogdon, informs us that this is a mistake; that no supervisors have been appointed, and that none will be, that the time for making application is out.

C. A. Thompson, Seymour Ind., writes: "My sister Jennie, when she was a young girl, suffered from a white swelling which greatly impaired her general health and made her blood very impure. In the spring she was not able to do anything and could scarcely get about. More than a year ago she took three bottles of Botanic Blood Balm, and now she is perfectly cured."

Pronounced Hopeless Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote the following: "Was taken with a severe cold which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally resulted in consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined that if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs, and colds. I gave it a trial and took in a 1 eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am a well and hearty woman. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store regular size 50 cents and $1.

Good Looks.

Good looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of all of the vital organs. If the liver be inactive, you have a bilious look. If your stomach be disordered you have a dyspeptic look, and if your kidneys be affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is a great alterative and tonic sets directly on the vital organs. Cures pimples, blotches, boils and gives a good complexion. Sold at C. E. Holton's drug store 50 cent per bottle.

SALESMAN WANTED.—Valuable commission offered $20.00 weekly earned by many of our agents. Samples free. P. O. Box 1871 New York.
