LOCAL WHIFFS.

The north sidewalk along Davie street is being paved with brick.

Mayor Vendenhall has done right in increasing the police force. The people will feel safe.

This is fine weather for horseback riding. All the saddle horses in the stables are in demand.

There are thirty-five horses in C. P. Vanstony's stables. They are a fine lot and are kept busy all the time.

We desire to inform the public that this is not a tin shop. We have had quite a lot of calls recently for tin. We will charge Mr. Yates a commission on every customer we send to the "lower regions."

Inquiry being made this morning at the east entrance of the court house for news, the inquirer was informed that there had been a final close of the news department on account of the oneness of the reports—Cleveland and all of his adherents having got everything and gone on.

EVIDENTLY THE WORK OF AN INCENDIARY.

There was another small fire in town last night. The question is, "was it the work of some infamous scoundrel or was it accidental?" The alarm was given for the fourth ward last night about three o'clock. The fire was soon found to be at Mrs. McCormick's. Mrs. McCormick is a widow lady. She lives on Ashboro street and supports herself and two children by keeping boarders. The fire was first discovered by one of the boarders, a Mr. Jones.

THE WORKMAN went down to Mrs. McCormick this morning in search of particulars. The fire originated in the basement under the south room which has been occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Raban. This morning there is a pile of charred pine wood under this room. The sleepers and flooring over this pile of wood are charred and probably burnt a third through.

THE WORKMAN talked with Mrs. McCormick about the fire. She is unable to account for it. She says that the basement was used as a storage place for Mrs. Raban's wood. The pile of pine wood had been in there about a month. The colored woman who stays about the house carries Mrs. Raban's wood. She carried it up last night about six o'clock. She knows of no one else being in the basement after that. The wood is saturated with oil, and would at first lead one to suppose that some one had set fire to the house. But the wood was brought from the old oil tank and was no doubt saturated with oil before it was put there. The end of the sill under the south room is charred too and looks as if oil had been poured on and a torch applied. The brick on the outside seemed streaked with oil and smoke. Now the question is would the smoke from wood, saturated with oil, streak the bricks and leave the trace of oil on them. It looks more as if oil was poured along the sill and a light applied to the south end.

A man at Dobbin, W. Va., ate a cooked rat in the presence of an opera house full of people Saturday night, in payment of an election bet. The contract called for the eating of a raw rat but the Democrat allowed the Republican to have it cooked.

SETTLE IS ELECTED.

Thos. Settle has been officially declared the Congressman elect from the Fifth District. The news was not a great surprise as it has been known for some time that if Williams was elected at all, it was by a small majority, and that he could only be seated by throwing out some of the Stokes county votes. The Democrats have made a hard fight, but Tommie has proved too much for them. There is no doubt about Settle's ability, and with a good Democratic majority to restrain his Republican proclivities, he will do very well. We could have wished it otherwise; but, since it is the will of the people, we submit as gracefully as we can.

Chief Police Weatherly's Opinion.

THE WORKMAN talked with Mr. Weatherly this morning about the fire last night. He was inclined to think it the result of an accident, possibly from fire which had fallen from some body's pipe. Knowing that Mr. Raban under whose room the fire occurred and was a constant pipe smoker and thinking that he might have been down there and dropped some fire accidentally from his pipe, THE WORKMAN and Mr. Weatherly went in search of Mr. Raban. They found him at the depot with the pipe in his mouth. They say he sleeps and pipes in his mouth. But Mr. Raban says that he did not go into the basement last night. So the fire must have originated some other way.

DAVIE STREET.

THE WORKMAN took a stroll through Davie street this morning. It is not a pretty place by any means, but there is quite a lot of business done on this street.

First, there is the market house, of course, where the beef is bought and sold. There you can find either mountain or prairie beef. The mountain beef is especially fine. It comes mostly from Wilkes county; is killed there and shipped here.

We noticed some fresh mountain cheese, weighing six pounds, which sells at twelve cents a pound. They are first class and sell rapidly.

Then there is John Phoenix, who does a general produce and commission business. The volume of business done in this unpretentious house is immense.

Marriage—What Blount Thinks Of It

When a couple enters this sweet and holy and blessed domain—this God given, Angel-tended, Heaven sheltered realm of the purest, highest, strongest and most ecstatic emotions of the human heart—yea when a couple enters the blessed sphere in which so many precious germs of promise are just ready to bud and bloom and blossom out into full expanded flower, of luxuriant beauty and richest things of loveliness—yea when they enter this higher sphere of existence their steps should be timed to the melody of heart beats, mingling together in a harmonious and magnificent rhythm, and they should march up to this hallowed God dedicated shrine of purest earthly rapture only through the bliss bordered isle of reciprocal love and devotion. Observe this rule and marriage will give to earth the rosiest and brightest and most beautiful colorings, and existence will be thrilled with the pulsings of the holiest and sweetest rapture. Amen.—Wilson Mirror.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Col. Julian S. Carr, of Durham, arrived here this morning.

Mr. J. J. Thornton received a dispatch from Raleigh this morning stating that the late Hon. D. W. Bain, Treasury of the State, will be buried by the Grand Lodge of Masons tomorrow at 3 o'clock, p. m. A delegation to attend from the Greensboro Lodge, will be chosen at a meeting tonight.

Col. W. F. Henderson, of Lexington, who ran for Congress in this district against Gen. A. M. Scales a number of years ago, and was defeated, was here this morning on his way to Winston. The Col. looks a little older than he did, but is still active. Our reporter was considerate of the feelings of Col. Henderson and did not thrust the subject of party politics on hand. The Col. says that he has but one bad habit, and that is chewing tobacco—Never says, "I'll bet."

ONE KIND OF VISION.

Some thirty years ago or more a man was elected as United States Senator from Vermont, and his colleague at Washington was asked by a brother Senator: "What kind of a man is this that has been elected?" His answer was: "He is a very sharp-sighted man. He can see a fly a mile off on a barn door, and not see the door." There are a good many who are sharp to see a small technicality and are blind to a large principle.—The Independent.

The new union station at St. Louis will cover thirty-two trains and cost $5,500,000.

Electric Bitters is a great alterative and tonic acts directly on the vital organs. Cures pimples, blotches, boils and gives a good complexion. Sold at C. E. Holton's drug store 50 cent per bottle.

Pronounced Hopeless Yet Saved

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote the following: "Was taken with a severe cold which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally resulted in consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined that if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above.

My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs, and colds. I gave it a trial and took in all eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am a well and hearty woman. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store regular size 50 cents and $1.
