It May Happen To You!

So Carry Insurance

You may be the most careful person in the world, but the other fellow's lack of care may throw you into an accident any day. Under such conditions, don't you believe it is wise to carry at least a small accident policy to cover the other fellow's carelessness?

MRS. SILER AND MRS. COIN ENTERTAIN.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Rufus Siler and Mrs. Robert Coin entertained informally at bridge, at the home of the latter. Three tables were arranged for playing. At the conclusion of several interesting progressions the hostess served an ice course. Among those enjoying the game were Mr. and Mrs. William Hannah, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Atkins, Miss Sara Thomas and Roy Campbell, and Mr. and Mrs. Richeson.

RETURN FROM HAYESVILLE.

Messrs. Felix E. Alley and C. S. Smathers returned from Hayesville, N. C., Thursday, where they appeared in the interest of Haywood county before Superior Court Judge Finley. The case was in regard to issuing bonds for needed road improvements. Mr. Smathers reported to the Mountaineer representatives that His Honor Judge Finley declared in open court that the Boyd act and the Gwyn act were unconstitutional.
