LOCAL WHIFFS.

Short Items of Interest Jotted Down for Workman Readers.
Next Tuesday is the time. After that we will all take a rest. The side walk on the south side of East Sycamore street is being paved with brick.

The party will have to talk about something else besides politics, after Tuesday. Sample Brown has a new ad in today's paper. Read it, then go and see the suits.

Lee Overman predicts that North Carolina will go democratic by between 15 or 20 thousand majority.

R. A. Cobb is to come off the Third party ticket and the populists are to vote for J. M. Woody the Republican nominee.

Mr. W. J. Ridge, who has been travelling quite extensively in the State, says that the prospects for the Democrats are good.

Thanksgiving Day is approaching and the turkey gobbler is enjoying himself as best he may. He will soon gobble his last gobble and then he himself will be gobbled.

Mr. Dorsey Jones, a popular Winston Warehouse man, stopped here this morning on his way to Danville. Mr. Jones is making a cross country trip of it. With the two fine horses he is driving it is very pleasant. He will stop at Heidsville tonight.

Will you take this bet? A drummer offered to make the following bet yesterday: "I will bet you twenty dollars that I can name 38 States that will go democratic. Then I will bet you forty dollars that I can name six others that will go democratic."

A reporter stopped in at Callums Drug Store yesterday, and was surprised to see what an extensive wholesale business they were doing.

This is an especially dull season, but they have four men on the road and one selling goods all over the country. Trade will "pick up" considerably after the election.

At the family residence of Chief Justice Merrimon yesterday, the Chief Justice and his youngest daughter, Miss Maud, were received into the membership of Edenton Street Methodist Church of this city. All his life Judge Merrimon's moral character has been of the highest type but he had never formally connected himself with any church, though he has been a regular attendant upon and liberal supporter of the Methodist Church for years.—News and Observer.

The Republican candidates failed to exhibit themselves today.

Capt. Snow says he has had enough. There is as much manhood and virtue among our Southern people as any Vermont Yankee ever dared to have.—Senator King.

J. W. Scott & Co. are shipping supplies to places you would never dream of as patrons of any Greensboro house.

Jno. Staples and Clem Manly will speak in the court house tonight. The members of workmens club will turn out in full force to hear him.

Conspiracy is the charge against Mr. Scott. The trial will come off tomorrow morning. THE WORKMAN will keep its readers posted. The evidence will be given to the public.

The Star Chamber Board of Aldermen do not voice to sentiment of the good people of Greensboro. Secret trials, prejudice, personal grievances. These things disgust sensible men.

The annual entertainment of the Websterian Literary Society will be held at Guilford College on Saturday evening, Nov. 5th, at 7:30 o'clock. An interesting program has been prepared and all are invited to be present.

One of the most attractive turn outs to be seen on South Elm Street, on bright sun shiny days, is the little black pony and yellow cart, driven by Miss Causey. Miss Causey is a fearless driver and many heads turn to watch the cart and the fair driver.

There are few men who will not turn to see a good dog fight. Mr. Shed Hill's dog had a "set to" with a large black setter this morning. Mr. Hill's dog rolled the black one over in the dirt and left him. That's what the Democrats are going to do to the Republican and Third parties.

There is a Third party farmer in one of the counties of this State, who has two sons that are really capable men and are candidates for the Legislature. This man refuses to speak to one of his sons when the latter visits him, and all because, the father has been crazed by the Third party doctrines. It's a hard case.

REDUCED RAILROAD RATES.

The Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad will sell round trip tickets Nov. 13th to 19th, inclusive, good returning until and including Nov. 21st, 1892, to Fayetteville, N. C., on account of the Cumberland Fair, at the following low rates, which includes one admission to the fair grounds: Madison, $3.10; Germantown, $3.30; Pilot Mountain, $3.70; Mt. Airy, $3.90; Greensboro, $2.50; Walnut Cove, $3.10; Rural Hall, $3.10.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Jas. D. McIver, of Carthage is in the city today.

Robt. Galloway is shaking hands with his friends in town today.

Mr. T. A. Lyon is at home, after a trip through the southern states.

Hon. John A. Webster went down on the Raleigh train this morning.

Jas. E. Boyd, after making a force bill speech in Raleigh, is back in the city.

Mrs. G. H. Royster returned last night from a visit to relatives in Richmond.

Col. Staples went to Pleasant Garden today to make a speech, and will also speak in the courthouse tonight.

We are glad to see that Mr. J. S. Jones is back in the city. We will need him to protect us from the angry mob next Tuesday. His office is in front of ours.

The Vestibule Will Run Through to New York.

In a short while a big change in the running of the Richmond & Danville vestibule train will take place. The vestibule as it now is, runs only from Atlanta to Washington, with a New York sleeper attached that goes through, but this is to be done away with, and a solid train is to run from Atlanta to New York. Washington will, when this change takes place, only be a 20-minute stopping point for breakfast. This will put passengers in New York shortly after 11 o'clock, making a difference of about 3 to 4 hours. The change will take place about the 13th of this month.

The Handkerchief in Public.

It was not until the reign of the Empress Josephine in France that the pocket handkerchief was tolerated at all as an article for public use. No lady would have dared use one in the presence of others. Even the name was avoided in polite conversation. An actor who would have ventured to use one on the stage would have been hissed off the boards. It was only in the beginning of the present century that Mile. Duchesnois, a famous actress, dared to appear with a handkerchief in her hand. Having to speak of it in the course of the play she could only summon courage to refer to it as a "light tissue."

A translation of one of Shakespeare's plays by Alfred de Vigny was acted, and the word was used for the first time on the stage, and provoked a storm of indignant hisses from all parts of the house.

The Empress Josephine, although really a beautiful woman, had very bad teeth, and to conceal them she was in the habit of carrying small handkerchiefs, trimmed in costly laces, which she raised gracefully to her lips to conceal her teeth. The ladies of the court followed her example, and handkerchiefs rapidly became an important part of the feminine toilet.—New York Herald.

News-Observer. The Democratic tiger in New York city bids fair to be a very lively animal this year and an immense one, too; and the Democratic tiger in North Carolina is now lashing his tail ready for the fray. He will lick his chops next week after having made a hearty meal of Exum and Furches, and Shafer, too, with his Supervisors who, notwithstanding they have no power to speak of, claim to supervise our people.

C. A. Thompson, Seymour Ind., writes: "My sister Jennie, when she was a young girl, suffered from a white swelling which greatly impaired her general health and made her blood very impure. In the spring she was not able to do anything and could scarcely get about. More than a year ago she took three bottles of Botanic Blood Balm, and now she is perfectly cured."

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N.Y.

Pronounced Hopeless Yet SAVED.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote the following: "Was taken with a severe cold which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally resulted in consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined that if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs, and colds. I gave it a trial and took in all eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am a well and hearty woman. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store regular size 50 cents and $1."

Good Looks.

Good looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of all of the vital organs. If the liver be inactive, you have a bilious look. If your stomach be disordered you have a dyspeptic look, and if your kidneys be affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is a great alterative and tonic acts directly on the vital organs. Cures pimples, blotches, boils and gives a good complexion. Sold at C. E. Holton's drug store 50 cent per bottle.
