HER DOUGH "RIZ" ALL RIGHT.

The Embarrassing Experience of a Kind-Hearted Woman.

A medicine bottle, a mirror and a bunch of keys, all sticking to a chunk of dough as large as your head was the sight that met a Skowhegan woman's view when she opened her satchel in the Skowhegan car en route to Lewiston.

She had wondered for some time what it was that was swelling out the sides of her satchel in such an unproportionate manner, and she opened the satchel to find out. She struggled to close it, but she could not. The man in the rear seat looked over her back to see what the matter was. The conductor stopped to look at her in her helpless state.

"What's the matter, madam," he inquired.

"Oh, nothing. Bread is rising, can't you see? Oh, get away!"

She got her fingers in the dough and then she got mad. She tried to pull them. She tried to close the satchel, but it would not close.

"Confound that thing," she said, and the satchel, comb, mirror and dough disappeared out through a window.

When she tells her friends about the case now she laughs at the horrid fellow-passenger and conductor, but she did not feel like it then.

She was coming to visit a friend in Lewiston. This friend admired her bread very much and said it was the best in the world, so, not having any bread ready to bring with her, she seized upon a large piece of dough which was rising in a pan before the fire and wrapping it in a napkin she placed it in her grip with the above result .- Lewiston Evening Journal.

Although there are many beautiful women with worthless hearts, still that fact does not weaken the other fact that spiritual nobleness and a fair body are a consistent, harmonious association: Everything that appertains to the elevation of the soul affects for the better the aspect of the body, beautifying and refining it. # SCH001 SUNDAY

FOR APRIL 12.

Subject: The Resurrection, 1 Cor. xv., 20, 21, 50-53-Colden Text, 1 Cor. xv., 20-Memory Verses, 55-58 - Commentary on the Day's Lesson.

I. Christ's resurrection affirmed (vs. 20,

"Now is Christ risen." Paul begins this famous chapter with a marshaling of the proofs of the resurrection of Christ. He beings witness after witness, even 500 at one time, who, during the forty days between the resurrection and the ascension saw Jesus, touched Him, heard Him talk, ances. Later on Paul himself met Jesus, naw Him, heard Him. Jesus must be alive. No event in all history has greater or more convincing proofs than that Jesus rose from the dead. Sight, hearing, touch, all combined in the proof. Then, the Christian charch, and indeed every convert and every miracle, was a proof that a living first ripe cars of grain, offered under the law (Lev. 23: 10, 11) as a grateful acknowlvest. So Christ's resurrection was the pledge that the whole resurrection harvest would follow. "That slept." A most beautiful and instructive term for death. Cemtery means sleeping place. Death is called a sleep because, 1. In both the person is unconscious of the worldly activity around Fim. 2. The soul continues to live, while the body is unconscious. 3. There is to be an awakening to new and fresh life. The very expression implies immortality. 21. "By man." It pleased God that in some way humanity should within itself, however aided with divinity, work out its own destiny, both for death and life. in Adam and in Christ. "Came death." Compare Rom. 5: 12-19, with the narrative in Gen. 3. "By man-the resurrection." Mortality came by Adam, immortality by Christ; so sure as all have been subjected to natural death by Adam, so sure shall all be raised again by Christ Jeaus.

II. The incorruptible body (vs. 50-57). 50. "This I say." The apostle shows clearly that man in his present condition state of infirmity and decay, with a body that is fragile and weak. "Cannot inherit." must be immertal. "Kingdom of God." Heaven; an opriately called the kingdor

51. 52. "A mystery." A truth not known before, and even now that it is revealed it is too deep for human reason to fathom.

"We." That is, the whole body of Christians who are candidates for the glorious resurrection. The use of the word "we" in seem to think, that the apostle 'expected to be alive at the coming of Christ. "Not all sleep." We shall not all die. "All be changed." Those who are alive at the day cf judgment shall be changed so that their bodies will become spiritual bodies like the bodies of those who shall be raised from the dead. "Twinkling of an eye." In an instant of time; as soon as a person can wink. The resurrection of all the dead time, and the change of all the living then upon earth, shall be the work of a single

but it is "elethed upon" with immortality.

It receives an addition of qualities which is here personified and represented as a devouring being, swallowing up all the generations of men, and by the resurrection of the body and the destruction of the empire of death, God is represented as swallowing him up. "In victory." The victory over death and the grave will be complete. The changed body will be (1) incorruptible, (2) glorious, (3) powerful,

(4) a spiritual body, (5) one like the body

13: 14. Death is here represented as having a sting. "O grave-death." The R. V.

also transposes the two members of this verse. "Sting-sin." Death could not have entered into the world if sin had not entered first, and it is sin that has armed not a ray of light in the law for the sin-

an atonement for sin and thus made it pos-

over Satan, death, hell and the grave.

III. The church astonished (v. 58). 58.

"Therefore." We come now to the conclusion of this wonderful chapter. "Stead-in the resurrection, which some (v. 12) are endeavoring to overthrow. "Unmovable."

'Let nothing move you away from this hope of the gospel which is given unto you." "Always abounding." Steadfast means positive, intrinsic firmness; uninovable implies resistance to the mightiest outward pressures and fiercest onsets:

man nor goose has any claim to consideration in these words. "Mongoose" is quite a fancy spelling, and you may spell it "mungous" or "mongous" or "mungoos," as you will. Therefore, we think "mongoose" is quite plural enough to cover all the specimens that are likely to come up for christening. On a handkerchief case the bunches of flowers are all worked in the ribbon. with the exception of the stems and centres. The foundation is heliotrope bengaline silk, and a thin lining of cotton is placed under it to give greater support to the embroidery.

The colors of the ribbons are two shades of orange, one of blue, two of pink and two of green.

The centre bunch is entirely worked in greens for leaves, stems and centres, the flowers being all of one shade of orange or else with alternating petals of the two shades.

The corner bunches have flowers in one shade only, pink, yellow, blue and orange being used according to taste. The tiny flowers between the bunches are alternately dark and 15th orange. The needles used are what are termed "chenille needles," which have large oval eyes and sharp points .-Washington Star.

LEARN TO RELAX.

It is strange how few people really know how to relax, to let the bed hold them instead of vainly trying to hold up the bed, says Health Culture. Give way, let the nerves and muscles rest. Do not anticipate your journey's end of waste nerve force by mentally going ahead and fussing because of delay. Do not mentally get out and push the car along because you do not reach your destination in a moment. Relax, drop the subject from your mind, and you will reach your objective point far less worn in mind and body than if you fussed and fumed.

You can add years to your life by simply breathing. It is want of thought, want of time, want of knowledge that is at fault.

Mrs. Browning says: "He lives most life who breathes most air." Learn to breathe properly and you will always be self-possessed. Learn to relax and you will never be nervous and fussy and make others around you nervous. Do not catch the breath with a gasp. do not fuss with this or that little thing. Relax and gain that repose of manner that places you and those around you at ease. Few people can "let go." Only one person out of twenty can really drop the arm. Raise it to its full length above the head and see if you can let it fall, commencing with the finger tips and so on down in perfect rhythm. Nineteen out of twenty will put it slowly down. This is not relaxing. Let it drop, and drop heavy, too. It will not come off. The muscles of the neck are seldom used freely. It is surprising how much force we use to hold our heads on. We do not find this out until we try to let them go. Yawning is not polite, but it is healthful. Why? Because if given full expression it stretches and vitalizes all the muscles of the body, and then relaxes them, quickening the blood supply and giving it free play.

"But later on he returned and got the $4000. That night's opera was 'Traviata,' and the secretary and Patti this connection does not prove, as some would come to the theatre and dress for the part of Violetta, all but the shoes. She would put her shoes on and appear when the extra $1000 was forthcoming.

"She did this. At 7.30 o'clock she sat in her dressing room in her stocking feet all prepared otherwise to go on. Mapleson by this time had taken in $600 and he sent it back to her. She returned him word that she would now put on one shoe.

"At 8 o'clock another $400 lot of tickets had been sold. The money went to Patti. And she immediately put on the other shoe, and at the proper moment, smiled and bowed, advanced toward the footlights in an up- it did not possess before. "Is written." roar of cheers and applause. " My trouble was with the ovaries; I am tall, and the coctor said I grew too fast for my strength. I suffered dreadfully from inflammation and doctored continually, but got no help. I suffered from terrible dragging sensations with the most awful pains low down in the side and pains in the back, and the most agonizing headaches. No one knows what I endured. Often I was sick to the stomach, and e-erv little while I would be too sick to go to work, for three or four days; I work in a large store, and I suppose stand-ing on my feet all day made me worse.

"At the suggestion of a friend of my mother's I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Com-pound, and it is simply wonderful.
