C. E. Page is rustivating with his old war comrades this week on the Sea Board. He left on Sunday for Raleigh where he expects to meet a company of old Federal soldiers and join them and go to Wilmington, from there to Fort Fisher. This will be a galy week for Charley.

Her school mates here will be pleased to hear from Miss Lillian Campbell who was once a student of the Central Industrial Institute. She is doing fine work both in her literary studies and as a worker in Sabbath school, having recently received a handsome prize for bringing the largest number of children into Sunday school where she attends. This is good news from Lillian.

Below we publish the notice which is for the benefit of those having phones.

Suburban subscribers of this company may obtain the daily forecasts and special warnings of the Weather Bureau of the United States Department of Agriculture from their respective exchanges after 11 a. m. These forecasts usually cover 36-hours period ending at 8 p. m. of the following day.

Boys don't throw stones at Charley as he walks quietly and peacefully along the high way its cowardly, beside that, Charley has no wings and its real dangerous over the rough roads and sweeping around sharp curves at "break neck speed" making a mile a minute in the dark. A fellow is liable to commit homicide suicide or some other kind of side on such occasions. Boys don't throw stones at Charley any more.

CLOSING OUT SALE.

I will sell at cost for cash the entire lot of goods which is my part of the stock in the Arnold & Cannon mercantile business at Lynn, N. C., recently dissolved.
C. B. ARNOLD.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY.

The colored people have erected a neat little church near the home of Rev. J. M. Williams.

L. F. Steadman is building a handsome and up-to-date cottage, between the Blackwood place and Melvin Hill, he expects to occupy it in a few weeks.

B. F. Hampton and family, left on Monday for their home at Nacogdoches, Texas. Dock likes old Polk for its climate, but likes Texas for its "filthy lucre."

Atty J. P. Morris and wife of Rutherfordton were here on Monday visiting relatives. Mr. Morris also having some legal matters to look after.

Mrs. Dr. Worth has been in quite precarious health for some months being confined to her room most of the time. We are glad to report her better at this writing.

Mrs. Nannie Cloud was able to attend her church on Sunday for the first time in many months, she has been in feeble health, suifering with nervous effecttion.

The congregation at Green River Baptist church is taking steps to build a new house of worship: At the meeting last Saturday committees were appointed to take matter in hand.

Uncle Luke Jackson, one of the oldest colored men in the county, is lying in a very critical condition at this time; Luke and Aunt Sarah his wife, are both respectable darkies, being of slavery time type.

Gray Hampton of Pittsburg, who has been at home for several weeks on a vacation, left on Monday. He will return via Asheville and visit Miss Sheleto who is now teaching at Marshall, N. C.

Mrs. Angie McFarland and son Ralph left on Monday to spend same time in Rutherfordton. They will probably move to that place permanently in the future, as most of family is already located there.

The home of Mr. J. T. Splawn was made sad by the death of his daughter, Miss Bertha last week. She had been ill for several weeks. The burial services were held at Sandy Springs church, conducted by Rev. R. J. Tate.

Mr. Charles, who now owns and occupy's the Huston house, two miles from town, is putting in a pipe line to convey water from a mountain Spring to his house and when completed, will be quite a convenience for the water snpply to every room of his dwelling. The line will be about 1200 feet long, of 1 1/2 inch piping and will be an improvement in some respects to the one which was put there by Mr. Houston when the house was first built. Mingus Justice of Tryon, has the contract.
