TRYON NEWS.

Death Of Miss Lucy Stearns—Marriage Of Otto Oppelt—Bond Issue.
Written for The News.

Tryon, May 31th.—Miss Lucy Stearns died Monday afternoon at 4 p m at the Mimosa Hotel, Lynn, from heart failure. She had been seriously ill for only a few days and her death was a shock to her many friends who were unaware of her serious illness. Miss Lucy Stearns was the daughter of D. E. Stearns. Her brother W. H. Stearns, formerly manager of the Mimosa Hotel but now managing a hotel in Anniston, Ala., was here on a visit last Friday, not thinking that she was dangerously sick. The interment took place Wednesday morning at the Tryon Cemetery.

A Spartanburg special to the Charleston News and Courier, May 9, says—Otto Oppelt, of Lynn, N. C. and Miss Olive Pack a handsome young woman of this city, were married to-day in the office of Dr. S. S. Daniel, a dentist of this city, who demonstrated that he knew how to pull off love affairs to successful termination as well as pull out teeth. The wedding took place under trying and exciting circumstances. The race between the young couple to get married and the bride's brother to stop the ceremony was won by the lovers in an eye-flash finish. It had been arranged for Mr. Oppelt and Miss Pack to be married in the dental office. The Rev. D. W. Keller was on hand when they arrived, and just as he was about to begin the ceremony the brother of the bride rushed in and sought to stop the wedding. Dr. Daniel invited him into an adjoining room, and while talking with the irate brother trying to smooth matters over Mr. Oppelt and Miss Pack were being married in another room.

Mr. Oppelt is in charge of the dye-room of the Tryon Hosiery Co., Lynn.

T. C. Poppe, book-keeper of the Tryon Hosiery Co., attended the meeting of the national Schutzen Band of America in Charleston last week. Mr. Poppe was formerly a resident of Charleston.

W. H. Smith, Southern Railway day operator, left yesterday for Florida, via his former home in Knoxville.

G. F. Hill, the night operator will succeed him. Mr. Smith has made many friends in Tryon, who regret to see him leave.

Osborne Mooney, Tryon's well-known barber has been sick for some time, hence the grizzly appearance of some of our fellow-citizens.

The advocates of the bond issue held a rousing mass meeting at the school house Saturday afternoon at 4 p m. The meeting was presided over by F. S. Wilcox and speeches were made by B. L. Ballenger, A. L. Hill, S. E. Talley, G. H. Holmes, R. F. W. Allston, F. S. Wilcox and others and several important converts were made.

Geo A. Gash, T. A. Sizemore and J. B. Pace have formed a company for the manufacture of laths and other like building materials. The mill is located in the Paeolet Valley on the property of J. B. Pace.

An Able Sermon.

Last Sunday, the following were candidates for Baptism and were Baptised at the Columbus Baptist Church:

Misses Nellie Smith, Ola Walker, May Mills, and Messrs John Smith, and Herman Walker. Mrs. Walker Arledge, and Mr. Washington Hill, joined by letter.

After the Baptising, Pastor Jones preached a most able sermon; portraying in his eloquent manner, the life and trials of Joseph. He showed clearly the greatness, of the Almighty and the dependences of the finite man, using Joseph's story as his theme.

This was masterly interwoven making one of Mr. Jones strongest sermons. One of the largest audiences that have attended this year, heard Rev. Jones.

SALUDA NEWS.

Municipal Election—Melrose Inn Opens For The Summer—Other News. Special to The News.

Saluda, May 14.—The municipal election went off very quietly. O. B. Garren was elected Mayor, by a big majority. Dr. E. B. Golet, C. C. Sooner, E. L. Patterson and E. T. Burgess Aldermen.

John A. Garmany has been re-elected by the new board of town commissioners as city marshal for a term of two years. Mr. Garmany is an excellent officer.

Miss Emma S. Heriot and Mrs. McKinsey of Charleston, arrived Thursday to open Melrose Inn, for the summer.

Mr. J. H. Sullinan and wife, Mr. McClain, and Mrs. Knight of Asheville, are guests at Mrs. W. C. Robertsons'.

Dr. Golet is in New York, visiting his daughter, Mr. B. Johnson his assistant, has charge of the pharmacy department this week.

The new organ at the Baptist church, adds much to the appearance of the church. Miss Grace Thorn has been elected assistant organist.

Sheriff Robertson and wife have returned from Raleigh. CITIZEN.

Browning Vs Lee.

In the case Browning vs Lee, heard before Judge Justice at Rutherfordton last week, Judge Justice dissolved the restrained against J. B. Turner selling his land to the Lees of Landrum.

In the case, G. — Browning got an option about 8 or 9 months ago and failed to have it recorded in the Register's office. J. B. Turner gave Lee an option on the same land, claiming that the option given to Browning was for only six months. Lee had his option recorded at once and Browning his afterwards. Browning filed an injunction against Lee, this last court; it was then taken before Judge Justice.

The land in controversy is the cotton mill site chosen by the Lees.

J. B. Turner the present owner of the land, has the right to sell this property to Lee and make a deed for same.

Sam Hood Captured.

Sam Hood, who has been fleeing from the law for a year and a half, was captured last week near Mill Spring, by one of Sheriff Robertson's deputies. Hood, it will be remembered, was charged with larceny and carrying concealed weapon.

On hearing the allegations that were to be brought against him, he fled to South Carolina, and was not heard of until last week. He had a preliminary hearing and was released on a $200 bond, J. D. Carpenter being his bondsman.

A Big Tree.

Mr. C. C. Collins an energetic saw mill man of Landrum, tells us that he cut and sawed a white pine tree, out of which he got 10 twelve ft. logs, and 4 ten feet logs, makin a total of 23,000 feet of lumber out of one tree. This tree was cut on Mr. Jim Green's place in Polk county.

"Your teeth are like the stars," he said. The maiden's face grew brew bright—"Your teeth are like the stars," he said, "They all come out at night."

Of all the fruits in the land, That grow on bush or tree, I would give up the choicest ones For Rocky Mountain Tea.
