

SOCIETY AND PERSONAL
Phone 250-J

For Yesterday is but a dream
And Tomorrow is only a vision,
But Today,
Well lived, makes every Yesterday
A dream of happiness,
And every Tomorrow a vision of hope
Look well, therefore, to the day.
Such is the salutation of the dawn.
—From the Sanskrit.

Mrs. B. F. Barton and Miss Eva Smith of Greenville, S. C. arrived last week for a visit to relatives here. Mrs. Barton returned to her home Saturday, but Miss Smith will remain for a while longer visiting the Bridges Cobles and Maxwells.

Miss Harriet Barnes of the Carter-Waddell Dance studio in New York City, is in town for the summer and will conduct classes in dancing at the Community Club.

Mrs. Zene Hovis and family of Charlotte stopped here en route to their home and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Brown for a day or so this week.

Misses Lavada Palmer and Sylvia Spencer spent Monday in Asheville visiting friends.

Miss Sara Hill Hannah has returned from Lexington where she reported a term of court.

Mrs. Robert Howell, her granddaughter, Mrs. Edith Lewis and Mr. LaGrande Howell of Los Angeles are expected within the next few days to spend the summer here with Mrs. Howell's niece, Mrs. Ouida Baker. Mrs. Howell is the widow of the late Robert Howell and sister-in-law of Capt. Alden Howell.

D. T. Walder of Flint, Michigan is at Mrs. Schenck's for a few days.

Jack Schenck of Durham is here on a visit to his mother, Mrs. Alma Schenck.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Patterson and children are on a ten days' visit to Mrs. Patterson's old home in Robbinville.

Mrs. Parker of Greenville, S. C., who has spent the past eighteen summers in Waynesville, is again at Mrs. Schenck's where she will remain until the autumn.

Mrs. R. C. Jenkins and Miss Dorothy Jenkins of La Belle, Florida have had an apartment at Mrs. Crawford's for several weeks. They expect to join Mr. Jenkins in Atlantic City some time in July.

Allan Black is in Charlotte for several days.

Mrs. S. T. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Graves and Joe Graves, Jr. have returned from a motor trip to Bristol, Tenn., where they visited for some time.

Mr. Robert Brown of Gullowhee spent the week-end in town with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Moody.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tate have returned from a motor trip to Greensboro where they spent several days.

Rev. Chas. F. Owen of Plott was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Louis Roused and children of Knoxville have arrived for the summer and are visiting her father, Mr. W. M. Tate.

Rev. and Mrs. A. V. Joyner of Canton, Miss Lily Mae Phelps of Wilmington and Miss Rena Forest Joyner were in town Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Coman of Lubbock, Texas were in town during the week visiting Mr. Coman's sister, Mrs. W. T. Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Sjostrom of Miami are at Cherokee Inn for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur of Miami are stopping at the Gordon for several months. Mr. Arthur is a prominent realtor of the Florida city.

Mr. Fred Jackson and family of Birmingham are occupying their cottage at the Lake.

The Davies property adjoining the Suyeta Park has been bought by Dr. John Smathers and Mr. Foot for improvement and development.

Messrs. J. W. Reed of the Waynesville Furniture Company and Rufus Siler of the Unagusta Manufacturing Company are in Chicago this week attending the furniture market.

Mrs. Grady Boyd has as her guest for the summer her aunt, Mrs. Cornelia J. Allen of Columbia. Mrs. Allen came the first of the week.

Mrs. J. W. Reed and Clyde Ray, Jr. motored to Asheville Wednesday to meet Miss Marie Morrissey and her accompanist, Miss Violet Martens. They lunched at the Vanderbilt and returned to Waynesville in the afternoon.

Miss Mildred Crawford is society editor of the Carolina Mountaineer for the summer. Any items of general interest may be phoned to 250-J or 137.

Mrs. Semmet will entertain for Miss Morrissey after the concert this evening.

Miss Grace Plott who was operated on recently for appendicitis is recuperating at the home of her parents at Plott.

Dr. and Mrs. Liner, Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Hayes Alley were Asheville visitors last week.

Mr. Noah Harrison of Micalade was in town Saturday.

Miss Ella Smathers, who spent the winter in Atlanta, has returned for the summer and is at the Willis House.

Miss Lois Briggs left yesterday for Franklin where she will spend the summer as councillor in Camp Taukeetah. She will teach French and dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Phillips of Miami arrived by motor the first of the week and are occupying their residence on Church street.

Miss Josephine Thomas spent last week-end in Black Mountain as the guest of Miss Minnie B. Doar.

Mrs. Alden Howell, Jr., Mrs. Chas. Hard of Elyria, Ohio and Miss Thomas motored to Asheville Friday.

Miss Julia Kirby of Gaffney, S. C. is to be assistant in the Western Union for the summer.

Mrs. W. H. Liner has as her guest for the summer, Mrs. Lowell W. Taylor and her young daughter who reached here last week. Mrs. Earl King, also of Memphis, expects to join them today.

Miss Florida Kent, who has been the guest of Miss Janie Love Mitchell for a fortnight, left Monday for her home in Sylvania, Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Foy, Jr. and Henry, 3rd, of Wilmington, arrived Monday morning for a visit of several months with Mrs. Foy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Herren.

Mrs. Charles Dunn, who was Miss Willie Freeman, and Mrs. John Bowen, who was Miss Beatrice Freeman, arrived Sunday from Akron, Ohio, to visit their father, Mr. R. V. Freeman, for a fortnight.

Miss Sue Willard Lindsley spent Monday in Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Band have as their guests, Mr. Band's sister, Mrs. Lenox Flow and her son, Lenox, Jr. of Spartanburg, S. C. Mrs. Flow will spend the 4th here.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Smith of Asheville have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Band during the week.

Hon. Welch Galloway of Brevard, representative in the State Legislature, was in town this week.

Messrs. Scott Brawley, Verne Blackwell and Otis Henrick of Lenoir were Waynesville visitors a few days this week.

Miss Sue Ray of Colgate, Okla. arrived the first of the week for an extended visit with her cousin, Miss Elizabeth McLean.

Mr. and Mrs. Purcell of St. Petersburg, Fla. are in town for the summer, and are stopping at the Dunham House.

Misses Anna Ray and Fannie Johnson left Sunday by motor for Greenville, S. C., accompanying Miss Johnson's house guests that far on their journey to Daytona.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Clark of Tampa are spending a month or so with Mrs. Clark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ray. They came the first of the week.

Mrs. H. M. Saumerig of New York, who spent some time here two years ago, is at Mrs. R. H. Mitchell's for a few months.

Misses Nan Horton and Helen Horton of Harriman, Tenn., who have been visiting Mrs. Roy Plott in Statesville for several weeks, arrived in town Wednesday for a short stay with friends. Miss Helen Horton has been teaching in Kingsport, Tenn. for the past year. They are both very pleasantly remembered in Waynesville, having lived here several years before going to Tennessee.

Col. and Mrs. J. R. Pepper of Memphis arrived by motor the first of the week and are at their home at the Lake.

Mrs. W. T. Lee, Mrs. R. Q. McCracken and Miss Evelyn Lee motored to Asheville Monday.

Mrs. Cleveland Plott and Mrs. Mary Mebane spent Sunday in Canton as guests of Mrs. Claude Holtzclaw.

Mrs. Telford Stevenson and two sons of San Diego, Calif. are in Canton visiting her sister, Mrs. Claude Holtzclaw for the month of July. She will be remembered as Miss Roberts Haynes. Mrs. Stevenson and Mrs. Holtzclaw were in town a few days this week.

Miss Lillian Allen of the faculty of the University of Tennessee is spending the summer with her parents. She will return there in the fall.

Ray Coble, now of Gaffney, S. C., spent last week camping on Cataloochee and returned to South Carolina Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Moss Salley and young daughter of Asheville were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Herman.

Miss Kate Rickards of Balsam was in town the first of the week.

Mr. Jasper Grubbs, who has been with the St. Augustine Wholesale Grocery Company since leaving here sixteen years ago, was in town with his daughter a few days last week. Mrs. T. M. Rickards of Balsam is at the Herren House for a few weeks.

Mrs. Bradley Haviland arrived from Atlanta Friday and will spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Satterthwait. Her young daughter, Barbara, who has been visiting here for sometime will return with her.

Mrs. Nettie Patrick of Mars Hill came Sunday for an extended visit with her son, J. C. Patrick, at his home on the Asheville Road.

Mr. George Patrick of Mars Hill was a week-end visitor here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Boone, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edwards, Mary Edwards and Emmett Green motored to Franklin Sunday.

Mr. G. Y. Mebane of Asheville spent the week-end with Mrs. Mebane at Mrs. Moody's.

Miss Janet Quinlan went to Montreat yesterday for a short visit with a school mate, Miss Margaret McKinnon, who is spending the summer there.

Mrs. B. C. McVey of Biltmore was the week-end guest of Mrs. J. W. Reed.

Mr. Hooper Keith of Birmingham arrived Monday to spend the summer with his uncle and aunt, Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Mangum.

Mrs. H. J. Goodin of this city is having a delightful visit in Hickory as the guest of Miss Norma Edmundson.

Rev. J. T. Mangum and Rev. John A. Taylor left Friday for Seabright, Fla., where they will spend several days.

Mrs. Frank Henry returned Thursday to her home in Greenville, S. C., after a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Mary Kilgore.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Herman have had as their guests over the week-end Mrs. Herman's mother, Mrs. Claudia Henderson, Sullivan and Mrs. and Mrs. Tom Henderson of Hickory.

Mrs. Chas. E. Quinlan, Misses Elizabeth Quinlan and Frances Denton spent Wednesday in Asheville.

Mrs. Bivens of Albemarle and Mrs. Batten of New York have arrived in town for a visit of several weeks with their sister, Mrs. S. H. Bushnell. Bob Woodard spent Friday in Black Mountain.

Miss Eleanor Atkinson, who is to be graduated from John Hopkins in February, came from Baltimore Wednesday to spend several weeks here.

Miss Marion Atkinson of Raleigh spent Saturday in town.

Miss Isabella McDowell, who has been instructor in English and Spanish in Statesville High School for the past year, came Wednesday to spend the summer with her parents before returning. She visited in Winston-Salem, Durham and Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Byerly, Jack Byerly and little Miss Emeline, arrived Friday by motor from Atlanta for a short visit with Mrs. Byerly's mother, Mrs. Emma Willis. They expect to go from here to Miami.

Mrs. W. I. Sperring of Jacksonville has returned to Waynesville and is again at Mrs. Crawford's. Mrs. Sperring is the sister of Mrs. D. J. Dunham and has been coming to Waynesville for the past eighteen years.

Mrs. J. E. Thomas has as her guests for the summer Misses Jean and Blanche Smith of Sumter, S. C.

Mr. James B. Flugman, graduate of Bradley Horological Institute, Peoria, Illinois and expert jeweler, is with W. A. Coble Jewelry Company, "from now on," as Mr. Coble states.

Miss Frances Robeson returned Friday from Richmond, Newport News and Greensboro where she has been visiting for the past fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stringfield, their young daughter and Miss Henrietta Love motored to Franklin yesterday. Miss Love will in camp at Taukeetah for the summer season.

Mrs. Lena Palmer, Mrs. Curtis, Mrs. Curtis and others from the Palmer House, Mrs. H. C. Lindsley, Mrs. J. B. McGruder and Miss Sue Willard Lindsley composed a motor party to Mount Pisgah yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams who are spending their honeymoon in Hendersonville were over for the day Saturday. Mrs. Adams was one of the attractive honorees at the Badgett-Ward tea.

Dr. and Mrs. George R. Stuart of Birmingham are at the Lake for the summer. Dr. Stuart will speak there on July 4th.

Mr. J. Dale Stentz was an Asheville visitor Tuesday.

HOUSE PARTY.

Miss Fannie Johnson has been hostess to a very delightful house party during the past week for a number of friends who came from Daytona, Florida for the occasion. In addition to picnics and dinner parties they enjoyed a camping trip to Cataloochee where they spent a week fishing. The campers were: Mr. and Mrs. Willaume, Miss Dora Williams, Curtis Gardner, Bill Perry and Lynn Neufeld of Daytona, Misses Thomasene Howell, Anna Ray and Fannie Johnson, Messrs. Bob Crew, Ray Coble, Holahan of Greenville, Denahi of Asheville and Pritchard Ferguson.

Mock's Department Store.

In getting ready for Summer Boarders give us a chance at your needs.

Here is a list that should interest you.

72x90 sheets. Cannon Mills seamless $1.50

42x36 Pillow cases Cannon Mills 35c

66x80 clean cotton blankets $2.98

Bungalow Silk Draperies, 75c and $1.00

In window curtains we have a full range of marquisettes, voiles, swisses and scrims at 15c to $1.00

Table linen at 75c is a value above the average. Napkin from $1.25 to $5.00 doz.

Our house furnishing department is complete.

MOCK'S DEPARTMENT STORE

Come Monday July 6th. and Have Fun!

All of you have no doubt seen bucking bronchos, but on Monday, July the 6, we are bringing to town the first bucking Overland. See it and have a good laugh. Ride in it without holding and get a $5.00 bill. The bucking Overland beats the bucking broncho at his own game.

Come to town, bring the whole family, take the day off and have a good time. A full line of Overland and Willys-Knight Fours and Sixes will be on display at our place of business. Come in and look these cars over. Get our prices and drive a car home that you and the entire family will be proud of. They look good, are priced better and perform best.

To Overland owners we are offering FREE, one tire and tube for the car making the run from our garage to West Canton Standard filling station and return on the least amount of gas. One tire and tube for the oldest Overland car in good serviceable condition driven to our garage.

To any car owner buying one or more tires that day we will give an inner tube free.

For every new car bought from us that day we will give absolutely free on each touring car a spare tire and tube and each closed car a set of bumpers.

Swift Motor Co. Garage

Willys-Knight

Waynesville, North Carolina.