

A VETERAN OF THE BLACK HAWK, MEXICAN AND THE CIVIL WARS.

CAPT. W. W. JACKSON.

Sufferings Were Protracted and Severe—Tried Every Known Remedy Without Relief—Serious Stomach Trouble Cured by Three Bottles of Peruna!

Capt. W. W. Jackson, 705 G St., N. W., Washington, D. C., writes: "I am eighty-three years old, a veteran of the Black Hawk, Mexican and the Civil Wars. I am by profession a physician, but abandoned the same. "Some years ago I was seriously affected with catarrh of the stomach. My sufferings were protracted and severe. I tried every known remedy without obtaining relief. "In desperation I began the use of your Peruna. I began to realize immediate though gradual improvement. "After the use of three bottles every appearance of my complaint was removed, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as an infallible remedy for that disorder."—W. W. Jackson. Address Dr. S. B. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio. So. 29.

Owl's Devotion to Dead Mate.
A remarkable instance of bird instinct and devotion is reported from Quaker Neck. Early last month Henry Brown, a farmer there, set several jump traps about his farm to catch prowlers of whatever nature, that had been playing havoc with his flock of fowls. A day or two later he missed one of the traps. Bartus Trew, a neighboring farmer, discovered two owls in an apple tree. One, a large horned owl, was in evident distress, trying to shield and warm its mate. To a leg of the dead bird was hanging Brown's jump-trap with chain attached.—Philadelphia Record.

Though Fifty-five.
It all turns on will and exercise. Before going to sleep a few exercises should be gone through with open windows, ignoring the good fresh air. A step ladder to run up and down is a great incentive to health; wind exercises, rotatory motions, all keep the body limber, and prevent stoutness. Then diet has to be considered; too much liquid should never be taken with meals; too much meat is bad. There is nothing better for the figure than household work. It takes a great deal to persuade an ordinary woman that it is continuing these things that make a success of it, not starting them and then leaving them to fate.—Chicago Post.

The Glory on Her Head.
A shower of pattering little steps. And in the room she flies; Upon her sunny head there rests A toy, worn hair-wise; A little circlet, golden-hued, Edged with a band of red; "Oh, look at me!" she cries; "I've got A glory on my head!" I nod, and smile; she patters off; I put my paper by; And listen to her far-off voice; With a smile that's half a sigh. "See, grandma!" shouts the baby voice. "You don't heard what I said; Look at me; see; see here; I've got A glory on my head!" O baby voice! what truth you speak! A glory so slight With baby innocence; I stand Awhile before the sight; My head before that snow-pure soul Is bent, and soft my tread; How long it is since I have worn A glory on my head!—Charles Willis Thompson, in New York Times.

COMES A TIME
When Coffee Shows What It Has Been Doing.
"Of late years coffee has disagreed with me," writes a matron from Rome, N. Y. "It's lightest punishment was to make me 'loggy' and dizzy, and it seemed to thicken up my blood. "The heaviest was when it upset my stomach completely, destroying my appetite and making me nervous and irritable, and sent me to my bed. After one of these attacks, in which I nearly lost my life, I concluded to quit and try Postum Food Coffee. "It went right to the spot. I found it not only a most palatable and refreshing beverage, but a food as well. "All my ailments, the 'loginess' and dizziness, the unsatisfactory condition of my blood, my nervousness and irritability disappeared in short order and my society, afflicted stomach began quickly to recover. I began to rebuild and have steadily continued until now. "I have a good appetite and am rejoicing in good health, which I owe to the use of Postum Food Coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. There's a reason. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," found in each pkg.

COLORADO HAS A SODA LAKE.

Remarkable Discovery Made in the Heart of San Luis Valley.
One of the most remarkable discoveries ever made in the region is that of a lake of liquid soda in the inaccessible desert between Crestone, Col., and Hooper, in the San Luis valley. The lake is an acre and a quarter in extent and lies at the bottom of a little basin valley in the desert. On its surface soda crystals have collected to a depth of eighteen inches, the whole lake having the appearance of a body of ice with a hard snow covering. A recent examination by the state school of mines shows that these crystals are 37 per cent pure soda, purer than most of the commercial sodas offered on the market. A Denver man, E. M. Falke, has secured a lease of the land containing the lake and is now installing machinery which will convert the native crystals into marketable form. There are 4,000 tons in sight. The school of mines experts say that the soda is a creation of feldspar. The granite masses of the Sangre de Cristo range stand sentinel on two sides of the little valley. The feldspar in the granite, undergoing decomposition, collects in the lake basin, where it is held in check by an impervious clay, and proper conditions are furnished for concentration and evaporation.

Record Short Names.
Here are some short names. Many years ago there was a shop kept in Brussels by Therese O, and there is a Mme. O living with her two children at Molenbeck, a suburb of the Belgian capital. In 1866 among the Belgian recruits was a young man named O, who could not write, and signed his name with a cross. In the department of Somme, in France, there is a village called Y, in the Zuyder Zee there is a bay called Y, and Amsterdam has the river Y, in the Chinese province of Honan there is a city called U, and in France there is a river and in Sweden a town rejoicing in the name of A.

BABY'S TERRIBLE SORE
Body Raw With Hammer—Caused Untold Agony—Doctor Did No Good—Mother Discouraged—Cuticura Cured at Once.
"My child was a very delicate baby. A terrible sore and humor broke out on his body, looking like raw flesh, and causing the child untold agony. My physician prescribed various remedies, none of which helped at all. I became discouraged and took the matter into my own hands, and tried Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment with almost immediate success. Before the second week had passed the soreness was gone, not leaving a trace of anything. Mrs. Jeannette H. Block, 281 Rosedale St., Rochester, N. Y."

The Ignorant Landsman.
Capt. Kaempf, of the Deutschland was entertaining a little group of passengers with sea stories. "Why is it," said Capt. Kaempf, "that landsmen are so ignorant of the sea? Seamen are not ignorant of the land. It is only, in fact, through knowing the land well enough to avoid it, that seamen keep their ships afloat. "But landsmen's ignorance of the sea—it is deplorable." "In Bremen, one day, I saw a farmer looking at the shipping in the harbor. A longshoreman was explaining the shipping to him. Finally I heard the longshoreman say: "It is low water, now, sir." "The farmer took his pipe out of his mouth and pointed it solemnly toward a heavily-laden tramp steamer that was passing. "It's a good thing for that vessel going past that it is low water," he said. "The water's near over the edge of her now."—ALBION JOURNAL.

IN DEEP WATER.
"Mind you," observed the party who was talking, "I'm speaking metaphorically now." "Ah!" rejoined the other, "I thought you were getting a bit mixed."—Chicago Journal.

A WOMAN'S MISERY.

Mrs. John LaRue, of 115 Paterson Avenue, Paterson, N. J., says: "I was troubled for about nine years, and what I suffered no one will ever know. I used about every known remedy that is said to be good for kidney complaint, but without deriving permanent relief. Often when alone in the house the back ache has been so bad that it brought tears to my eyes. The pain at times was so intense that I was compelled to give up my household duties and lie down. There were headaches, dizziness and blood rushing to my head to cause bleeding at the nose. The first box of Doan's Kidney Pills benefited me so much that I continued the treatment. The stinging pain in the small of my back, the rushes of blood to the head and other symptoms disappeared." Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers, 50 cents per box. Lobster Race the Latest.
Learned men of science gravely listened to a lecture in the Paris museum of natural history this week giving the report of a lobster race which has just been held, says a Paris special to the Kansas City Journal. The contest took place off the Isle of Man. A number of young and spry lobsters each with a number attached to its tail were dropped in the sea. The winner—that is, the competitor which so far as known, traveled farthest from the starting point, was fished up thirteen and one-half miles away three days later. The lobster race was got up with a view to ascertaining certain questions relating to the distance these crustaceans are likely to travel within a specified time. It was not ascertained how many finished, but the truth of the reports are now vouched for.

Cure For The Blues
ONE MEDICINE THAT HAS NEVER FAILED
Health Fully Restored and the Joy of Life Regained
When a cheerful, brave, light-hearted woman is suddenly plunged into that perfection of misery, the BLUES, it is a sad picture. It is usually this way: She has been feeling "out of sorts" for some time; head has ached and back also; has slept poorly, been quite nervous, and nearly fainted once or twice; head dizzy, and heart-beats very fast; then that bearing-down feeling, and during her menstrual period she is exceedingly despondent. Nothing pleases her. Her doctor says: "Cheer up; you have dyspepsia; you will be all right soon." But she doesn't get "all right," and hope vanishes; then come the brooding, morbid, melancholy, everlasting BLUES. Don't wait until your sufferings have driven you to despair, with your nerves all shattered and your courage gone, but take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. See what it did for Mrs. Rosa Adams, of 819 13th Street, Louisville, Ky., niece of the late General Roger Hanson, C.S.A. She writes: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "I cannot tell you with pen and ink what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered with female troubles, extreme lassitude, 'the blues,' nervousness and that all-gone feeling. I was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it not only cured my female derangement, but it has restored me to perfect health and strength. The buoyancy of my younger days has returned, and I do not suffer any longer with despondency as I did before. I consider Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a boon to sick and suffering women." If you have some derangement of the female organism write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice.
