

spective states. Acceptances from other Governor governors are expected. Glenn will be present.

Secretary Wilson, of the Agricultural Department, has promised that his department will contribute any facts in convention. A letter of similar import has been received from Secretary Metcalf, of the Department of Commerce and Labor. In addition to the mining, manufacturing, lumbering, agricultural and trucking industries, reports will be made upon public health and sanitary environments of the South.

Delegates from state boards of health and state medical societies will be present; Dr. Walter Wayman, surgeon gen eral of the marine hospital service has consented to place the statistics and other data of his bureau at the disposaj of his southern medical conferres in the parliament.

The parliament's proceedings will be reported by special correspondence in London, Paris, Berlin, Glasgow, Vienna and Brussels.

Hilary A. Herbert, ex-Secretary o the Navy, will be chairman of the re ception committee. Reduced railroad rates from all points south of the Potomac and the Ohio and east of the Mississippi rivers have been obtained, in. cluding Louisiana, Texas and Arkansas Reduced hotel rates, on the American plan, have been secured for all delegates. Additional information will be promptly forwarded to all parties interested in the development of the material resources of the southern states by ad dressing "Southern Industrial Parlia ment," the Riggs House, Washington, D. C.

THE BAR ASSOCIATION.

Meeting Will be Held at Toxaway July Fifth.

The annual session of the North Caro lina Bar Association will be held at Lake Toxaway, beginning July 5th.

This decision was reached yesterday at a meeting of the executive committee held in Raleigh last Saturday. The members of the committee who attended in person were Mr. Chas. W. Tillett, of Charlotte, Col. John W. Hinsdale and Mr. Ed. Chambers Smith. The other members of the committee ar Hon. Z. V. Walser, of Lexington, chairman; ex-Judge W. S. O. B. Robinson, of Goldsboro, and ex-Justice A. C. Avery, of Morganton. Col. T. S. Kenan is the president of the association elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Col. H. C. Jones of Charlotte. The executive committee has arrang ed for special rates of transportation on the railroads and board at the Toxaway Inn. The speakers have not yet been announced and the program will not be given out until the invited speakers are beard from.

of Louisiana, replied, expressing a will- cept as carrying agent for the letter, and ingness to send delegates from their re- whether I placed it upside down, sideways, criss-cross or on edge so long as it carried the letter did not appeal to me as materialamendment of section 37, of the new I wrote and explained that the position of school law. . This regulates the studies the stamp was not a character index and suggested the unfairness of the conclusion, as the stamp might have been put on by my its possession that may be desired by the office boy. An answer came in due time. Such deeply personal letters, the writer said, were not trusted to office boys by careful men. Argument: The office boy plea was merely another indication of possible carelessness. Now whether that man was having fun with me or really took the matter so seriously I don't know, but I do know one thing."

"What's that?"

"I didn't get the job."-Baltimore News

Our Motto: "Not by my vote." These four words will answer all arguments on this question: "Not by my The purpose of this, Superintendent vote," It they say to us, "men will have Joyner says, is to emphasize thorough it," we can answer, "Not by my vote." If ness in essential branches and prevent another man says, "Men will sell it," their neglect. again we reply, "Not by my vote." If we are told we must be politic, we answer, "Not by my vote." I am not bound to abolish the saloon, but only my interest in it. My vote may not hurt the saloon, but I am bound to vote it right, all the same. Saloons may go on, like the brook, forever. Men may die in them like flies and bell grow fat on drunkards, girls may be be trayed and boys baited hellward. Truth be destroyed and women and children beggared. Soldiers' Homes may still sel drink to old veterans, and army capteens debauch the young ones. Our national capital may have a saloon at either end. Senators and Representatives may be drunk on the floors of Congress, "but not by my vote."--Christian Temperance worker.

A Bishop on Dancing.

The bishop of Durbam, England, has replied part as follows to a correspondent who inquired whether his lordship dash into the boiling surf, when Capt. thought that any real harm was done by organizing dances in aid of funds connected with church work: "You ask my opinion of a very difficult subject. Without entering on the abstract question of dancing, under actual modern conditions, as an amusement, I will speak only of dancing as an auxiliary in the work of the Church. While leaving perfect freedom, of course, to others to form their consciention J Y. Joyner says that probably the $3.00 is required for private examination of there being present a great gathering conmost important educational act passed applicant. by the recent Legislature was the fourth and last was a full sized tree. The tutor said to his young companion: "Pull up the first," The boy easily pulled it up with his ingers. "Now pull up the second."

Sec. 72. The expense of holding elections for levving a special tax for schools must be paid out of general county school land.

The youth obeyed but not so easily. "And now the third." The boy had to put forth all his strength and use both arms before he succeeded in uprooting it. "And now,' said the master, "try your hand on the fourth."

But lo! the trunk of the tall tree The wind played wild pranks along grasped in the arms of the youth hardhe ocean beach to-day. Numbers of ly shook its leaves.

hats were wrenched from the heads of "This, my son, is just what happens with our bad babits and passions. When they are young we can cast them off ture hat went seaward with the breeze root them when they are old."-Classmate.

Young Hunter's Hard Luck.

"Some years ago," said a hunter, When I lived down on the eastern shore of Maryland, where I was born, I had passed a whole day running rabbits and had not killed one. On my way home through the woods I met a boy who had a live rabbit. Ashamed twice. to go home empty handed, I gave the boy 25 cents for his rabbit.

"I then said to myself, I will tie Mr. Rabbit to a bush and kill him, and the folks at home will say Ed shot a rabbit. I took a shoestring and fastened the rabbit to a bush and then stood off took aim and fired. When the gun had stopped kicking I saw Mr. Rabbit flying through the woods. My bullet had cut the shoestring in twain and had set the sisting of students, alumni and distinguished men from far and near. The governor of Virginia and both its United States senators were present, as well as the president of the supreme court, Judge James Keith. and scores of lesser lights.

Senator Again Indicted.

There was an impressive procession to An old teacher was once taking a the hall in which the installation took place. valk through a forest with a scholar by Those who took part in the ceremony and his side. The old man suddenly stopped spoke were Senators Daniel and Martin, hand. The first was just beginning to vard, Chancellor Walter Barnard Hill, of peep above the ground, the second had the University of Georgia, Governor Monrooted itself pretty well into the earth, tague, of Virginia, President Jesse, of the the third was a small shrub, while the University of Missouri, and Robert Curtis Ogden, of the Southern Education Board. "Dr. Alderman is one of the most eloquent and scholarly orators in America," once remarked the head of a great Baltimore University, speaking of the new president of the University of Virginia. Another noted scholar remarked at another time: "He has about him more of the evidences of culture than any other man] knów."

Teachers' Assembly Meeting.

The executive committee of the North Carolina Teachers' Association is making extensive preparation for the comin Greensboro June 13-16, and interest in the meeting is increasing.

is a most interesting one and guarantees a most significant meeting, a meeting that will mean much to the educational progress of the state. Among the prominent men who will be there is Dr. Maine, who will be present during the entire meeting. Dr. Stetson will work with the department of county superintendents in all their sessions and will address the entire assembly once or

TO INVESTIGATE BRAINS.

Distinguished Men.

Philadelphia, April 12.-Ten leading natomists have been appointed as an advisory board to the Wister Institute of Anatomy of the University of Pennsylvania, and they have appointed a Atkin earlier in the evening. committee of five to co-operate with the committee on brain investigation of the of the crime, at once organized a posse cinct who has made an exhaustive study of the problem has come to practically the same conclusion, i. e., that a minimum proportion of deaths caused by alcohol is 10 per cent. As there were 1,039,094 deaths in the census year 1900, that would make about 100,000 as alcohol's share."

NEGRO KILLED IN ASHEVILLE.

and pointing to four plants close at President Archibald Cary Coolidge, of Har- Posse Formed to Pursue Fugitives in Charge of City and County Officers.

> Butler Maxwell, colored, was shot and nstantly killed about 12:30 o'clock this morning on Mountain street by one of two unknown white men, who made their escape and have not yet been captured. The trouble between the men according to those who witnessed the trouble, was of the most trivial nature, and the two whites see ned, it is said, to be looking for a chance to pick a quarrel. The city and county officers are investigating the affair thoroughly and will make every effort to capture the men.

It appears that the men met Maxwell on Mountain street, in front of the house ing session of the assembly to be held occupied by Mary L. Smith shortly after midnight. They were accompanied by a dog, which, it is said, snapped at The program that is being arranged the colored man as if it would bite him. "Stop that, you bound, or I'll kill you," Maxwell is reported as saying; to which one of the white men replied: "You'll do nothing of the kind." A few more words passed, when, so run W. W. Stetson, state superintendent of the story, suddenly one of the unknown men drew his gun and fired at Maxwell point blank.

Without saying a word, but spasmodically clutching at his breast with his hands, the wounded man took a step backwards and fell to the ground dead. His assailants, seeing the fatal termination of the affair, lost no time in getting. out of the way; and in spite of the determined efforts of the city and county o Collect and Study the Organ of officers, who were speedily summoned, no trace of them has yet been found. Maxwell's body was removed to the undertaking establishment of Hare, Beard & Co., and it is likely that an inquest will be held Monday. The men who committed this crime are thought to be the same as those who stabbed Will Sheriff Reed, on arriving at the scene international academies. The new com-

their owners and started on a cruise to China, by way of Honolulu. One dainty young thing whose pic- readily, but only divine power can upshowed that, despite her prettiness, she ad the gall of a side elocationist. When she saw her milliner's creation ing station. She ran up to Coast Guardsman Oleson, and, with tears in her eyes, said, "Please. Mr. Lifeboat Man, get the boat quickly!"

to be tought in the public schools and the examination and the certification of the teachers. The act limits the instruction in public schools employing one teacher to spelling, reading, writing, arithemtic, drawing, language, composition, English grammar, geog-

the United States and North Carolina elements of agriculture, oral instruction in elementary physiology and hy

gene the nature and effects of acolholic drinks and narcotics. Then for schools employing more than one teacher

there are added elements of civil government and such other studies as the state board of education may prescribe.

The Wost "Josh" of All.

San Francisco Correspondent in Chicago inter-Ocean.

raphy, constitution and history drowning women, Oleson piped hands. The lifeboat crew was ready to Yarney asked who was drowning.

ry please!"

"Aren't you going to save my hat? little animal free."-Baltimore Amerishe asked, her eyes wide with wonder can. ('apt. Yarney looked at the raging tious opinions on the matter, I must surf. "I'm afraid that hat is doomed to frankly confess that I am not myself in become a dereliet," he replied The sweet young thing became indignant. "Well what's your old life. boat for?" she said. "I know I can never match that chiffon again anywhere." And she left sobbing. Said Coast Guardsman Oleson: "Yumping Yumminy! What a yosh!"

dancing over the billows toward the South Seas she hurried to the life sav-With visions of shipwrecks a vision, brushing the wind-blown masses of brown hair from her eyes, "Hur

"Avast launching, 'there!" thundered Capt. Yarney. The lifeboat crew began to stow away the hoat.

"My new hat," replied the dainty

President Roosevelt has gone away to hunt big game. Judging distilling plant. James B. William went away to hunt er. Cisco R. Taxler, Stay log trouble. It is far better for the plain people when a strenuous ruler "blows off steam" in the mountains than in foreign capitals.

favor of that mode of aiding the cause of the Church that is to say, the cause of our Lord and His sacred society. "The associations of dancing in our time and country are so essentially other than religious (I am not saying irreligious, which is another thing,) that, to my mind, there is a discord in the thought of aiding the church by such a mode of social entertainment."

North Carolina Patents. Granted this week, Reported by C.

A. Snow & Co., Patent Attorneys, Nellie R. Hull, Asheville, Powder puff.

Chas. M. Palmer, New London, Wood is a widow; that she went away to be Sells, by the Morocco incident, Emperor Greensboro, Water elevator and purifi- died. No embarrassing questions are For considered bad form to mention a dead cutting machines. copy of any of above patents send ten man to his widow. cents in postage stamps with date of this paper to C. A. Snew & Co., Washlook upon the institution of marriage. inglon, D. C.

Just Pretend to Marry.

In Russia every woman of the peasant class marries, or pretends to marry. If a girl comes to decision that no one intends to ask her to marry, she leaves home, goes to some distant district and returns after a time to announce thatshe

The Republicans are mighty anxmarried, and that her husband has since ious to reform the tariff and lower for put to her, for among the peasants it is those schedules which "foster monopoly," only they don't dare to. Where would the republican This curious custom goes to show with campaign funds come from if they what high regard the women of Russia did?

tional fee of $500.

St. Louis, April 13 .- United States Senbination looks to the establishment of ator J. R. Burton, of Kansas was reindicted experts at stations throughout the world by the Federal grand jury on the charge of for the collection and preservation of accepting fees to the amount of $2,500 from human and other brains and human the Rialto Grain and Securities Company. and other embryo and materials for the of St. Louis, in whose behalf, it is alleged, study of comparative anatomy and em he acted as an attorney before the postoffice bryology.

department at Washington. The Wister Institute is to be a clear-The new indictment, contains five counts. ing house for American anatomists. The first three specify that Senator Burton The advisory board has laid down a genmade an agreement to accept $2,500 to eral line of research in which the forelook after the interests of the St. Louis most object is the collection and study concern. Count No. 4 charges that he re of the brains of men of distinguished ceived $2,500 as a fee, and No. 5, an addicharacter and ability.

> Dr. Gage, of the Council Brain Asso ciation said it was easy to cultivate a great willingness among distinguished men to give up their brains when they were assured that it would be of real service to science.

The fact that boys hate bathing de track. Don't hurt de yuther pas is no sign that they dislike to "go swimming."

and started in pursuit of the fugitives. He is accompanied by members of the police force and deputies .- Asheville Citizen.

[The supposed murderers have been captured and placed in jail.

Wanted to Get Even.

A correspondent sends us the following extract from the pious petition of a good old colored brother in a Georgia settlement:

"Lawd, we wants a blessin' fer ever' one, 'cept one; en dat one is a yaller nigger, what boarded de railroad train, en runned off wid de whole collection what wuz took up ter pay my salary wid! Lawd, please make de train jump sengers. but take off one laig fum dat nigger."-Atlanta Constitution.