TRYON NEWS.

TRYON, July 24.—The Men's Reading Room Club was organized Friday night July 19th, in the rooms of the K. of P. Lodge. The officers of the club are A. Lynch Hill, President; J. Ellis Pearson, Vice-president; W. C. Corcoran, Seceretary; J. Curtis Arledge, Treasurer. The movement was started recently by Rev. E. N. Joyner, to whom is due the credit for the formation of the club under such favorable auspices. The following young men constitute the charter members: Messrs. A. Lynch Hill, Albert Branon, Curtis Arledge, Geo. F. Hill, Mingus Justice, Fred Jackson, Clayton Pace, Cox Weaver, Joe Mills, J. E. Pearson, T. Wigglesworth, M. C. Butler, Cam Livingston, C. S. Ford, Deaver Kelley, W. C. Corcoran and Rev. E. N. Joyner. A suite of rooms in the Pearson building were engaged and will be fitted up immediately.

J. Ellis Pearson and Miss Maggie Moore of Pearidge were married Sunday evening by Rev. Rufus Rhodes at the residence of the officiating Minister on Tryon mountain near Saluda. Mr. Pearson is a son of Capt. C. W. Pearson formerly of Melrose, now residing near Green River. Mr. Pearson is in the mercantile business having purchased the business of A. H. Williams. Miss Moore is daughter of Nathan Moore, a prosperous farmer of White Oak Township. Mr. and Mrs. Pearson are stopping with Mrs. J. C. Cagle.

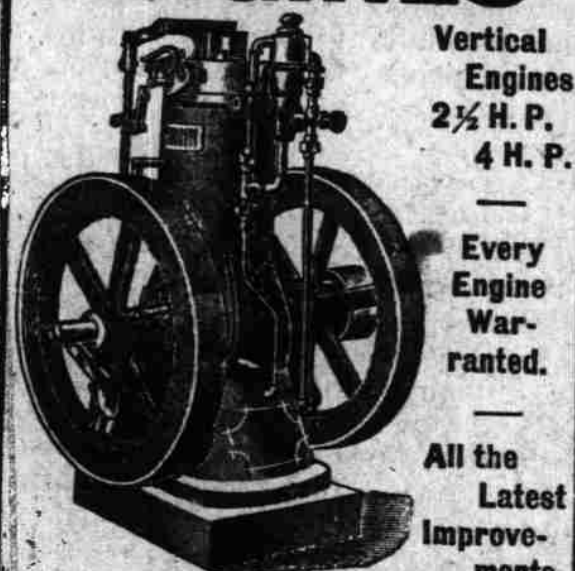

The Tryon Electric Light Water and Power Co. took its first teeth Saturday night. The Company decided not to wait any longer on the Southern Railway for permission to lay its pipes under the railroad tracks at the crossing near the depot and in the present of the depot agent and section master at midnight Saturday the four inch piping was connected and the town will soon have water. It is not known just what legal complications may arise from the Water Company's action, as to whether it was acting within its rights, but the situation will be watched with interest by everyone in Tryon, and it is hoped the matter may be adjusted without litigation.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. A. Lynch Hill, July 19th a son.

Miss Edna Marshbanks of Spartanburg is visiting the Misses Smith.

Mrs. H. E. Conner of Holly Hill, S. C. is visiting her son Olive F. Conner at Mrs. S. B. Talley's.
