LOCAL WHIFFS.

There was quite a pleasant informal reception at the Y. M. C. A. rooms last night.

Smith's Boston Art Gallery "lumbered off" about ten o'clock this morning.

Gov. Holt has issued his proclamation appointing the 24th of November as a day of thanksgiving.

The Greensboro Steam Laundry not only claims to do, but actually does, the best work of any laundry in the South.

Mr. Will Carr went to Durham this morning to witness the football contest between the University and Trinity teams.

Rev. Egbert Smith will preach before the students of the University at the invitation of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The third anniversary of the Y. M. C. A. will be observed Monday afternoon November 20 at 4 o'clock. This will be a public service.

At the men's meeting tomorrow afternoon Rev. F. S. Stickney will speak. Meeting will be held in Association parlor, and will begin promptly at 4 o'clock.

The Republicans may have something to rejoice over yet. If Settle really is elected they will get out of the dumps and sloughs of despond into which they have fallen.

The great match game of football between the University boys and Trinity College boys is being played to-day. Both teams are in fine condition, and both have reputation to sustain.

Mr. Will Forbes, assignee, will not be able to make any definite statement of the liabilities and assets of Mr. Pigford's furniture business until next week. The store will be opened Monday.

Postmaster S. M. Teats committed suicide Thursday in the postoffice at Hope, Kansas, by shooting himself. He was financially embarrassed and the fear of losing his place under Democratic administration caused him to become despondent.

Settles, Williams, Wray and a telegraph pole were engaged in an earnest conversation as we passed by on the other side of the street. He may be elected or he may not be, but he, evidently, don't regard it as a dead sure thing as yet.

A WORKMAN reporter talked with two prominent prohibitionists here today, both of whom declared their confidence in Cleveland and their satisfaction at his election. They would have felt better if they had helped to elect him. But they can join in the procession and take part in the jollification, any how. Come on, boys, and lets make it unanimous and magnanimous and bandaneros.

Rev. Ralph Heath, a remarkable citizen of Muncie, Indiana, is in this city and county on a visit to relatives. He went today to visit the Gordons near Gethemine, near which place his parents lived prior to their emigration. Mr. Heath was born three months after his parents reached Indiana. Mr. Heath married a daughter of the youngest brother of Rev. John Po due, of Pleasant Garden, and intends to visit the old gentleman, who is now 95 years old, before he returns to Indiana.

Yesterday was an off day.

Judge Merrimon is reported much worse.

Accidents will happen in the best regulated families.

Governor Holt has issued a warrant for the execution of George Best, a negro sentenced for murder in the Superior court of Craven. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court which affirmed the judgment.

Miss Hattie Lanier daughter of Mr. Frank Lanier, who lives a short distance from the city on the northwest, died at 9 o'clock last night, from a long attack of fever. THE WORKMAN sympathizes with the afflicted family.

The Central Democratic club will meet at the Court House next Monday night to perfect plans in regard to a jollification next week; also to consider the advisability of chartering a special car and getting reduced rates to Cleveland's inauguration. Come out. Don't forget the time.

The morning after the election Senator Quay flopped into a chair in Republican headquarters at Philadelphia, and remarked, "This is awful." When asked by a reporter, "To what do you attribute the Republican defeat?" he tersely replied, "Lack of votes." He refused to say anything further.

INDIGNATION MEETING.

There will be a meeting of the citizens of Greensboro at the Court House this Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock, to give expression to their feelings at the insult offered to this community by Chief of Police F. R. Hall.

UNCERTAIN.

The contest between Williams and Settle is still undecided. Telegrams from Stokes to Raleigh say that Williams had a majority. Settle claims that he has a majority. It will take an official canvass to decide. But we can hardly be kept in doubt much longer.

A HANDSOME TURNOUT.

THE WORKMAN stopped in front of J. A. Harris & Co's harness store this morning to see Mr. Van Horn's new track buggy. It is a very stylish affair, and has just room enough for one. Mr. Van Horn will take it down to the Fayetteville fair and let those people see something of the Greensboro work.

NO TIME TO PRAY.

At one of the colored churches in Wilmington Thursday night one of the colored brothers was putting up an earnest petition, and in fact, was making a beautiful prayer, when all at once the Democratic cannon began to boom at Front and Market streets.

The praying brother stopped short in his prayer and exclaimed: "Oh, Lordy, I can't pray any longer. Amen!"

CLEVELAND CARRIES CHILL.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—A cablegram from Valparaiso to the Herald says there is great rejoicing in Chili over the election of Cleveland. Both here and at Santiago flags are flying from the residences of Americans and Chilians. Telegrams are being sent to American friends, expressing the hope that an American gentleman will be sent as next minister to Chili.

PURELY PERSONAL.

J. Turner Morehead, of Leaksville, is in the city.

Mr. J. W. Scott returned this morning from a trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morehead went this morning on a visit to Richmond, Va.

Rev. Mr. Edwards, agent at large for the Thomasville Orphan Asylum was here today.

Capt. J. E. Gilmer, of Winston, returned home this morning from a trip to Fayetteville.

Rev. W. A. Bunch went up to Pleasant Hill today, and will dedicate a new church there tomorrow.

Rev. E. W. Smith went to Chapel Hill today, and will tomorrow address the Y. M. C. A. of the University.

Rev. Dr. T. T. Ferree went to Orange county today to assist Rev. W. F. Kennett in a protracted meeting at Chestnut Ridge.

Mr. Banks, of the Winston Sentinel, went to Durham this morning, as a reporter of the football contest, which happens there today.

Miss Sallie Cbeck and her little niece Nellie Eaton, went to Mebane today, and will spend some weeks at the old home in Orange county.

Mr. W. A. Erwin, of Burlington, was in town this morning. Mr. Erwin is the General Manager of the Erwin cotton mills of Durham. He will move to Durham in a few weeks.

THOMAS TALKS.

Thos. Settle says that he is certainly elected. "I 'gad," I have the certified returns from every county in the district but one, and I will have a majority of 500 at the very least. They tried to count men out in Stokes but they could not do it. On the returning board there were two Republicans and nine Democrats; eight of these Democrats were honest and one was the most corrupt man I ever saw. His eight Democratic brothers voted against him every time.

The official return from Stokes is Williams 1,238, Settle 1,612. You may take off my Granville majority and I will still beat Williams by 275."

THE STREETS WILL HAVE TO BE WIDENED IF IT IS SO.

Thomas Settle is back from Stokes. He came in this morning, riding in his favorite position, that is on the platform of the passenger car. As the train rolled in he struck a most imposing attitude, put his cigar exactly in the centre of his beautiful lips and did his best to look the Congressman-elect.

In reply to a question as to how things had gone in Stokes, he said "I had the darndest time you ever heard of trying to make those Democrats be honest. I have not heard from all the precincts, but so far I have a majority of over 500."

If that is so, Williams is a "son-of-a-bitch."

A dispatch was received in New York yesterday evening from Chicago saying that there was a rumor in that city to the effect that Grover Cleveland had dropped dead at his residence 12 west 51st street. When a reporter reached the house and stated his errand to the attendant, the latter said: "Why, Mr. Cleveland was never better in his life and he is at present engaged with a caller." When the rumor was made known to Mr. Cleveland, he laughed and said he was a pretty lively corpse.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote the following: "Was taken with a severe cold which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally resulted in consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined that if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above."
