bureanseracy has brought the country to financial ruin, asserting that the government has squandered not only the country's income, but the proceeds of the foreign loans on railroads, the army and the fleet, leaving the people without schools or roads.

No Money to Feed Soldiers.

It is declared that there is no money to feed the soldiers and that everywhere there are insurrections of the beggar and starved troops and sailors. The manifesto even charges the government with using the deposits in the government savings banks to spe property into securities and gold and tificates will be cancelled. are sending them abroad. The only salvation for the country, according to the manifesto, is the overthrow of the autocracy by a constituent assembly, and "the sooner the government falls the better. Therefore the last source of existence of the old regime, its financial revenue, must be stopped." The document is signed by the members of the Workingmen's Council, the committee of the Pan-Russia Union and the central committee of the Social Democrats, Social Revolutionists and Socialists of Poland.

Caught The Government Napping

This great step of the revolutionaries which throws down the gauge of battle to the government, was prepared with such secracy that the authorities were taken off their guard and did not even attempt to prevent its publication in the newspapers. The revolutionary leaders expect that it will be followed by reprisals and arrests, but all this has been foreseen. The leaders laid their plans deeply before issuing the manifesto. The new committees of the various organizations have been placed in the third and fourth degree. If one set of committees is put behind the bars, another will take its place and carry on the work.

The League of Leagues was not asked to join in the manifesto, being regarded with some jealousy by the proletariat organizations which claim to be bearing the brunt of the revoultion and to be entitled to the fruits thereof.

The proletariat leaders claim to have absolute knowledge that the government has just issued $125,000,000 in will install this apparatus at once. paper money. Under the provisions of the press law, the editor of every paper which printed the manifesto has rendered himself liable to eight months' imprisonment and $1,500 fine. Now must come the test of the government's power. It develops that among the papers of M. Krustlieff, the president of the executive committee of the Workmen's The packages were left under the seat Council, seized at the time of his arrest, were documents which furnisb evidence of a well-planned conspiricy street.
