

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE OF LAND UNDER DEED OF TRUST.

North Carolina, Haywood County.

Whereas on the 16th day of March, 1925, the lands hereafter described were sold at public auction sale under and by virtue of a deed of trust hereafter set forth by the undersigned trustee at the Court House in Waynesville, where and when Rosa Burgess became the last and highest bidder;

AND WHEREAS, the said purchaser has failed to comply with the terms of said deed and said land has been ordered to be sold by C. A. Haynes, Clerk of the Superior Court, Haywood County.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power of sale contained in a deed of trust from Frank N. Noland to the undersigned trustee securing certain indebtedness therein described to J. N. Crawford, said deed of trust being dated the 1st day of July, 1921, and registered in Book No. 5 of deed of trust on Page 72; default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness secured by said deed of trust, whereby the power of sale has become operative, and default having been made on the undersigned trustee to sell the lands described in said deed of trust for the purpose of satisfying the indebtedness therein secured; I, T. A. Clark, trustee, will on Monday the 6th day of July, 1925, at the Court House door in Waynesville, N. C., at Eleven O'clock A. M., sell at public auction to the last and highest bidder for cash the following described lands and premises:

Being in Waynesville Township, Haywood County, N. C., adjoining the lands of Shaford Howell, Ella B. Atkins estate, lying North of the Mauney Cove road between the Atkins land and the Shepherd Howells (now Mrs. Turner) and beginning at the S. W. corner of what is known as a corner of lot No. 4; thence N. 35° W. 144 poles to a nine on top of ridge; thence S. 27° W. 58 poles to a cliff of rocks on top of ridge; thence S. 35° E. 104 poles to the middle of the Mauney Cove public road; thence meandering in an E. westerly direction with the Mauney Cove road 58 poles to the beginning containing 40 acres more or less. Being the same tract of land that John C. Noland bought from Mary O. Tate, and recorded in Book 45, Page 676, Records of Haywood County, N. C. Being the entire tract of land conveyed to Frank N. Noland by John C. Noland and wife Louisa Noland, in a deed dated Feb. 19, 1919, and registered March 5th, 1919 in Book 43, Page 68, Haywood County Records.

T. A. CLARK, Trustee.

NOTICE.

By virtue of the power contained in a deed of trust, executed to me by W. N. Gentry and wife, T. R. Gentry, registered in the office of Register of Deeds of Haywood County, book 19, page 212, and default having been made in payment of note secured by said deed of trust, I will sell at public auction for cash on the 6th day of July, 1925, at 10 o'clock A. M. at the court house door in Waynesville, a certain tract of land situated in Haywood County, N. C., and bounded as follows: Beginning on a spruce plantation at the mouth of Peachtree branch and run S. 12° W. 300 feet with the meanders of Peachtree branch to a bear; thence S. 70° W. nearly with the said and along a marked line 1926 feet to a stake, the division corner agreed to by E. A. Hyd and W. N. Gentry; thence a meadowly distance 275 feet to a stake at Jonathan's Fork; thence in the meanders of said creek 1026 feet to the beginning, containing five acres more or less.

The Jan. 25, 1925.
J. P. RUMLEY, Trustee.

Preserve Your Vegetables

A root cellar built of concrete will be free from rats and dampness—the two enemies the farmer meets when storing roots, vegetables and fruits during the winter.

Your building material dealer will tell you many ways in which Atlas Portland Cement may be utilized to great advantage around the home and on the farm.

Because of greater production through the development of the rotary kiln, ATLAS is cheaper today than thirty years ago.
