NOTICE OF SALE UNDER EXECUTION.

State of North Carolina, Haywood County—In the Superior Court.

Harris Woodson Co.

vs.

Lee Fisher and F. T. Hyatt.

By virtue of an execution directed to the undersigned from the Superior Court of Haywood County, in the above entitled action, I will, on Monday the 21st day of September, 1925, at twelve o'clock noon at the Court House door in the town of Waynesville, N.C., sell to the highest bidder for cash to satisfy said execution all the right, title and interest with the said F. T. Hyatt has in the following described real estate, situate, lying and being in Waynesville and Ivy Hill Townships on the waters of Richland and Jonathan's Creeks and bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

BALSAM ITEMS.

Mr. J. R. Cook, a well known visitor here for the past ten years, died Friday the 11th. His wife who was with him accompanied the remains to their home in Paducah, Ky.

Miss Harriet Harrell spent the week end with friends in Olinwood.

Mrs. E. C. G. G. of Lakeland, Fla. is here for her mother, Mrs. W. S. G. and other relatives here.

stated that if an emergency arose it would be cared for at any and all state institutions. The Associated Press, replying to the Governor's criticism merely contented itself with stating that its story had been issued with an official statement from Sanatorium as its basis, that fifteen days had elapsed and no denial of the story had been made until the Governor investigated the situation and pointed out that the essential facts that patients were to be turned out was not denied nor was it denied that short-ages of room was the reason. The organization added its regrets that the story had been construed to mean maintenance fund were low and that it had, for this was the state's fault, the superintendent of the sanatorium had been paid for the maintenance fund for each year.

to give him.

T. Tom Taylor, John F. Thigpen, J. R. Barnhill, W. T. Stone, and E. D. Dodd, of Martin county, have been awarded $400 each by the State for their assistance in bringing about the arrest and conviction of the mob which a few months ago took Joseph A. Needelman from the Martin county jail and mutilate him. Governor McLean approved the claims on the recommendation of Frank Nash, assistant attorney general.

Charles L. Robinson of Wake county has been appointed assistant Federal Director of the State-Federal Employment Service, vice Robert O. Packard resigned. The position was formerly held by Mrs. Anne Travis who died in the service early last year.

An agreement made by the Governor and the Attorney General that legal remedy available will be sought in the future for the purpose of preventing those responsible for the conduct of the Fisheries and Game Commission from being re-elected to office. The Attorney General is assembling evidence with the view to prosecuting the State Game Commission for the straggle, which left hundreds of fish and game practically worthless.
