The News

Le Devoted to the Upbuilding of

k County A

The News

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF POLK COUNTY.

INDEPENDENCE IN ALL THINGS.

SUBSCLUPTION PRICE $1.00 PER YEAR, IN ADVANCE.

Of the Cong Ju Battle

VOL. IX.

COLUMBUS, N. C., THURSDAY, APRIL 7, 1904.

NO. 51

Northern Idea of Social Equality CHARLES MANLY

Question.

le Would Not Mind Taking a Sip With Booker T. Himself-Tar Heels Engaged in Debate and Are Responsible for Draw ing Reeder Out.

An interesting collolouv occurred in the House last week during the course of a speech by Mr. Gillett, of Massachussetts. Some Tar Heels were engaged in the debate and are responsible for drawing Mr. Reeder, of Kansas, out upon the negros. The following from the Congressional choice for the presidential nomination. Record of March 28, page 4008, indicates his position, which is to the shame of him-

The Chelrman-Does the gentleman

Mr. Gillett, of Massachusetts Yes. Mr. Reeder. A want to bring out the fact that with numbers of statements that have been made from the other side in regard o'our President, whom the Republicans regard as one of the greatest that has ever been is the Presidential chair-I want to pring out the moderation of the North in not speaking of this matter heretofore, by asking this question: I want to ask the gentleman if he thinks there is a village or a small city in any part of the North where ten of the most prominent and most respected citizens would not regard it as an honor to invite Booker T. Washington to their tables if he were in their city?

Mr. Gillett, of Massachusetts. Of course the gentleman's opinion on that is more valuable than mine.

not go out of his way; and when these ac cusations are made by the opposite side, we licans. have been excedingly temperate not to take the matter up with a good deal of en-

Mr. Gillett of Massachussetts Mr. Chair man, I think I will let the gentleman put that statement in as his own.

I am very sorry to have detained th House so much longer than I expected."

This man Reeder, who would take negro into his bosom ought to move down South to some of the genuinely black districts where he could have an opportunity to associate with them to his heart's content. It is pity to bring such a "slam" as that upon our repectable friends. But Mr. Gilless of Massachusetts would not be drawn in to an endorsement of Reeder's fool ideas.

MILES WRITES ON PATRIOTISM

ter Giving His Definition.

Washington, March 29.-Lieutenant General Nelson a Miles, retired, formerly army sent a letter of regret to the Democratic Club of Grand Rapids, Michigan, which was to have given a banquet at floods in that region the banquet was aban-Asped- General Miles authorizes the pubpication of the letter which deals with the subject of patriotism. General Miles says, in concluding his letter:

citizenship that are responsible for honesty management of the case by Thomas Settle. and efficiency in our public affairs. The first requisite to good government is universal intelligence and patriotic, carnest devc- conduct of the case, notwithstanding the tion the welfare of our country. This re- fact that the late Major Moody had paid out public must continue in its march of prog. $1,000 to $1,500 in working up the case. ress or it must lapse into decay by the acts The statement is made that Colonel Lusk of apathy of its own citizens. There is a only received $200 for his part in the case You can have just as good or just as bad a amount advanced by Mrs. Moody. - Post.

government as you will, be it municipal, State or national; and our hope rests in true, patriotic devotion to the principles of our government. The opportunity and responsibility of the democratic citizens of Michigan and of the whole Union are now greater and more important than they have been at any former period of our lifstory. There are many vexed questions and problems in which there may be an honest difference of opinion-but there is one tranquestions whether of economics or individuals, and that is whether the spirit of the declaration of independence and of our constitution-shall prevail or perish. The change from oppression to liberty is wrought by violence, but the change from democracy to despotism is quiet, insiduous, absolute and fatal."

NEW YORK WILL NAME PARKER

Mr. Hill Believes He and His Friends will Control Three-Fourths of State Convention for Him.

Abany, N. Y., April ? .- From a source so close to former Senator Hill that it may question. It turns out that Reeder is a rank be understood as representing Mr. Hill's grophlist and would not mind taking a views, it is learned that is intended that in with Boos er T. Washington himself: the New York State delegation to the Dem-He claims to represent the Northern idea of ocratic national convention at St. Louis racial conditions and would be a wonder in shall be positively instructed in favor of the South, if he practices what he preach- Judge Alton B. Parker, as New York's Senator Hill and his friends now believe that they will control at least three fourths elf and the people he claims to represent: of the State convention which will be held "Mr. Reeder - Mr. Chairman, I want to bere April 18th, It has been during recent the gentleman a question if he will years an almost unbroken custom for the New York State Democratic delegation to go to the national convention with positive instructions. Only in 1884 were there instructions. In that year Grover Cleveland and Russell P. Flower, both of New York State, were candidates. The New York delegates voted for Cleveland

HON, P. H. WINSTON DEAD.

He Was a Former North Carolinian and Resided at Spokane, Wash.

Raleigh, N. C., April 3. President George T. Winston, of the State Agricultural and Mechanical College topight received rews of the sudden death of his brother, Patrick Henry Winston, at Spokane, Wash., of heart failure, aged 57. Mr. Winston was a native of Bertie county, N. C., and was the valedictorian of his class at the University of North Carolina, Mr. Reeder. I want to say to you that President Andrew Johnson and Secretary of in my section I believe there would not be State Seward being present, at the graduatone of a hundred who would not regard it ing exercises. Mr Seward was so well as an honor to invite Booker T. Washing. pleased with Mr. Winston's speech that he to their table were he to come to our elt- took off his own wate's chain and gave it des or towns. Now we feel that way I want to him. Winston had served as attorney to say that we feel that the President did general of Washington as a Democrat, but was defeated for re-election by the Repub-

> At the time of his death he was editing a newspaper, "Winston's Weekly."-Raleigh Correspondence Charlotte Obser-

Mrs. Moody Not Pleased-Contest Cost Too Much.

Representative Gudger has filed his ac-Gudger for defending his title to his seat is contest cost her between $3,500 and $4,000. She has written several members of Congress with the view of inferesting them in passing legislation to reimburse her forthat commander-in-chief of the Uunited States amount. Her request was placed before election committee No. 1 and a statement fo all the facts was made, but by unsaimous vote it was decided by the committee Grand Rapids last evening. Owing to the to only recommend a $2,000 appropriation for the contesta t. The committee took the view that it could not afford to break the precedent in this case or any other, however meritorious it might be.

A letter written by Mrs. Moody indicates "It is the men who exercise the power of that she is anything but satisfied with the She alleges that she paid Mr. Settle $3,460, which he contended was necessary for the sacred duty devolving on every citizen. and that Mr. Settle received the bulk of the Men In the Public Eye Gen. Kuropatkin Tells STEDMAN saved to North Carolina one of its best and bravest soldiers. Fearless, coura-Major Charles Manly Stedman was was involved, yet he was sympathetic, rents moved to Fayetteville. He was teem of both officer and private. prepared for coffege by Rev. Daniel At the close of the war Major Sted-McGilvary, afterwards missionary to man returned to Chatham county, the son Academy, at Fayetteville.

four years at the University. He was chosen one of the orators of the Philanthropic Society when President Buchquired to draw by lot for the salutatory ates and faculty alike.

geous; firm and fixed when principle born at Pittsboro, Chatham county unselfish and kind, and he merited, won North Carolina. At an early age his pa- and held steadfast the affection and es-

Siam, in Pittsboro, and at the Donald- home of his ancestors, and for a year or more was engaged in teaching at Pitts- in the effections of its people almost He entered the University of North boro. He then procured his license to unprecedented. As a member of the Carolina in 1857, and from the first dem- practice law. In the same year he was bar he is looked upon as a model, the onstrated his superior ability as a stu- married to Miss Katharine Wright, of soul of honor and the very personificascendent principle, far above all other dent and scholar, ranking with such Wilmington, and he moved to that tion of ethical principles. Though men as Ransom and Pettigrew. He city, where he met with marked success not only made the average of first hon- at the bar. For many years he remain- and bold and aggressive in the forum or, but very remarkably took first on ed at Wilmington in the practice of his of forensic debate, yet withal he is each study during every session of his profession, and probably no man in the courteous and respectful to his oppostate met with larger returns.

> anan visited the University in 1859. The he has been an active party worker in amenities so characteristic of true first honor men at that time were re- every campaign since the war, the only gentility and greatness. There is political position he has held is that of scarcely a lawyer in the state who is and valedictory and Major Stedman lieutenant-governor, which he held more esteemed by his brethren with drew the salutatory. As a student he is from 1884 to 1888. Probably no more whom he comes in daily contact than said to have been brilliant, popular and graceful and impartial officer ever pre- Major Stedman, respected and admired by his associ- sided over the senate than Major Stedman, He was dignified and yet defer-Before the close of the session, how- ential and courteous and he was admirever, at which he was to deliver his ed and esteemed by all. A distinguished salutatory address, in response to the member of congress from another state made as president of this association Chong-Su, (about fifty miles northwest of call for volunteers for the defense of who was present during a session of the at Wrightsville was delivered in his Ping-Yang), on March 28, rested for one his state, he left those classic halls and lag: lature when Major Stedman pre- usual eloquent style and in a manner day and then advanced to Yong-Chung the life of a student to enter the ranks sided over the senate said that he had and with a grace which charmed and and endure the hardships of a soldier's never seen any man who excelled him delighted all those who heard him, and and after a brief lengagement here they vigorous and enthusiastic for his clients, nent, and no man surpasses him in the Major Stedman was always an active, kindness with which he treats his uncompromising democrat, and though brethren of the bar and in those gentle

Since he has been a resident of Greensbore he hase served one term as president of the North Carolina Bar Association. The speech which he that speech now printed in the reports drove the enemy further north, the Russians of the association constituted one of retreating toward Unsan, a town eighty our most exquisite pieces of North miles northeast of Yong-Chun. Carolina literature. The address of Another Bombardment of Port Arthur. welcome to our last state convention, and the handsome, erect, graceful Central News from Tokio says the Japanfigure of the speaker upon that occa- ese made another attack on Port Arthur sion lingers with us still.

a Democrat. He has never voted any- purpose of taking surroundings and ascerthing but the Democratic ticket, and taining the effects of the last attempt to for thirty years he has rendered invalu- bottle up the Russian fleet. No details of able service to his pasts in blancing, then't cleasurg, april 1. The Associated as is characteristic of the man, has Press is officially informed that up to the been given to helping others. This present the government has received no may account for the statement so often news to confirm the statement sent by a heard of him that he has more personal news agency from Tokio, that the Japanfriends than perhaps any man in the ese made another attack on Port Arthur state. Many of his closest friendships during the night of March 30-31. have been uniform and unbroken for twenty and thirty years. Yet also has he drawn to him by his responsive and sympathetic nature and his exceeding is retiring toward Wiju. They are cutting deference and appreciation of them, down telegraph poles to use as fuel and respect and admire him and who are food. bound to him by the closest ties of personal friendship. In the city of Greensboro no man is held in greater esteem. Not a man, woman or child who does not feel proud that he is one of them.

Major Stedman is a typical southern gentleman. In appearance always neat. His hair and beard white as the driven snow is hardly in keeping with the firm, elastic step, the erect figure, and wonderful vigor and vitality of the man. Few men are susceptible of greater endurance and greater labor. The charm of his personality, his ability and his courtesy and kindness to all men have made him respected and loved wherever known. He is a true friend, sincere and loyal at all times; devoid of policy, but direct and and liberal. He is charitable not only in deeds, but in his judgements and estimates of his fellowmen. His fortitude has been the marvel and delight era most refreshing and inspiring. His moral discernments and moral courage unexcelled. He is gentle and yet magnificient in his strength and is a type of citizen of which the state may just! be proud. The friends of Major Sted- great Napoleon's men suffered, and that reman claim that he is now leading in the duced his proud army of 120,000 to a begcontest for the democratic nomination for governor this year. As its chief executive he would be a credit to the Congress Soon To Adjourn.

Washington, March 30,-Adjournment of Congress by May 1st is practically made certain by the action of Republican leaders in the House today decidi g to postpone all action on the Impeacl ment of Judge Swayne of Florida until next session. The Swayne case, according to the Republicans, has been the one stumbling block to an early adjournment, The House should complete the sundry civil appropriation bill by tomorrow, and with this out of the way there only remains to be passed the Military Academy appropriation bill and the general deficiency bill. The Senate is as far advanced, almost in the matter of appropriation bills as the House.

wet hen, because, just as an Ohio said today that the Japanese may have to lynching bee is announced, his light odds of two to one, and that the chash physician bolts in and tells him may come at the Yula river. The marsha e must not use his throat for a

Horrors of Siberia Are Pictured By Russian

Field Marshall Yamagata, of the Japanese Forces, Says the First Land Battle of Importance Will Probably Occur at Yalu -Other War News.

Tokio, April 1.-Information has reached here from a private source that the Japanese troops, after dislodging the Russians at (about forty-five miles west of Chong-Ju),

London, April 1 .- A dispatch to The the night of March 30-31. The dispatch Major Stedman, as has been said, is adds it is understood the attack was for the Counchs "Moving."

Seoul, April 1.-It has been learned here that the Russian cayalry, in much distress, young men from every section, who their horses are dying for lack of proper Alexieff Inspects Ships in Port Arthur Harber.

Port Arthur, April 1.-Viceroy Alexieff arrived here yesterday and was received by Vice Admiral Makaroff and other officials. He inspected the ships in the harbor and went on board the torpedo boat destroyer Silni, which distinguished herself in the latest attack by the Japanese.

Russians to Make Stand on the Banks

Seoul, April 1. - General H. T. Aller, United States naval observer, with the Japanese army at Ping-Yang, reports that the Russians have lost excellent opportunities to take advantage of natural obstacles offered by the country to oppose the Japanese advance. General Allen believes it to be evident that the Russians intend to make a stand at the Yalu river.

Morrors of Siberia.

St, Petersburg, April 2 -- Letters of Russian soldiers from Lake Baikal and Irkutak. the latter now a great lazaretto, read like passages from "Sergeant Bourgoyne's Memoirs' of the retreat from Moscow, 1812-1813.

There is a repetition of all the terrors of warfare in arctic weather from which the garly regiment, made up of odds and ends, horse, foot and artillery, the latter without

The frost kills thousands, the waters another Berezina, swallow up whole battalions at a time, hunger rages for food is ridiculously inadequate, and the clothes provided seem a mockery upon the awful wind and cold.

A dispatch from the front, that was no sooner printed in a St. Petersburg daily when the censor suppressed it, confiscating the papers and carrying away the plates, reported yesterday that of 20,000 men who left Moscow twenty days ago in splendid condition, only 6,000 arrived fit for duty. The soldiers' letters indicate that even this appalling estimate was colored to cloak actual conditions.

Hard Work Ahead for Japa. Tokio, April 2.-Field Marshal Yamagata, who, after emperor, is first in Senator Tillman is as mad as a the original orgalizer of the Japanese army

Continued on 4th page.

ympathétic nature. ness and death sent up a wail to Him who alone judgeth a righteous cause, a merits of the case, and being convinced of the fidelity of the soldier by his reand what took place in that interview we never have heard, but is a short while the pardon was signed, and proudpendent Light Infantry, which was the equalled him and that was Hon. James regiment disbanded, he joined a com- After a long and memorable contest pany from Chatham county; was its Major Stedman was defeated by Judge lieutenant and afterwards its captain Fowle for the nomination for governor and later advanced to the position of in 1888 by a very small majority. Now, major, serving with Lee's army during since that contest has passed far enough the entire war and surrendered with into history to be viewed dispassionthat noble hero at Appomattox. His ately it may be safely conceded that frank to his own injury. He is a man comrades in arms say that there was no although defeated in convention, Major of scholarly attainments, broadminded braver man than Stedman; none more Stedman was the choice of the larger count, including attorneys' fees and all ex- patient and enduring. As an officer, majority of the Democrats of the state.

pense incurred in the contested election there was no man who could surpass His speech in that convention after case from the tenth district, with election him in anticipating and providing for his defeat was so full of lofty senti- of all who know him well, and in this committee No. 1. The total cost to Mr. the wants of his soldiers. Always sym- ment and patriotism and so full of love pathetic and gentle, yet firm and reso- for the party and displayed a fortitude $2,700, and as he will only be allowed the lute; he was kindly in manner and ea- so rare and a nature so tender, and a usual $2,000 which Congress gives to con- sily approached; yet dignified and re- heart so full of devotion and fidelity to testees and contestants, he is out of pocket served. There was nothing too good the party that the whole convention $700. No account has yet been filed by for the men he commanded; he wished was swept by an overwhelming tide of Mrs. Moody or her counsel, though Chair- no comfort they could not share, and re- emotion. The speech made at, that man Mann requested one of the attorneys quired of them nothing he would not do convention in his defeat has been in the case some days ago to furnish such a himself, and their misfortunes sunk handed down in the traditions of the Unable to Make Address But Sends Let- statement. Mrs. Moody states that the deep into his sensitive, delicate and party as one of the most eloquent, Your correspondent recalls numerous delivered in the state, and it is spoken incidents of his unselfish devotion to of to this day. And to crown the un-

North Carolina and its soldiers. Upon selfish devotion to his party Major one occasion when the yeomanry of the Stedman left a large and lucrative pracstate were in the forefront of battle and tice and canvassed the entire state for starvation and dread disease stalked Judge Fowle and thus aided greatly like spectres through the land and sick- in his election. soldier of North Carolina was under to Asheville, where by his superior penalty of death for leaving the ranks attainments and his nobility of charand returning home to his starving fam- acter, he won the confidence and es ly. The gallant Stedman learing the turn to ranks and his courage and principles of right and duty the sturdy bravery upon the battlefield, mounted mountaineer gave to him the friendly his horse and rode ten miles or more, hand of regard and esteem, and many to the headquarters of General Robert of the most cherished friendships of E. Lee. Just what was said and done lofty and exalted in sentiment ever

In 1891, lured by the healthfulness of its climate, Major Stedman moved teem of all with whom he came in contact. Recognizing his warm, genial nature and his infinite devotion to his life are among the western men. To him their directness and their characteristic frankness were traits be easily comprehended and appreciated. ly the young officer rode into camp, and For eight years he made his home in